LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. F. STOTTS

18 Church St., Langstaff

Phone Thornhill 211R3

March 25 was a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. George Hale, No. 7 east. It was their 40th wedding anniversary when they were joined by relatives, friends and neighbors to celebrate the occasion. They were recipients of many lovely gifts, cards and congratulations. Mrs. Mountjoy presented a bouquet of red roses to the happy couple.

Mr. Hale was born in Bristol England, and Mrs. Hale was born in Ireland. Mr. Hale preceded Mrs. Hale to Canada, coming to this country in 1911. The couple were married at the home of Mr. Hale's uncle, Mr. W. Jones, 419 Sackville St., Toronto. With spring flowers gracing the dining room, 20 guests sat down at a turkey supper. The 3-tiered anniversary cake was cut by the honored couple and toasts were given wishing them many more years of happiness. The guests were the bridesmaid, a cousin, Mrs. E. Billet, Mrs. Munk, Mrs. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. H. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Mountjoy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Charles, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lockhart, Mr. and Mrs. M. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Wake, Mr. and Mrs. W. Charles and J. Williams Jr.

The Hales were very active in World War II when Mr. Hale, organizer of the civic welcome to English servicemen and returned men, was presented with a plaque for his work. He has been employed by the TTC for 41 years.

A mock wedding started the evening's fun, Mr. Williams acting as the groom, Mrs. Mountjoy as the bride and Mrs. Roy as the parson, which ended up with dancing.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Watt, Sussex Ave., on the occasion of their wedding anniversary, April 7.

Mrs. J. Armstrong, Cedar St., is visiting with Mrs. Brown, a sister, in Toronto for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holt attended the hockey games between the Spitfires and St. Catharines at the Downsview Arena.

Mrs. Bickmore of Garden Ave. has returned home from the hospital. Our wish for you, Mrs. Bickmore, is that this time you are home to stay.

May we offer congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. D. Parker, Bayview, on the anniversary of their wedding day, April 14.

Charles Ellison, returned home April 4, from the Sick Children's Hospital, where he has been for the past few weeks under observation for an injury. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ellison, Roosevelt Drive.

Pammy Morrison 5, and Jimmie Parker 5, are attending Mrs. Gage's kindergarten, for a two month special course, preparing for Public School in September.

We were happy to learn that Mrs. G. Mills, Church St., who has been under the doctor's care is able to be up for a short while each day; also that Mrs. Kilpatrick No. 7 east, is allowed to sit up in bed; and Mrs. Marritt, Willowdale is progressing most favorably. To Mrs. Butcher, Cedar St., who we hear is again confined to her bed, our sincere wishes for a speedy recovery.

Friday, April 4, a shower was held at the home of Mrs. H. Lee in honor of Mrs. A. Gibson, Fairview Ave. To shower lovely gifts on Mrs. Gibson were Mrs. Drew, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Suter, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gladding, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Robeson, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Hamblin, Mrs. Reaman, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Lyett, Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Curr, Mrs. Corner, Mrs. Eagleson, Mrs. Jobe, Mrs. Richard, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. Amant, Mrs. Carley, Mrs. Tudge, Mrs. Ablett, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. MacDonold and Mrs. MacRitchie. Gifts were also received from the teachers of Richmond Hill Public School.

Sunday, March 30, Markham and Vaughan Township School Area No. 1 Glee Club sang at the morning service of Runnymede United Church.

Praise for this choir was the main topic of conversation by the congregation. Langstaff contributed 14 singers to the group of 60. Mr. Martin is to be congratulated on his work with the choir.

We, with other schools in the area, were very fortunate indeed to be able to see "Royal Journey" at Richmond Theatre.

Softball season is in the air as practice for the coming games gets under way. The school schedule will begin April 28.

The Langstaff boys are in the throes of forming a baseball team to play through the summer. They have all the ear-marks of a good team — interest and determination and good sportsmanship, but they need a sponsor. If anyone is interested please contact the school.

A fashion show was held Thursday evening March 27, under the auspices of the Langstaff Home and School Association. The girls' choir of the school opened the programme by singing "Loch Lomond". Barbara J. Wicket read a poem entitled "Ambitious" and Mr. D. Smith's trio, Margaret McArthur, Heather Bell, Phyllis Russell, with Mrs. E. Bell as pianist sang "Morning Glory".

The children participating and modelling the costumes were Yvonne Laba, Scotty Anderson, Avril Lunau, Carolyn Green, Richard Woodcock, Marlene Wake, Gail Lockhart and Bruce Palmer.

Mr. Smith, the principal, addressed those present, Miss Ritchies, teacher of Grade 2 acted as Mistress of Ceremonies.

A pleasant and successful evening closed with a sing-song Refreshment hostesses were Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Junna, Mrs. Winterfield, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Woodcock, and Mrs. Anderson.

Program convener of the Fashion Show and committee were Mrs. Robeson, Mrs. Ablett, Mrs. Laba, Mrs. Camring, Miss Ritchies and Linda Bell.

Door prize winners were Mrs. Campbell Smith, Mrs. R. Hark, Helen Boys and Gerald Bowen; silver cream set, Mrs. Crosier, voucher Mrs. Hanna.

Jack Stephenson returned home this week to Toko, Sask. He was accompanied by 2 boys from neighboring communities who seek work in the West.

There will be a family night in Brown's Corners United Church on Easter Sunday. A fine film will be shown and several musical numbers have been arranged.

The Easter Thankoffering meeting of Brown's Corners WMS took the form of a dessert lunch served by the April committee, Mrs. D. Hood, Mrs. J. Rodick, and Mrs. Wm. Rodick. After luncheon Mrs. W. Craig presided over the first part of the programme. Among those present were former members, Mrs. Horde, Mrs. S. Brooke, Mrs. E. Bruce, Mrs. Glendinning, Mrs. Steffler acted as secretary. Mrs. Clayton sang "In Joseph's Lovely Garden" and several members of the choir sang "The Magdalene. The theme of the devotion- al was "What does Easter mean to you?"

Rev. A. Huston gave a talk on our Faith in the Easter story. Mrs. W. Rodick then summarized the last chapters of the study book. Mrs. Rodick conducted the Harmony business.
