Another wedding anniversary and birthday for September 9, was that of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blyth who were married 13 years on that date. They had lunch with Mrs. Blyth's sister, Mrs. Norman Boyd, who was celebrating her birthday on the same day, and later had dinner at the Ridge Inn. Mrs. Boyd, who has been confined to the house for the past five weeks, is now able to enjoy a short drive. Her baby daughter, Carol Anne, is doing so well she left York County Hospital last week and is being cared for by Mrs. Robert Ash.

HEADFORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT

Ron Leuschner spent the weekend with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Art Leuschner at their summer cottage at Severn Falls.

Cora Brodie held second place in all York County for her project work in the Junior Farmers this year, while her sister Margaret got her County Honors.

A surprise was in store for the teacher and pupils of Headford School one day last week when Mr. Angus Williams paid them a brief call. In introducing himself he told Miss Hardy he had had a similar job to hers, just sixty years ago. At that time he was teaching the grandparents of at least two of Miss Hardy's pupils; Ann Curtis, whose grandmother as a girl received tuition from him and who was then Mary Monkman; and Albert Leek, whose grandfather, Albert Leek, went to school as a pupil of Mr. Williams. Being in the neighborhood gave him an urge to re-visit the scene of his labors.

Those responsible for the Rally Day service hope for a good attendance at the Sunday School next Sunday. All parents are urged to come.

Ken Leuschner and Joe Dunleavy left on Wednesday afternoon to transport two new trucks to the west. They are the property of Peter Bowden and are to be used in the oil fields.

On Tuesday evening of last week the W.A. of Headford United Church met at the home of Mrs. H. Acreman for the opening meeting of their new season. The guest speaker was Knappett, who told of her day at the Exhibition while baking honors. She gave a recipe of making her famous apple pie; also the recipe and methods of her prize-winning lemon pie and chocolate cake.

On Friday, Don Brodie and his father, Mr. Norman Brodie, flew to London, Ont., to attend the Western Fair there.

Mrs. J. McCuig, formerly Doreen Cook of Headford, visited in this community one day last week.

Some of the ladies from around here paid a visit to Mrs. Angus Valliere for their September W.M.S. meeting. They journeyed to Markham at last once a year to have a meeting with Mrs. Valliere who is a former member here.

Lorraine and Murray Acreman had a very enjoyable corn roast in their flats last Saturday evening. The weather has been perfect this autumn for holding such parties — the evenings have been so warm.
 Don't forget Headford anniversary services on September 28. There will be two outstanding speakers.

We have some very fine gardeners in our community and Headford is just proud of them. At Richmond Hill Horticultural Show last Saturday, top honors among High School pupils went to Margaret Brodie for her garden, while a similar award among Public School pupils went to Charlie Barker. Charlie won very special mention for his exhibit of tomatoes, in fact the judge said they were the champion exhibit among the vegetables but could not receive a prize as Charles is not a member of Richmond Hill Horticultural Society.
