ELGIN MILLS - JEFFERSON NEWS CORRESPONDENT: MRS. H. G. ROBERTSON Brookside Road, Telephone Richmond Hill 372R32

Church News The Annual Vestry meeting of St. John's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges (Yonge St. at Jefferson) was held on Monday evening at the home of F. Legg with 26 members present.

Snowplowing The business men around Elgin Mills are up in arms regarding the snowplowing done by the Department of Highways last week-end. After they had shovelled their own frontages clear of snow the plows came along and piled small "mountains" of snow just where it was most inconvenient for those trying to get in or out of the shops and buildings.

Visits, Here and There It's an ill wind that does not blow good to someone. During the recent TTC strike many people, who work in the city but live up here, had to change their regular routine. Mr. Jim Matkin of Elgin Mills was among those who had to stay over in Toronto nights. However this meant their daughter, Mrs. R. W. Keight of Lyle, Ont., came down here for a very enjoyable mid-winter visit with her mother, Mrs. Matkin. Mrs. Keight returned to her home in Lyle on Thursday evening.

Miss Sheila Keight and her friend, Mr. Ernest Lawrence, drove up from Toronto early last Sunday and spent the day with Sheila's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Matkin.

Mrs. S. C. Snively has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. T. T. Stoker in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gibson, Summit Farms have been holidaying in Florida for the past two weeks. They are expected home early in February.

Mr. Giles Kerswill has now left the hospital and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Rumble, in Toronto. Mrs. Kerswill will be confined to bed for another two months, but she is much happier and contented at her daughter's home. Remembering the bright little nurse who used to trip into our hospital room at 5 a.m., snap on the light and say cheerfully "Time for our morning sponge bath," and realizing of course how indispensable and helpful hospitals are during illness, we still say they are not the place to go if one wants to "sleep in" of a morning.

We are sorry to hear Nancy Passmore is ill with 'flu and hope she will soon be back at Jefferson Public School.
