Weddings

PALMER-MCLEAN

Potted mauve hydrangea decorated Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church, on Saturday, May 10, for the marriage of Geraldine Christine McLean, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean to Mr. Ralph Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Palmer, Richmond Hill. Rev. S. W. Hirtle officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father was gowned in ivory satin, with princess lines, a floor length embroidered tulle veil with coronet of rhinestones and seed pearls and carried a cascade of red roses and white sweet peas. In attendance to the bride were her sisters, Miss Shirley McLean, a maid of honor in azure blue nylon with peplum of lace and sweetheart cap of matching nylon net carrying a nosegay of pink roses and sweet peas. Bridesmaids Misses Joyce and Jacqueline McLean were dressed alike in powder blue and baby pink taffeta with yolk of nylon net, wore sweetheart caps of matching net and carried nosegays of pink sweet peas.

The groom was attended by his brother Garth Palmer, the ushers being Douglas Palmer and Garland McLean. During the signing of the register, Mr. Willis McNeely sang.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother receiving in a navy and white silk gown with white accessories and corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in blue crepe with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

For a motor trip to Cleveland, Ohio, the bride chose a navy dressmaker suit with white accessories and corsage of red roses. On their return the happy couple will reside at Richmond Hill.

THOMPSON-SARGENT A lovely wedding took place at seven o'clock on Saturday evening, May 17, 1952, when Miss Gladys Mae Sargent, daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. James Sargent of Richvale became the bride of Mr. Thomas Richard Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. McCaul Thompson of Ellerslie Avenue, Willowdale, in Richmond Hill Anglican Church. Rev. Wrixon officiated. Mrs. C. Harding was the organist.

Given in marriage by her brother Mr. Carmen Sargent, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a Queen Anne collar and a long train over which she wore a long-sleeved lace jacket. From her flowered headdress fell a half-length veil. She carried a white prayer book adorned with crimson rosebuds.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Russell Lomas of Toronto and Mrs. James Jordan, sisters of the bride. Mrs. Lomas wore a lilac organza gown with matching crescent hat and carried a bouquet of dark red roses and deep mauve sweet peas, and Mrs. Jordan was gowned in yellow organza with matching crescent hat and carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white sweet peas and baby's breath. The two little flower girls, Nanette and Elizabeth Milland, nieces of the bride, wore pale blue and delicate pink dresses and carried nosegays of sweet peas and lady's breath. Their head bands of pink apple blossoms were identical.

The groomsmen were Mr. Allan Boss and the ushers were Mr. Earl Thompson, brother of the groom and Mr. Douglas Morrison, both of Toronto.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Thomas Wilson sang "At Dawning." The church altar was decorated with bouquets of spring flowers.

At the reception which was held in the Lions Community Hall, Richmond Hill, the bride wore a gown of white satin with a Queen Anne collar and a long train over which she wore a long-sleeved lace jacket. From her flowered headdress fell a half-length veil. She carried a white prayer book adorned with crimson rosebuds.

The local Association for Girl Guides is holding a garden tea at the residence of Dr. Lillian Langstaff on Saturday, May 31, from 3.30 to 5.30. Dr. Langstaff and Miss Edna Izzard, District Commissioner will receive the guests. Mrs. D. G. Gunn, Divisional Commissioner of York, Mrs. T. B. Lamb, Mrs. B. L. Anderson and Mrs. R. D. Little will pour tea during the afternoon. The purpose of the tea is to raise funds for the National Girl Guide Camp in Ottawa in July. In case of rain tea will be served in the house.

No need to send a lot of notices about that function your club is staging. Use a "Coming Events" notice in The Liberal. Low in cost, it will command much attention. Telephone Turner 4-1261.

mond Hill, the mother of the bride received wearing a dove grey crepe gown and an off-white hat trimmed with navy, and wore a corsage of red roses. Assisting her was the mother of the groom who wore an orchid crepe gown with matching hat and a corsage of yellow roses.

For going away the bride wore a suit of red velvet with black accessories. Following the reception the happy couple left for a brief honeymoon and on their return will live in Willowdale.

SANDERS-DAVIDSON White lilacs and pink and yellow tulips was the setting for the marriage of Jane McKenzie Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davidson of Aurora, to James Ronald Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sanders of Richmond Hill, in Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora, on Saturday, May 24, at 3 p.m. Rev. K. Whatmough officiated at the ceremony with Mrs. Harris playing the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon marquisette which featured a scalloped collar, short sleeves and full skirt. Her elbow-length veil fell from a head-dress of white gardenias and she carried a white prayer book.

Miss Joyce Hatley was the bride's attendant, wearing a ballerina-length gown of mauve nylon marquisette and white picture hat and carrying a nosegay of mauve and white sweetpeas.

Mr. Douglas Sanders was groomsmen for his brother and ushers were Philip Davidson, brother of bride, and Wm. Davidson, cousin of the bride.

At the reception which was held at the Graystones, Aurora, the bride's mother received in a gown of rose crepe with natural accessories, wearing a corsage of mauve and white sweet peas. The groom's mother assisted in a navy two-piece dress, wearing red and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white sweet peas.

For the honeymoon trip to the United States and southern Ontario, the bride wore a yellow suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white roses. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will reside at Richmond Hill.

Out-of-town guests were present at the wedding from Ohio, Terra Cota, Sundridge, Oakville and Toronto.
