KING CITY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. JOHNSTON, KING, ONT.

Phone King 55R14

Dr. A. S. Chalk, who has been in charge of the Ontario Hospital at Cobourg, was appointed superintendent of the hospital at Langstaff, with the annex hospital at Concord, on May 1. On June 1, Dr. Chalk received another appointment to become also acting superintendent of the Ontario Hospital at Aurora. Dr. and Mrs. Chalk have returned to their home "Chalk Hill", 2nd con. of King, where they will reside. At the beginning of the recent war, Dr. Chalk enlisted with the RCMC, and later transferred to the RCAF. After being P.M.O. of 4 of the six RCAF Commands, he was, at the close of the war, Wing Commander officer in charge of a hospital. His first appointment after hostilities was to the Ontario Hospital, 999 Queen St., and then to Cobourg, where he and Mrs. Chalk have lived for over a year.

Mrs. Walter Rolling, Miss Kay Clarke and Mrs. I. L. Scott were the fortunate ones from King City, who attended the performance of Carmen given by the Metropolitan Opera Company in Toronto, last week.

Mr. Archie McCallum is to be congratulated this week on his success in his final examinations at the University of Toronto. Mr. McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel McCallum, graduated with this year's class in commerce and finance and received the degree of Bachelor of Commerce.

The local Association of the King City Brownies is holding its closing meeting of the season on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, June 5, at the Anglican Rectory. The election of officers for executive of next season will be the main business.

On June 24, the children of Strange School will entertain their parents and friends at their annual Open House. This year they will produce a short operetta, about the story of Red Riding Hood for the chief attraction at the entertainment.

When the Brownie Pack of King held its first cookie day two Saturdays ago, they sold 288 boxes of cookies. They could have sold more but will remember next year to canvass farther afield. They collect about $25.00 for this effort.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hunter, Mrs. J. T. Hunter, Judy Scott and Beverley Hunter, motored to Rydal Bank last week end to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Hill.

Because of the Kingcrafts sale, the WMS of Laskay United Church will hold its regular meeting on Friday afternoon, June 6. They will meet at the home of Mrs. J. P. Forester to pack the bale.

The Laskay WI will meet this month on June 10, instead of the first Tuesday in June. The Institute from Vellore will put on the program.

Mrs. W. F. McDonald, Miss Jean McDonald and Mrs. David Anderson attended the graduation exercises of U. of T. Monday afternoon, when Miss Gerrie McDonald, B.A., was presented with her diploma as an expert in nursery school work.

The Provincial Board of Health recommends that one medical health officer could fulfill the duties required in King Township. Since the death of Dr. A. F. Kaye, the office has been filled by Dr. J. L. Urquhart of Aurora. An officer will be appointed later in the month.

Joe Klukay of Toronto Maple Leafs brought a baseball team to King on Monday night, May 26,

The Liberal is very pleased to announce the appointment of Mrs. H. Mizen, 27 Secomoe Ave., as our new correspondent in Doncaster. In order that we may give your district complete news coverage kindly forward any news or items of local interest to Mrs. Mizen.

A benefit euchre will be held at Powell Road School on Friday, June 6, for Mr. Ed Watts. We hope as many as can will attend. Good prizes and no charge for admission.

We are glad to welcome to our neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. Gatehouse on Proctor Ave., also Mr. and Mrs. Fuchs on Clarke Ave.

Sorry to hear that little Patsy Gain has hurt her arm and is confined to her home this week.

Margaret McIvor spent the week end with her parents.

Mrs. C. Willcock of Clarke Ave. leaves for Southampton, England, June 4, on the Scythia from Quebec. She expects to return in August.

Mrs. Cole on Secomoe Ave., had a visit from her father, Mr. Walker at Chalk River.

TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. ED. PAXTON, R. R. 2, KING

On June 11, the Temperanceville Women's Institute will meet in the United Church basement at 2:30 p.m. Schomberg ladies will be the visiting institute and will supply the program. The roll call is "Say something nice about the lady on your right."

Homemakers Club
 Saturday, May 31, the Achievement Day of Homemakers Clubs of the District was held in the Town Hall, Newmarket. Members of the club of Temperanceville, Isabel Mashinter, Florrie and Ruth Beynon, Edna Christensen and Irene Mashinter were all present to take part in the judging and giving reasons on "Cottons May Be Smart" during the morning session. Unfortunately Miss Barbara Hermina, an employee of the Montreal Bank of Aurora, was unable to be present. Each of these girls received her silver spoon for completing the project and Miss Isabel Mashinter received her certificate for hte completion of four units during her membership in the club. The completed dresses of the local club will be shown at Aurora Horse Show Women's Section on June 14.

Mrs. Maurice Beynon was hostess to the Anglican Church auxiliary on Wednesday, May 28. On Monday, June 2, the Anglican Sunday School staff held a meeting at Mrs. Beynon's home.

The Young People will meet on Friday evening at the church after ball practice.

Personals
 Mrs. Christina Dibb spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dibb.

Mr. and Mrs. Collin Crawford, Miss Louise Burkin, Mr. Bruce Bell, Miss Rosemary Wright and Miss Mary McNair were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Beynon. Their son Carl was also home.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Phillips entertained Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lankin of Lansing, Sunday, June 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Kerr and family also Mr. and Mrs. Alexandra Bishop and family, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Thompson on Sunday.

Sunday School
 An attendance of 51 at Sunday School on June 1, the largest yet, heard Mrs. C. Beynon give her talk on Temperance.

Want a good attendance at the concert or bazaar or whatever it may be? Then try an insertion in the "Coming Events" column of the Liberal. It does the job for you at low cost. Telephone Richmond Hill TUrner 4-1261.
