Plan More Efficient Fire Service For Markham Tp.

An important meeting on the matter of fire protection in Markham Township was held last Wednesday at the Township offices in Unionville.

The meeting which was held under the auspices of Markham Township's Fire Committee (Councillors A. LeMasurier and A. Lennie) saw representatives from the fire committees and Fire Departments of Stouffville Village, Markham Village, Unionville Police Village and the village of Richmond Hill attend.

Buy King Sideroad Property

Community Park Latest Project Planned By Oak Ridges Lions

Lion President Captain Edward Hawman of Oak Ridges Lions Club has announced that his executive has accepted the generous offer of Lion Charles Connor to sell the Oak Ridges Club a piece of property on the King sideroad adjacent to Yonge Street comprising over two acres for a community park.

Plans are still in the formative stage but the park when completed will have a playground with swings and slides, a picnic ground with tables and benches where weary shoppers may rest awhile.

Summit Farms Win Lindsay Chamionship

In the first showing of cattle from Summit Farms, Richmond Hill, Arthur Gibson was highly pleased to receive for his entry of a senior calf, Summitdale W.H.R. Crustina, the female Hereford Grand Champion award as well as five first prize ribbons at the recent Lindsay Central Exhibition.

At the Peterborough Exhibition the same calf won the Junior Championship and the Reserve Grand Championship and at the Orangeville Regional Hereford Show, Summit Farms received the Reserve Junior Female Champion award.

Brought To Party By Vaughan Twp. Police Escort - Handcuffed

The Reeve of Vaughan Township, Marshall McMurchy and Mrs. McMurchy were hosts at a surprise party in Vellore town hall Tuesday evening for Miss Marion Watson of Woodbridge who is to be married on October 11 to William Burgess of Port Hope, and who has been employed in the township offices for the past 15 years.

Each of the ladies attending was presented with an American Beauty rose corsage by Mrs. McMurchy who welcomed them at the door. There were several tables of euchre until the arrival of the bride and groom to-be who came under police escort, complete with handcuffs, and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, clerk of the township.

Much to the delight of all present the Reeve read a summons to the couple and as Chief Magistrate sentenced them to a long life of matrimony.

Reeve McMurchy then presented them with a silver tea service, hand-chased and engraved by the Vaughan Township on behalf of former associates of Miss Watson's.

Dancing and games followed, councillors Robson and Mrs. June Wells being the winners in a game of questions and answers. Supper

New High School Teachers Are Initiated With The First Formers

By Quintin Wight
Richmond Hill District High School initiation day was held last week with the fifth form students, better known then as the "Grade 13 Horror Club", in charge of the goings-on.

It is reported that the first formers got off rather mildly this year. The percentage of scrap material in evidence at the end of a rather hectic day was smaller than in previous years, even though the number of students initiated — 180 — was much larger than usual.

Dress Informal
The first requirements of the day, as announced on special sheets handed out to first-formers, were in the matter of dress. All students were to come to school with half the face blackened with a mixture of cocoa and cold cream, have a six quart basket with a polishing cloth, toothbrush and lunch, as well as an identification card with name, address and phone number.

When they met a fifth form student they had to get down on their knees, bow deeply and intone "hail big brother (or sister), we who are about to die salute you." The boys were dressed like women, from earrings to pink garters, with the girls sporting pyjamas and pipes.

The first thing the grade 13's found upon arrival in the morning was a complete absence of first formers due to the co-operation of the TTC of course, but eventually the buses disgorged dozens of students on Yonge St., and a steady infiltration of woe-begone Grade 9'ers began to appear around the High School.

Lunch On Post Office Steps
At noon hour "initiates" were lined up and marched to the Post Office where they ate their lunch on the steps.

Some slight confusion arose when a truck ran into the back of a car beside the procession, but this was soon straightened out and the line eventually reached the stop-lights in great form.

At the end of the day they were summoned to the gymnasium for the piece de resistance, when seniors witnessed blindfolded first-formers going through their paces, from walking on crackers to girls feeding the boys an original concoction, reminiscent of lime-flavoured milk, from baby bottles.

New Teachers Initiated
Messrs Turchin, Jensen, Smith and Lavender, who came to the school this year, were initiated as well as the first formers, the winners of their contests given the unexpected job of car washing.

10 Children Attend Nursery School

Martha Dinnick, Susie Poag, Judy McMillan, Diane Glass and Virginia Hood are the little girls who are attending Mrs. Beryl Jackson's pre-school Kindergarten every week-day morning from 9 until 11:30 o'clock.

When Nursery School re-opened on September 15, there were five little boys enrolled also. They are David Drinkwater, Shane Belknap, Wayne Campbell, Nicholas Henshaw and Geoffrey Houston. Mrs. Jackson's son, Jerome, also attends classes.

This is the second year that Mrs. Jackson's son, Jerome, also nursery school in her home, for children of three to five years.

STAFF CHANGES
YORK COUNTY HEALTH UNIT
In August, one of the public health nurses on the staff was married. The former Miss Carol Moorhead, now Mrs. Graham Hill, will continue to cover the Aurora-Newmarket area. Mrs. Holland is now living in Aurora.

Jefferson Sch. Community Club Hold Fall Meeting

The executive of the Jefferson School Community Club met at the home of the president, Bill Hall, on Friday, September 26 with a full attendance. Those present were Jack Barry, vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Terry, treasurer; Mrs. Reg. Copeland, secretary; Mrs. Robert Threlfall, social convener; and Mrs. Hal Robertson, publicity.

Over $9 was added to the club's funds by donations received at the baseball games this past summer. Mention was made by Jack Barry and Bill Hall regarding improving the ediamond for next year. Hockey and ice-skating at the school were also discussed and the club would like to help with this winter sport.

The opening night for the square dances, October 3, was then discussed and Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Threlfall offered to donate door prizes. It was also decided that the tables for cards, bridge, euchre and canasta would be continued in conjunction with the dances. Players please bring own decks.

The club gratefully acknowledges the use of Stan Leno's P.A. system.

The next item of importance for this business meeting was the Bazaar zazaar scheduled to be held by the club at Jefferson School on Saturday, November 8, from 2-6 p.m. Mrs. R. Threlfall is convener for this undertaking and it is felt to be in very capable hands.

There are many projects under way both in the homes and at school. The school children will not only have several tables for their displays and collections but they will also be helping with the sale of goods.

A request is made that all those contributing articles of sewing, plants, painting, handicraft, etc., will leave their contributions at the school the night of October 30, or at any of the following centres before Tuesday, November 4: Pridham's I.G.A., Hall's service station or R. Threlfall's.

Magazines should be delivered to Mrs. Dickson Miller's home where the school boys will sort and arrange them in suitable bundles for sale at the bazaar.

It was also suggested that all articles be marked with their "cost" price to aid the committee in placing price tags.

Donations of cakes, candies, cookies, fruit and vegetables should be delivered at the school — or these centres — by Saturday morning, November 8, if possible.

Demand Twp. Fill In Open Cellars

At the meeting of the trustees of the Police Village of King City on Monday evening, it was shown that the budget for this year has been met, and no further expenditures can be made until next year.

However, an insurance policy to cover theft, fire, malicious damage, public liability and property damage, etc., as advised by the auditor was endorsed. The cost will be $128.08 for 3 years coverage plus an annual charge of $2.25 for the protection of the 25 hydrants of the village, plus an annual charge of $30.75 to cover insurance of the water tank. This makes an outlay of $161.08 for insurance this year.

School Board S. 2
At this meeting Dr. John Barrie, as chairman of the school board of S. 2 brought a request regarding the replacement of a conduit in front of the school, which was removed when that part of the road was graded earlier in the summer. The following resolution was passed. "It is recommended that the request from S. 2, that the entrance to the school be corrected, and that as S. 2 points out, that since township removed the previous conduit, that township authorities be requested to replace the conduit and fill without charge to the village, or S. 2, on a basis of Dr. Barrie's offer to provide the gravel free of charge."

Open Cellars
A matter of serious regard to the trustees, is the problem of two open cellars which are located on Dew Street. These cellars were dug almost three years ago, and have since then been neglected or abandoned by their owners, who have done no further construction

Everything Set For St. Mary's Big Thanksgiving Day Carnival

The Lions Community Hall on Centre St. E. is the setting for the annual Thanksgiving carnival in aid of St. Mary's Catholic Church in the village. As in other years it will be held on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving day — October 8.

A new feature of the Carnival this year is a draw for prizes valued at nearly $800. Here are the prizes which everyone will have a chance of winning: a 17-inch Admiral Television set, completely installed with aerial (valued at $359.00); a Thor Gladiron (valued at $149.00); a Premier cylinder vacuum cleaner (valued at $114.50); and a Premier dual-brush polisher (valued at $64.50).

Even though the ladies are not holding a turkey supper this year, they will offer 35 of the traditional Thanksgiving fowl at a turkey raffle to be held in the hall that evening.

Among the other attractions visitors may enjoy at the carnival will be bingo and games.
