The "HERCO" Conversion UNIT

converts your present Furnace to an AUTOMATIC BURNER at Low Cost

You can have your present furnace or boiler converted to an automatic hard coal burner by installing a HERCO Conversion UNIT. The conversion unit can be fitted to most conventional boilers or furnaces of equal rating. Coal feed and ash removal is completely automatic.

U.N. Agency Helps Korean Farmers

As a first step in the long-range rehabilitation of Korea's food resources the United Nations Reconstruction Agency (UNKRA) and the Heifer Project, an interdenominational voluntary society, sent 210,000 hatching eggs by plane to that country. Above, Mr. Hobart Creighton, a hatching expert with the U.N. Civil Assistance Command in Korea, shows a farmer how to handle the baby chicks.

Harvest Home

The annual Harvest Home Service of St. Philip's Anglican Church, Unionville, was held last Sunday morning. Their new Rector, Rev.
Frazer Bourne, officiated at both morning and evening services. The church was filled to capacity.
There was special music by the choir.

On the Monday night following the harvest home service, a supper of welcome was given the new Rector, his wife and family, which was attended by members and families. After the supper a pantry shower was given the honored guests.

Mrs. R. J. Allen, who is ill, has gone to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Isaacs of Markham.

Trousseau Tea

Miss June Couperthwaite entertained her many relatives and friends at a trousseau tea at the home of her parents last Saturday.
Her two aunts, Mrs. Routcliffe and Mrs. Page of Toronto, poured tea.
Her sisters, Helen Couperthwaite and Marian Richardson and Miss Beverly Bret of Toronto, sister of the groom-to-be showed the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Maynard have returned home after having enjoyed a three month visit to England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland.

Baptism

Larry Rainey, the baby son of Mr. Clair Rainey and the late Mrs.
Rainey was baptized at the St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, by the Rev. G. H. Thomas, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Rainey and son, Teddy, attended.

Mr. and Mrs. David MacKinlay and son, David, spent a few days the past week end with her mother here.

Wedding

Watson-Graham

Miss Barbara Ann Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P.
Graham, Unionville, became the bride of Robert Kenneth Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Watson, Unionville, in St. Philip's Anglican Church, Unionville, on Saturday, September 20. Rev. Frazer Bourne officiated. The wedding music was played by Miss Ila Weighill.
Mrs. James Russell who was the soloist sang "Our Father and Through the Years."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of brocade taffeta, with circular train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis with an orchid centre.
Her attendants, Mrs. Jean Watson, matron of honor and bridesmaids Eileen McKee, Marilyn Graham and Judith Wilson were gowned alike, in bronze taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow gladioli with centre of button 'mums and roses. Jack Watson, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were Edward Wilson and Charles Balfour.

After the wedding a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Mrs. Graham received the guests in a gold taffeta gown with corsage of yellow roses.
She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Watson, who wore rose beige taffeta with corsage of pink roses. The bride and groom left for New York, travelling in matching tan suits and left in a Chevrolet car which was the gift of the groom's parents.
On their return the happy couple will reside in Unionville.

Those who entertained for Miss Barbara Graham prior to her marriage were: Mrs. Beth Burrows and Eileen McKee, Unionville, Mrs.
Irene Gibson, Toronto, Mrs. Bruce Wilkes, Unionville, the office staff of CIL, Toronto, the ladies of St.
Philip's Anglican Church, Union-ville, and her aunt, Mrs. Edward Wilson and Mrs. Wm. Nesbitt, both of Toronto.

Mr. Bruce Curtis, who has been spending a number of the summer months in the western provinces has now returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthbert-son left on Sunday for their holidays. They expect to travel to North Bay and other points north.

Miss Joan McMullen of the Western Hospital Nursing staff spent the week-end at her home.

We see a very familiar face in the Canadian Bank of Commerce these days. Mr. G. G. Maynard is acting as Bank Manager, while Mr.
Leonard Watkins is enjoying his holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin and daughters, Misses Margaret and Shirley spent Sunday visiting Mrs.
Lee of Bayville, also calling at Dorset.

Mrs. John Snowball spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs.
A. Westland of Toronto.

Miss Betty Ogden of the Nursing staff of Wellesley Hospital, Toronto spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ogden.

Rev. J. Totton, Richmond Hill, who is connected with the Lord's Day Alliance called on the homes of the village the past week.

The two lovely bouquets of gladioli which were in the United Church last Sunday morning were placed there in memory of Mr.
Bert Dyke, by his family. Bert passed away one year ago.

A large group of the friends of Miss Bonnie Alexandria met in the basement of Central United Church Monday night and presented Bonnie with a miscellaneous shower.
Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Alexandria of Elgin Mills, formerly of Unionville. Her marriage will take place at Union-ville this week to Mr. Lester Weatherill. Bonnie thanked her many friends for the gifts.

Those living on the east side of Main Street in the centre of the village appreciate the new sidewalk which has been laid by contractor Hartwell Powers.

A very large crowd gathered at the school last Monday night for the first meeting of the fall for the Home and School Association.
Mrs. Burgess, the president opened the meeting with a short session of business discussion and reports.
He called on the principal, Mr. Hill, to introduce the new teachers, Miss E. Gray, grades 2 and 3, and Miss Ruth Bailey, grade 1. Both teachers stated that although it was early in the school season, they were pleased with their new surroundings. Mrs. W. Bradley reported activity of the finance committee, announcing plans to run a variety show on Friday, October 17, in St.
Andrew's Church Hall. Mr. Al.
Harvey will be master of ceremonies, singer Helen Bruce, accompanist Dorothy Merrall.

Rev. J. V. Mills gave an address on today's educational problems, stressing the necessity of sending children off to school in a happy frame of mind. He traced the education of children today from grade 1 through the teachers the principal and the school trustees.

Rev. Mills was introduced by Mr. S. C. Pettit. There were many special guests attending. The following spoke a few words expressing their wishes for a successful season. Rev. E. R. Barley, Mr. H.
B. Galpin, school inspector for the area and Mrs. H. E. LeMasurier, president of York-Simcoe Home & School council.

peranceville Turkey supper to be held in the church basement from 6 to 8 p.m. Tickets are available from members and admission will be by ticket only. Films will be shown to those waiting for their meal. Come and enjoy a delicious feast.

The W. I. meeting ordinarily held on the second Wednesday of the month will be held later on in the month.

An invitation was received from King by the Temperanceville W.

A. to attend its thankoffering meeting on October 9.

Accident

Mr. Albert Follitt met with an accident while trying to remedy the situation of lack of water at his home this past week, which resulted in a broken elbow. Because of the swelling Mr. Follitt had several days of suffering before the bone could be set. It is hoped he will soon be feeling better.

Congratulations to Rev. Middle's youngest daughter, Betty on her recent marriage. This parish wishes Betty every happiness.
