W. A. of Thornhill Cubs & Scouts
On Tuesday, February 26, the W.A. of Thornhill Cubs & Scouts held its regular meeting in the Sunday School room of the Thornhill United Church at 8.30 p.m. They were pleased to have as their guest speakers Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Banks of Richmond Hill who spoke on floral arrangements.

Brownies
On Sunday, February 24, the Brownies and Girl Guides united with the Cubs & Scouts for a church parade to the Thornhill United Church at 7 p.m.

Women's Institute
The regular monthly meeting of the Thornhill W.I. was held last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. Crowhurst, 2nd vice president in the chair. An invitation to join with the Unionville W.I. on March 6 has been accepted and transportation was arranged.

On March 12 the annual board meeting of the York East Women's Institute will be held at the YWCA on McGill St. Mrs. A. Seelye District Director will attend this meeting.

A vote of thanks was offered to all those who worked so hard to make the anniversary celebrations on Tuesday, February 19, such a great success.
A letter from the Comrie Women's Rural Institute in Scotland was read thanking the members of the Thornhill W.I. for the gavel which they sent to this Institute through their member Mrs. Sidey who has been visiting in Canada and who the Thornhill Institute had the pleasure of entertaining at several of their meetings.

It was decided that the W.I. would form "Friendship Links" with an Institute in Scotland and one in England.
Mrs. R. Thompson, a charter member of the W.I. was presented with a plant and a tray of cookies on February 19 as she is ill in bed and was unable to attend the anniversary celebrations. The flowers received from the Thornhill District Lions Club and the Answell Appliances Ltd., congratulating the W.I. on their anniversary, were, on the following day, distributed among several shut-ins in our community. An offer of thanks is given to all those who so kindly loaned antiques to the W.I. for their Antique Show.

A donation of $10 has been made to the Thornhill Library for the purchase of new books. The nominating committee appointed for the coming elections consists of Mrs. W. Ball, Mrs. B. Heslop and Mrs. T. Empringham. Volunteers for the next clinic day, which will be the first month for immunization, are Mrs. C. Thompson, Mrs. R. Holmes and Mrs. J. Little.

Mrs. Foxley was a welcome visitor at this meeting. Hostesses for the day were Mesdames Fry, Frater, Heslop, Holmes and Empringham.
The next regular meeting will be held on Thursday, March 20, and (Held last week)

The sympathy of the "Old Gormley" neighbours is extended to Mrs. B. Corfield in her sad bereavement. Word reached Mrs. Corfield Sunday that her only sister in Scotland had passed away after a period of illness.
Mrs. Harry Thompson and brother, Mr. Frank Lerman, visited their brother in Hamilton last Friday and Saturday and also called on other friends.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Doner called on Mrs. Francis Hisey in Toronto last Friday afternoon, also taking home Mrs. Martha Edmonds who had been visiting in Gormley.
Mrs. George Leary had Sunday evening supper with Mrs. E. Jones and Mr. Stevens.
Mr. Ronald Elliott visited Sunday at his home near Zephyr.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunt enjoyed a visit Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson at Newtonbrook.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Milstead and Mr. and Mrs. A. Doner had dinner Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. S. Doner and Grace.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heise moved on Monday to occupy several rooms in the home of Mrs. W. Bruce.
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Funk and two children of Vineland were week-end guests in the home of her sister, Mrs. L. K. Sider.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker have moved into the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Cook.

We are very pleased to report that within the past two weeks electric safety signals have been put into operation, at the railway crossing. This has been a very dangerous crossing and we hope the signals may be a safeguard against further accidents.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Falkowski called on Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Farmer on Monday evening.

roll call is to be answered with "Garden Hints or Spring Birds."
We are pleased to report that Mrs. Bill Fisher, Centre St., returned home Saturday after a stay in hospital. Our best wishes are sent to Mrs. Fisher.
Child Health Clinic (Immunization)
The next clinic day will be on Monday, March 17. The first needle for immunization will be given on this day; the second and third needles on following months. Dr. King, Public Health Officer for York County will be in attendance to administer the injections. Clinic hours are from 1.30 until 4 p.m.
Thornhill Home & School
Founder's Day was celebrated by the Home & School Association in the area on Thursday evening, February 21, at the Thornhill United Church hall. Mrs. N. D. McLellan, guest speaker for the evening, talked on the necessity of everyone, old and adult, finding the work for which they are best suited. The Home & School Assoc. can function to the best advantage.
The Founder's Day ritual was carried out by Mrs. H. LeMasurier and symbolized by the lighting of a candle. Following the meeting coffee and cookies were served.
Trinity Church
This Sunday, being the first Sunday in Lent, the Rev. Canon Jacques will be guest preacher at the 11 a.m. service. Canon Jacques is one of the representatives of the Canadian Institute for the Blind, and is, himself totally blind. There will also be celebration of Holy Communion at this service.
Parish Guild
The last meeting of the Parish Guild held on Tuesday, February 19, took the form of a social evening when they entertained members of St. Mary's Anglican church Guild from Richmond Hill. Games under the direction of Mesdames C. Ball, D. Ball, H. Biggs and C. De Clerq proved very entertaining. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames D. Booth, H. Biggs, C. De Clerq, R. Fisher, H. T. Girard and Miss M. Henderson.

Home and School
On Thursday, February 21, Powell Road Home and School joined Langstaff, Thornhill and Thornlea for a joint Founder's Day meeting held in Thornhill United Church Hall. A large attendance was welcomed by Mr. McTaggart-Cowan, president of Thornhill H&S, who introduced the presidents and secretaries of the other associations taking part. Mr. Fisher introduced Mrs. Burke, teacher of Powell Rd. school who delighted the audience with two very suitable and beautiful solos. Mrs. Bell accompanied Mrs. Burke.

Mrs. LeMasurier vice-president of York council for the North Area, welcomed members of the newly formed Richvale H & S and enlightened everyone on the vast growth of H&S in the immediate area and expressed her thanks to members of the school board for their high esteem for H&S. A candle was lit in memory of Mrs. Courtice, founder of Home and School in 1916 and to the future of all H&S work, the only organization which works solely for the betterment of children and education.

Guest speaker was Mrs. M. D. McLellan, Branford, who is president of the Ontario Federation of H&S, who was introduced by Mrs. P. D. McClelland, president of the York Council. Mrs. McLellan's closing thought was that H&S has a philosophy of faith in people. Everyone is needed and wanted in H & S. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the speaker by Mrs. H. Bow, on behalf of all present. Mrs. R. Fisher and Mrs. McTaggart-Cowan poured tea and coffee, and the combined social committees served lunch.

Congratulations are extended to Elizabeth Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bell, 37 Woodward Ave., on her recent engagement on Valentine's Day, February 14, to John Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cobb, 140 Boon Ave., Toronto. The lucky fellow is also brother to a local resident, Mrs. Ross, Woodward Ave.

Officers for the Girls Club Executive were selected at the last committee meeting. Mrs. H. Johnson, president, Mrs. H. Bell secretary, Mrs. J. Mason treasurer, Directors are Mrs. Seggie and Mrs. Pinel. Anyone interested in girls club may now contact any of these ladies for details.

Several ladies of our community attended a very interesting night on Tuesday, February 26, at the United Church, Thornhill, for a demonstration in floral arrangements, conducted by Mrs. Wm. Banks and Mrs. Rice of Richmond Hill. The evening was sponsored by the Cub Mothers Auxiliary of Thornhill.

World Day of Prayer, Friday, February 29, at Trinity Church, Thornhill, at 2 p.m. All ladies of the community are welcome. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Roger Priestman, 70 Grandview Ave., Diocese Treasurer of Women's Auxiliary. This service will be attended by auxiliaries of the various local churches.

Sorry to hear Mrs. J. O. McCrimmon, 78 Highland Park Blvd., has undergone a serious operation at Women's College Hospital. Our sincere wishes for a quick recovery.
Belated birthday wishes go to young Charles Forrest, 60 Woodward Ave., who celebrated his birthday Saturday, February 16.

Paper collection by the boys club scheduled for March 1 has been cancelled until further notice, sorry if anyone has pushed to bundle their papers, but bundle them for the boys as it will take place as soon as possible.

The South-East Vaughan Ratepayers held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, February 20, at Powell Road School.
The township council has been invited to attend the next regular meeting on March 19.
Mr. DeClerq, chairman of the committee of the Highland Park Boys Club was guest speaker. He described the various activities of the boys club such as stamp collecting, clay modelling, leathercraft and sports. The boys are taking at present St. John's Ambulance First Aid course. Any parent is welcome to attend the boys' club meetings to see how they are conducted.

Miss Carol Smith of 18A Crestwood Road was elected president of the school choir for the entire school year.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith of 18A Crestwood Road on the arrival of a daughter Jayne Darleen on February 25, a sister for Carol and Jacquelyn.

Mr. Learn, principal of Powell Road School and Mrs. Ritchie, art teacher, took the boys and girls from Mr. Learn's class for a trip through the Art Gallery on Wednesday, February 20. The children were greatly impressed with the interesting subjects in art. The trip took about two hours.

Mr. Learn had an interesting show on Friday night of the Royal Tour of the Late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth in 1939. There was a comedy reel also shown. The money received from these shows is used to buy sports equipment for the children of the school. Mr. Learn hopes to have equally good shows every Friday night.

Lakefield, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rickward.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Cook on Sunday were members of their family, Mrs. Harold Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cook and Anita and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers, who is a grandson.
Mrs. C. L. Stephenson and Miss Anne Stephenson were guests for the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. E. Cotter, Guelph, R. R. 3. Anne was a guest at "Carnation Capers" at the OAC and sang in the United Church at Aberfoyle Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reinkoester of Oshawa have announced the engagement of their daughter Dorothy to Mr. Keith Fleming formerly of Winnipegosis who has lived at the Ridge Inn, Oak Ridges for the past two years.
Russell Keenan a pupil at Oak Ridges School who is living with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Ash has been a patient in the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, for the past 10 day undergoing treatment on his eye.
Mrs. Robert Ash entertained neighborhood chums of Donnie on Tuesday in celebration of his thirteenth birthday.
Mr. Wm. Ash has received the war service medals earned by his son the late Mr. James Ash who was lost with his ship the Novadoc on March 1, 1947. Medals received are the 39-45 Star, the Atlantic Star 39-45, and the War Medal.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Summers, Lakeland Ave. are receiving congratulations on the birth of their Toronto hospital.
Mrs. Robert Woolley Jr. is in the Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital, where she was operated on Saturday morning. She is making satisfactory progress.
