WEDDING
MacMILLAN-MOORE
In a lovely setting of pink and white gladioli, ferns and palms, Ruth, daughter of Reverend W. H. and Mrs. Moore of Richmond Hill was united in marriage to Alexander Donald MacMillan, son of Rev. Dr. H. A. and Mrs. MacMillan of Toronto, in Thornhill Baptist Church on August 2, at 2.30. Rev. W. H. Moore, father of the bride, officiated and was assisted by Dr. H. A. MacMillan, father of the groom.

Given in marriage by her brother, P.O. George Moore, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace over blush pink taffeta with bouffant skirt, light bodice buttoned to the waist and stand-up Elizabethan collar. Her elbow length veil of net illusion was held in place by a pretty Juliet cap and she wore matching white lace mittens. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pink sweetheart roses.

Her attendant was Miss June Hayward of Owen Sound who wore an apple green taffeta gown along the same lines as that of the bride with matching cap and white shoes and gloves. She carried a cluster of pink toned gladioli.

Mr. Robert O'Hara was groomsmen and Mr. Clifford Wilson was usher. During the signing of the register, Mrs. A. G. Barber sang O Perfect Love and Through the Years. She was accompanied by Mr. Walter Smook at the piano.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Centre St. West. The bride's mother received the guests in a gown of aqua shantung-taffeta with black and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a turquoise mesh gown with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For travelling, the bride chose a coffee coloured redingote of taffeta over a coffee and white striped undershirt. White accessories and a corsage of miniature gladioli completed the ensemble. The happy couple will reside in Toronto.

Out of town guests present for the ceremony were Miss Ruth Ray of Owen Sound, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Moore of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. Getsioan of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reeves of Meadowvale, Ontario.

OBITUARY
JESSE RUSSELL
The funeral of the late Mrs. Jesse Russell was held from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home Saturday afternoon and was largely attended by friends and relatives. Mrs. Russell passed away Thursday, July 31, after a lengthy illness.

The former Mabel J. Rolfe, she was born in Sussex, England, and came to Canada in 1913. She was married in 1916 and with her husband moved to Richmond Hill in 1918 and has lived here ever since.

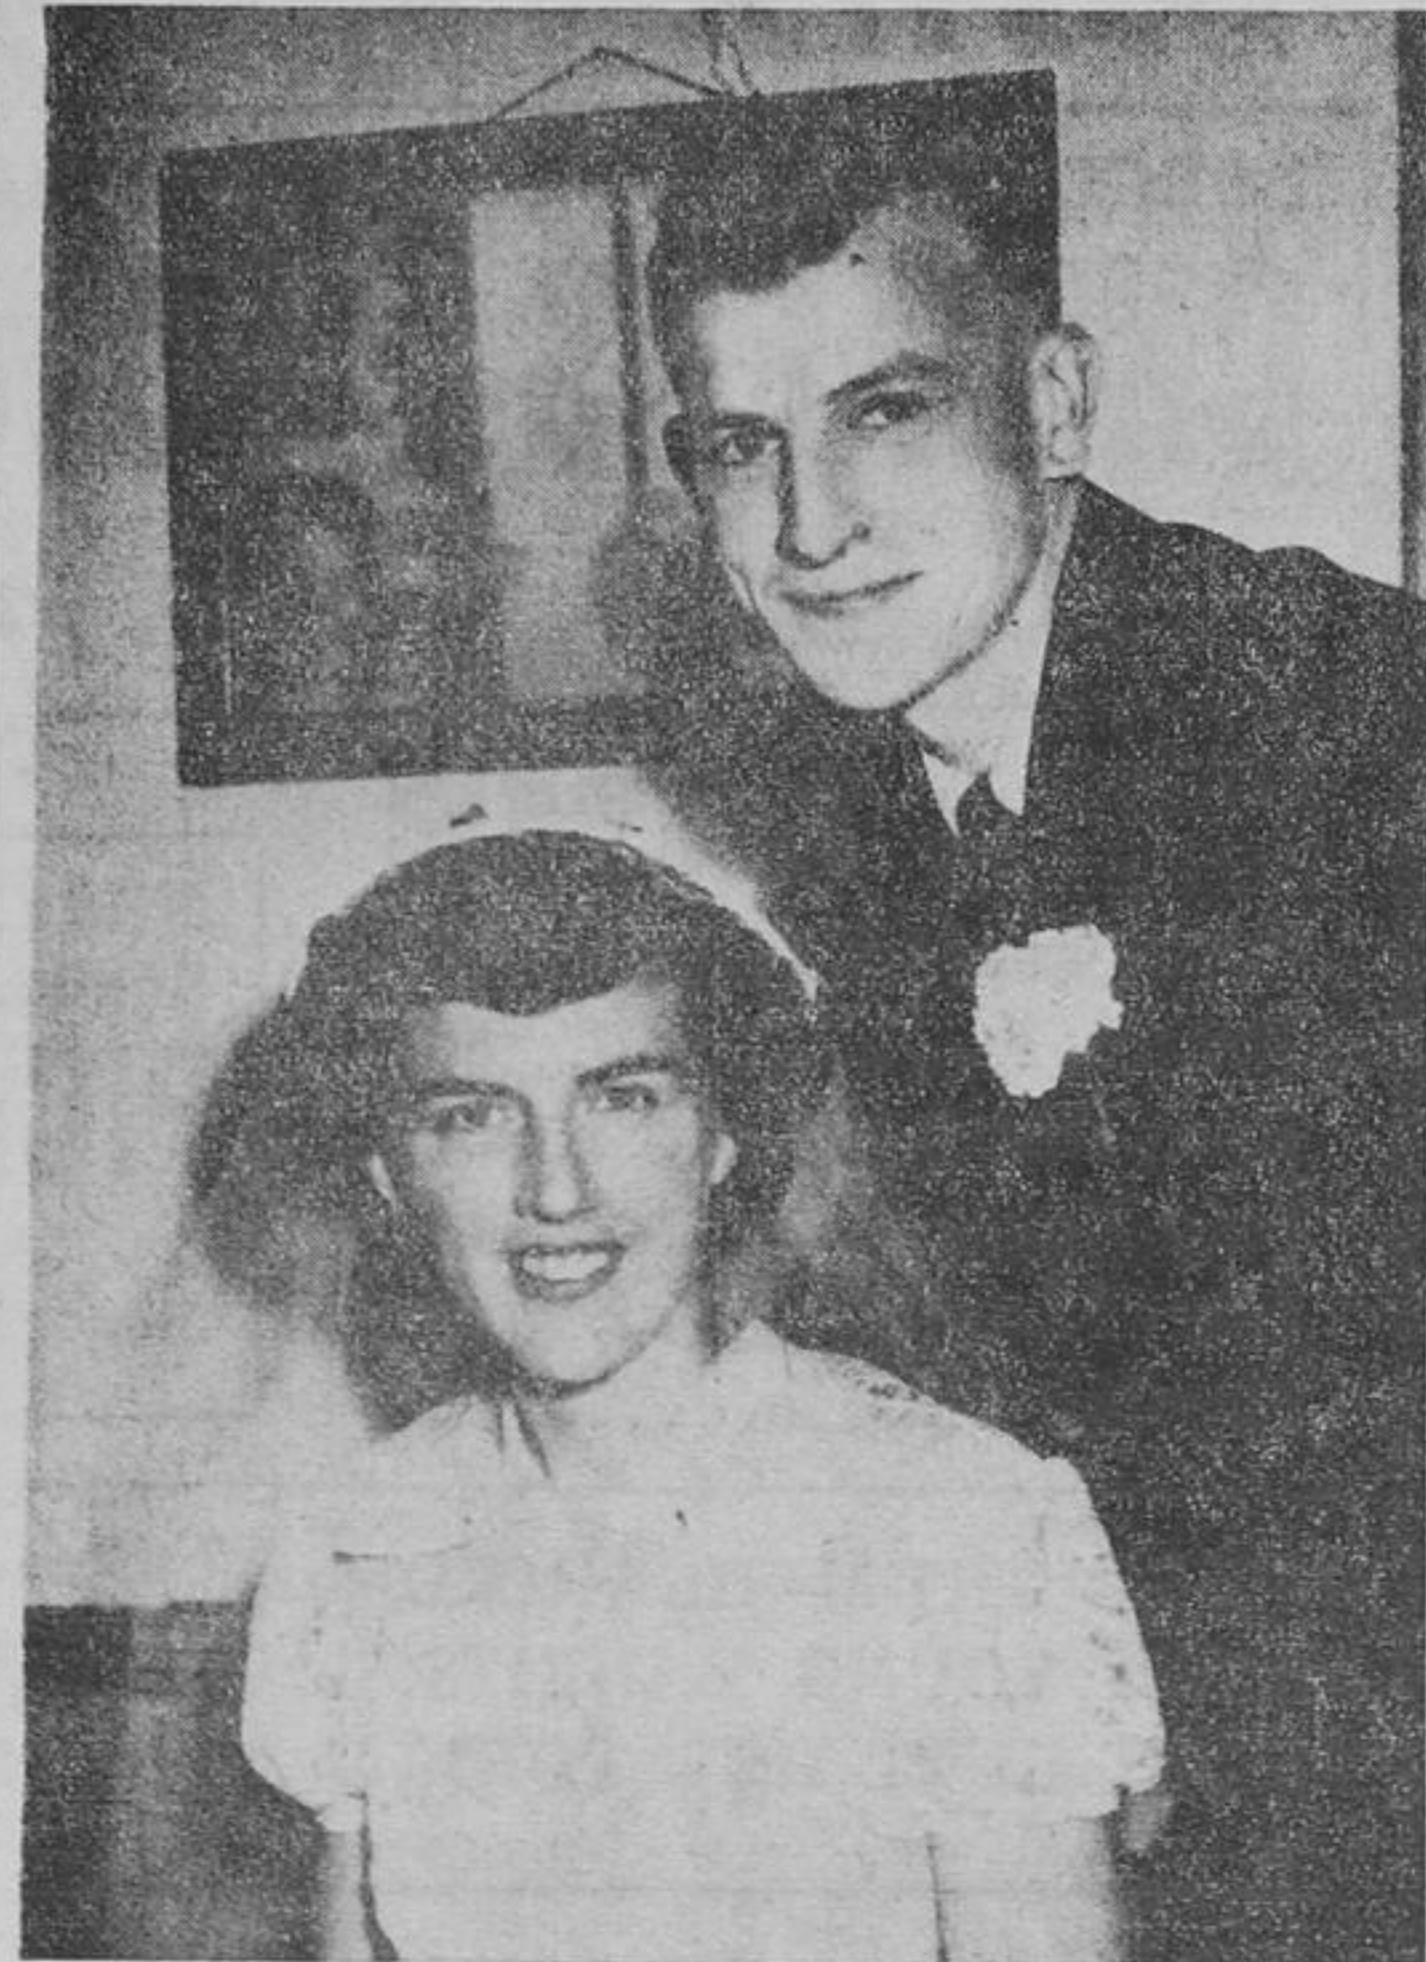

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rector of St. Mary's Anglican church of which the deceased was a devoted member. In speaking of Mrs. Russell, Mr. Wrixon said that he could not but think of the woman in St. Mark's Gospel who anointed our Lord's feet with precious ointment and wiped them with the hair of her head, and of whom He said "She hath done what she could." Mrs. Russell did what she could for all whom she served. She was a model wife, mother and neighbor and gave her best in service to others. She had a simple but strong faith, a firm believer in prayer and was a faithful communicant of her church. When during the last war word came that her son Roy had paid the supreme sacrifice she was a brave and proud mother.

She is survived by her husband, Jesse Russell who for many years has been an employee of the T. T. C., one daughter Mrs. McDonald of Richmond Hill (Louise) and one grandson. Her only son Roy paid the supreme sacrifice on active service in 1944.

Interment took place in Richmond Hill cemetery, the pallbearers being old and close friends of the family, Fred Webster, Elmvalde, H. Hammond and W. Buss of Hamilton, T. Williamson of Ajax, A. Hendry and W. Mankelof of Toronto.

CARD OF THANKS
Jesse Russell and family wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the many friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during the long illness of a loving wife and mother and in their recent bereavement, especially thanking Rev. W. F. Wrixon for his thoughtful ministry and message of comfort.

CARD OF THANKS
To our many neighbours and friends we wish to express our gratitude for their help and effort at our recent barn fire, also to the Maple Firemen for their good work and efforts, also to the Richmond Hill Fire Brigade for their prompt response.
Samuel Winger and family

Pictured above after the recent marriage in Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Abram. Mrs. Abram is the former Betty Topper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Topper, R. 1 Richmond Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Abram have taken up residence in Newmarket.
