Wedding

Drewery-Poole Attended by many guests, the marriage of Miss Marian Elaine Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Kenneth Poole and Mr. Harold Claude Drewery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Drewery of Stouffville took place in Maple United Church, Rev. P. J. Lambert officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Roy Clegg played the wedding music.

A handsome gown of chalk white silk lace and net was worn by the bride, whose father gave her in marriage. The strapless shirred bodice was joined to a skirt with five very full overskirts of stiffened silk net which was enhanced by a wide pointed pleated edged with large orange blossoms fashioned of net and centred with pearls. A tight fitting net jacket was finished with a lace yoke and long lily-pointed sleeves and was buttoned to the waist. The dress, worn over taffeta, extended into a chapel train. Her two-tiered finger-tip veil was held by a coronet of iridescent beads and seed pearls and she carried a nosegay of pink rose buds and fern.

Her maid of honor, Miss Norma Poole, wore a floor-length gown of mauve taffeta with an applied silk net overskirt and matching bolero jacket. Miss Christine Naylor, bridesmaid, chose a similarly fashioned costume in Nile green. The flower girl, Miss Linda Dament, niece of the bride, was frocked in yellow taffeta and all wore matching flowered headresses and carried nosegays of pink roses and fern.

The soloist, Miss June Brown, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because" during the ceremony. Mr. Stanley Ransom of Richmond Hill was groomsmen and the ushers were Bruce Timbers of Stouffville and Gordon Poole of Concord.

Following the ceremony the bride's sister, Mrs. Harold Dament, received in place of her mother, who was unable to attend. She wore a green crepe frock and a black feather hat and was assisted by the groom's mother in a gown of Royal blue crepe with black accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink roses.

Following the reception at Summit View restaurant, Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Drewery left on a trip to Northern Ontario, the bride travelling in a sand colored gabardine suit with green accessories. On their return they will reside in Richmond Hill.

We welcome back to our community Ralph Cole, as helper to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bowes.

The staff of the Dufferin Drive-In held a corn roast recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Leech. An abundance of corn, weiners and coffee was enjoyed around a bonfire and was followed later by a sing-song and a dance.

Mrs. Oman Bowes entertained about 50 ladies at a Stanley Products demonstration in her home last week. Many useful articles were shown and the evening thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Ann Snider celebrated a birthday last week. Donnie Thompson and Mr. Bolen Henderson share September 19 as their day and on Sept. 20 Mrs. D. Cassey will celebrate her birthday. Best wishes are extended to you all on these happy occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolen Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Bay and son Andrew, Mrs. Ada Witney, John Witney and Mr. and Mrs. C. Witney and Zillah motored on Sunday to Oshawa on a picnic trip.

Obituary

Mr. John Baker passed away at the Stouffville hospital on Sunday, September 7 after a lingering illness.

The late Mr. Baker had been a respected resident of Richmond Hill for the past 23 years. Before coming here to live, he spent many years in the Carville district. He was a quiet man who derived much pleasure from his family and his home and will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife, the former Bernetta Snider of Edgeley, two sons, Leslie and Lloyd, of Markham and three daughters, Mrs. E. Anning (Mae), Mrs. Wm. Horner (Irene) and Dorothy at home; his brothers William of Grand Valley and Ernest, Haney, B. C., and his sisters, Mrs. J. H. Prentice, Toronto, Mrs. Wm. Tyndal and Mrs. Lewis Clement of Richmond Hill. There are also eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was laid to rest on September 10, in Richmond Hill Cemetery. A large congregation of family and friends attended the service conducted by Rev. C. G. Higginson in the Wright and Taylor Chapel. The pall-bearers were Mr. Baker's four nephews and two grandsons, Stanley, Ralph, Everett and Clare Baker, Donald Whitney and Whitney Johnson. The six honorary pallbearers were Dr. Ralph Langstaff, Wm. Baker, Jas. Ellis, Walter Reaman, Isaac Baker and Henry Winger.

The floral tributes to Mr. Baker were many and beautiful.

CARD OF THANKS Mrs. H. A. Stephenson and family wish to express their deepest gratitude to the many friends for their floral tributes and the kindness shown to them during their recent sad bereavement. Special thanks to the Reverend C. G. Higginson of the United Church, Richmond Hill.

CARD OF THANKS Mrs. John Baker and family wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the many relatives, friends and neighbours for their acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and floral tributes. Especially thanking Dr. Ralph Langstaff for his kind and prompt attendance and Rev. C. G. Higginson for his comforting words during the loss of a loving husband and father.

AGAR-CAIRNS King City United Church was decorated with pink gladioli and fern for the marriage of Helen Bernice Cairns daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arwood Cairns, Aurora, and Howard Dale Agar, son of Mrs. Agar and the late Geo. Agar of Richmond Hill.

Rev. Martin Jenkinson and Dr. Archer Wallace officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. Ewart Patton played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a street-length dress of pink nylon over satin, with long gloves to match, and a black velvet hat and shoes. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli petals.

June Hollinshead was maid-of-honor and wore a gown of pale blue nylon over satin with long gloves to match, black hat and shoes. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and yellow gladioli.

Raymond Agar was groomsmen for his brother and ushers were James Morning and Ralph Johnson.

For the reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received in a rose crepe dress with black velvet accessories and she wore a white gladioli corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a gown of French grey taffeta with champagne accessories and shoulder corsage of pink tipped gladioli petals.

On their return they will reside at their new home in King.
