TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. ED. PAXTON, R. R. 2, KING Phone King 3R11

Strawberry Festival Approximately $100 was cleared from the strawberry festival held at the Temperanceville church on Wednesday, June 25. Lovers of music could not help but be touched by the inspiring program of music supplied by Rev. Wesley Hunnisset and his group. A boy soprano by the name of Johnny sang "The cross was his own" with Rev. Hunnisset and Mr. Saunders alternately forming a duet with Johnny. Mr. Arthur Harrison, a violinist played Ave Maria.

York County Home Thursday, June 26, Mrs. Wilbert Jennings and Mrs. Fred Hare visited the York County Home for the Aged at Newmarket. They were greeted by the lady in charge and shown through the premises. The cheerful atmosphere and immaculate cleanliness of the place is a pleasure to behold. The gift to the home of 20 bricks of ice cream bought by the Women's Institute, and a number of cakes, pies and tarts which were a surplus from the strawberry supper were gratefully received.

Birthdays On June 25 John Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Price of Temperanceville had a very exciting time celebrating his 5th birthday. Eight children enjoyed the refreshments. Although other gifts were received John particularly appreciated the one from Sault Ste. Marie which his grandmother had sent.

On Monday, June 30 Brian Bradley enjoyed a party on his third birthday. A picnic lunch made this a very special occasion for Brian, Wayne and Judy Paxton were Guests at Brian's party.

The sympathy of Temperanceville is extended to all members of the George Thompson family in their recent bereavement.
