JAMES EDWIN WIGMORE The community was saddened at the news of the death of James Edwin Wigmore who passed away on August 16 in St. Michael's Hospital as a result of the stroke he suffered on Monday, August 11. He was in his 71st year.

Born in Vanners, England, he was the son of Walter Wigmore and Mary Smith. He came to Canada at an early age and was a resident of Richmond Hill for almost fifty years. A carpenter by profession, he worked at his trade until he was taken ill and he was currently employed by the H. J. Mills Co. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Wigmore operated the Rustic Inn on Yonge Street where Mr. Wigmore also conducted a flower business. He continued his gardening hobby until the time of his death. He was a quiet man who derived much pleasure from his family and his home and he will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

Mr. Wigmore was predeceased by his wife, the former Winnifred Stong, who died in 1945. Left to mourn his passing are his daughter, Lovica (Mrs. George Pollard), two sisters, Lillian and Gertrude, in England and two grandchildren.

He was laid to rest on August 19 at 3.30 p.m. in Richmond Hill Cemetery. The service at the Wright and Taylor Funeral Chapel was conducted by the Reverend J. O. Totton. The pallbearers were Fred Gray, Ralph Atkinson, Will Skilleter, James Pollard, Charles Mabley and Geoffrey Nash.

Lake Couchiching. Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sykes of Mill Road on August 12, at Newmarket Hospital. The little girl passed away August 13.
