Trousseau Tea

On Sunday afternoon, September 14, a trousseau tea was held in honor of a bride-to-be, Miss Barbara Graham, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Graham.

Mrs. Graham and the groom's mother Mrs. K. Watson wore wine and green taffeta gowns. Barbara's grandmother, Mrs. Wilson of Toronto and Mrs. Helen Baggs of Thornhill, poured tea. Mrs. Beth Burrows and Miss Eileen McKee, Mrs. Jean Watson, Miss Marilyn Graham showed the bride's gifts. Barbara's marriage to Robert Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Watson, will take place at St. Phillips Anglican Church on Saturday. The young couple will be motoring to New York to spend their honeymoon.

Miss Anne Hill who has undergone an ear operation in Toronto Hospital is improving.

Fall Show

A splendid Fall Flower and Vegetable show was recently held by Unionville Horticultural Society in the basement of Central United Church. J. Tiffin who is the District Director of No. 5, was the speaker and judge.

The exhibits were exceptionally fine. Among those winning a number of prizes for flowers were: Mrs. Lyle Bondway, Mrs. E. Caseley, Mrs. Don Allison, Mrs. J. A. Fleming, while the high winners for vegetables were Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. E. Caseley.

This was the first year the Unionville branch had a Juvenile Section for boys and girls under 15. Charles Barker and his sister Elizabeth, were high winners. In the Name the Flower Contest, Miss Farr of Helen Ave., was the winner.

Mr. Tiffin in his address spoke of his trip on horticultural business to Schumacher and other points north and advised his listeners to visit these towns to see their fine exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. Laidlaw and family have moved to Newmarket.

Mothers Auxiliary

A successful bazaar and tea was held by the Mothers Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Geo. Carey East Drive, Saturday afternoon. There was baking and sewing and white elephant tables as well as many other items which were almost completely sold. The two tea cup readers, Mrs. W. Bailey of Langstaff and Mrs. Ormiston of Helen Ave., were one of the main attractions. Financially the afternoon was very successful.

On Monday night of last week at the home of Frank Wayne, Main St., about 30 members of the Electrical Contractors Association, Zone 37, held their monthly meeting. There was a display by Westinghouse and a talk on fluorescent lighting. One of the guests of the evening was Wm. Booth, who is secretary-manager of the Electrical Contractors Association of Ont.
