CARRVILLE

Corr.: Mrs. Bert Middleton
Telephone Maple 130R3

Communion service was held at Carrville United Church on Palm Sunday. Mary George and Susan Lewis were confirmed. Good Friday at 11 a.m. the Carrville congregation are invited to join the Thornhill congregation at a special service of meditation when Mr. E. Clarke, Emmanuel College will be the special speaker.

Carrville W. A. met Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. A. Read, with 14 members and 1 visitor present. The theme of the meeting was "in the community." Mrs. George read the Scripture and explanation and Mrs. E. Lewis gave an Easter message. The treasurer reported a profit of $86 from the booth at S. Winger's sale. The social convengers Mrs. Baker and Mrs. McEwen assisted the hostess with refreshments and a social time was spent. The W. A. is invited to the home of Mrs. J. Oliver, Richmond Hill for the May meeting.

The Carrville Home and School Association will meet Thursday evening in the school on April 10. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Jackson of Thornlea speaking on "Parent Education."

Congratulations are in order to our sister church at Thornhill who have completed their new hall and are holding the dedication service tonight.

RICHVALE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. JACKSON TAYLOR
Phone Richmond Hill 367R22

At Richvale Home and School meeting Monday evening two very good films were presented. One a trip to the Caribbean and the other Family Circle. The latter showed how Home and School works. In the unavoidable absence of Mrs. York, president of the new Toronto Home and School Council, Mr. Kenneth Bradshaw made a few explanatory remarks.

Felicitations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arbon of Spruce Avenue who are holding Open House on Saturday in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

Cub News
The first Richvale Cub presented the phases of their Cub work to a number of parents and other interested persons on Thursday evening. This was followed by the entertainment provided by the boys consisting of recitations, a solo, a dancing doll solo and a puppet show and then a sing-song.

Mrs. H. Gottschalk and Mrs. Kneeth Bradshaw entertained the Guide and Brownie leaders at luncheon last Thursday when they met to plan their anticipated trip to Camp Samac.

The Local Association meeting for Guide and Brownie mothers is tonight at the home of Mrs. R. F. Paul, Spruce Avenue at 8.30 p.m.

Barry Robson had eight little guests to help him celebrate his fourth birthday on Monday. They were Joan Taylor, Sharon and Victoria Faer, Eleanor Gottschalk, Harold Hartford, Sharon and Linda Jellicoe and Diane Ely.

(Held from last week)
At last week's meeting of the Cubs, Mr. Frank Worth, District Commissioner presented to the First Richvale Pack their 1951 Plan Achievement Target which will be sewn on the Wolf Cub flag.

Felicitations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fawcett of 47 Edgemoor Avenue, who celebrated their 37th wedding anniversary on Monday which was also the occasion of Mr. Fawcett's birthday. Present at the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fawcett of Willowdale, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bowen of Edgemoor Avenue and friends. Mr. Fawcett is caretaker of the new Charles Howitt school.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Duncan (the former Patricia Keating) to whom a baby daughter was born in Newmarket hospital last week.

We are sorry to report that the District Cubmaster Cecil Smith is on the sick list and hope he will soon be on the mend.

HIGHLAND PARK NEWS

MRS. WALTER SANDERS
23 Drury Ave.
Telephone: Thornhill 443J

Several residents have spring birthdays. These brought to my attention were: E. Baxter, April 2; R. Forrest, March 29; H. Johnson, April 1 and Betty Ann DeClerq who was five on April 7. Hope all these people spent enjoyable birthdays and wish them many more.

Warning to Mothers
There is an old well near the buildings on the old farm land north of Drury Ave., which evidently is not properly covered and all should be on the alert to keep the small youngsters from playing there.

We were sorry to lose from our community last week Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster, 23 Drury Ave., who have moved to the vicinity of Flesherton to take up farming.

Mrs. H. Bow, 20 Grandview Ave., has returned home after spending a pleasant two weeks in the Islington area. She divided her time between her daughter's home enjoying the grandchildren and her friends, who operate the Flower Basket florists on Dixie highway where she enjoyed television and the flowers as well.

On Thursday, April 3, the meeting was again held at North York

Veterans Hall and was an entertainment night of real good movies, a western, an animated cartoon and a Bruin Bear cub picture. The members of the girls club were invited to enjoy the night also and about 25 girls were present accompanied by Mrs. H. Bell and Mrs. H. Johnson.

Many children in the area attended the special showing of the film, The Royal Journey on Tuesday, April 1, when the Richmond Theatre ran a special show for the children. The went by special bus.

Understand Mrs. J. Forrest and children are hoping to join Mr. Forrest in Edmonton, where he has been transferred for a period in connection with his work. Hope they will be able to rent their home for the time and be able to return to our community again.

Regular executive meeting was held Tuesday, April 8, with Mr. Robert Fisher, pres., in the chair. Plans were discussed for this month's meeting which will be Safety Night. Mrs. O'Brien reported several are attending the annual convention April 15 and 16 at the Royal York. Regular meeting will be Monday, April 28. It is nomination night for the election in May.

UNIONVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. LEN. RAINEY, UNIONVILLE
Phone Unionville 112J

Miss Velma Findlay spent Thursday last week with her father, Mr. Frank Findlay of Thornhill.

Friday and Saturday the Scout and Cub of Last week banquet was served free of charge by the Mothers' Auxiliary. Forty-five boys and 51 men were present at the banquet in United Church school room. Mr. A. Hill made a very able chairman. Present from headquarters were district commissioner Frank Worth; District Scoutmaster Cecil Smith, Prov. Field Commissioner Jack Atkinson, who was the guest speaker. He spoke on "Self Control". Mr. John Young was introduced as the beginner of Boy Scouts in Unionville, choosing Mr. Hill as his counsellor. This was in 1932 when the troop was formed, John Young becoming King Scout, which is the highest rank a Scout can reach. The Beaver Patrol under the leadership of Brian Allen received the award for best patrol. The Cubs entertained with two dances. The Red Six received the prize for the best six. The leader is Mike Grace. The Cub showing the greatest progress in the year was Ronald Darby. This prize was donated by E. LeMasurier. Much praise is due Donald Deacon, leader of the Scouts and Bill Thomas and Charles Maynard Jr. who lead the Cubs. Flowers were donated by Mr. Scharfen of Markham.

Miss Margaret Walker and Miss Doris Kennedy spent last weekend with Doris' grandfather, Mrs. Kennedy at Little Britain.

The Unionville-Markham Business and Professional Club held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Janet Maunders. An interesting item of the evening was the baking and white elephant sale which proved quite successful. Miss Dorothy Stiver and Mrs. A. K. Herrington served lunch.

While curling at the Unionville arena Monday, Mr. Wesley Goh, suffered a slight stroke. Mr. Goh is a former Reeve of Markham Twp. and Warden of the County.

The closing of the Ladies Curling Club was marked by a mixed bonspiel. Winning rink were: 1st Ed Sellars, skip, Joy Riseborough, Miss H. Thompson, Bill Jennings; 2nd John Brown, skip, Mrs. M. Rae, Mrs. A. Grant, Mrs. Gladys Jarvis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patrick family of Powersville District have moved to Todmorden.

No need to send a lot of notices about that function your club is staging. Use a "Coming Events" notice in The Liberal. Low in cost, it will command much attention. Telephone Richmond Hill 9.
