Mr. Grant Crowder is in Malton Convalescent Home. Injured some time ago Mr. Crowder has been unable to work for the past 11 weeks and entered the hospital this week for further treatment.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Toth and their three children are in London attending the funeral of Mr. Toth's father, who was fatally injured in an accident at Clarkson last Wednesday.
Rally Day
The Lake Wilcox Community Church Sunday School had its Rally Day service Sunday afternoon. A very fine program put on by the children of the different classes showed the excellence of their training. A rhythm band made up of the smaller children and trained by Mrs. L. Harnden was enjoyed by all. "Into a tent where a gypsy boy lay" sung by a group of boys and girls was very clear. The story was told by Mrs. Harnden. A boy soprano, Jack Mackenzie, who shows a great deal of promise sang a beautiful solo. A very appreciative audience filled the small church on Wildwood Avenue. Reverend Mr. Copeland had charge of the service. Miss Elsie Love and Mrs. Harnden accompanied the children on their violins and Mr. Copeland played his piano accordion. Paul Harnden read the bible lesson and Alan Taylor led the choruses. Miss Edith Blowing told the story, starting with the hand of God guiding the baby Moses to the Egyptian princess, and explaining how God's hands lead us today.
Mr. Dick Bull has returned to Guelph for his third year at the Ontario Agricultural College.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murch, of Bond Avenue, have sold their home and purchased one on Glencairn Ave., Toronto. Mr. Murch is on the staff at Bathurst Heights Collegiate, Lawrence Ave. Rev. and Mrs. Hulse, returned missionaries from China, have purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. Murch and will take possession some time in November.
Mrs. Bruce Mercer who has been a patient in Mount Sinai Hospital left the hospital on Sunday and will be at her mother's home in Toronto for a short time. Linda is also visiting her grandmother.
The children's chorus, led by Mrs. L. Harnden will sing at both services in the Community Church at Lake Wilcox next Sunday, October 12.
Extra Holiday
The boys and girls who attend Aurora High School will have a holiday next Friday. This is the extra holiday given them by Premier Frost to mark the opening of the new District High School. It was decided to add this holiday to the Thanksgiving week-end so that pupils and teachers might enjoy the Thanksgiving week-end with their families.
Ladies' Night
Oak Ridges Lions Club held its first ladies' night of the season on Monday night. Lion President Captain Edward Hawman presided. Mr. George Kaye, secretary-treasurer of the Don Valley Conservation Authority and fieldman for the Humber Valley Authority was the guest speaker.
Mrs. C. B. Cassidy has been made a member of the executive board of the Boy Scout Ladies Auxiliary for York Central.

Work Shop
A good representation of members of the Oak Ridges Home and School attended the "Work Shop" held by the York Simcoe Council, last Thursday night in the Charles Howitt School. The president, Mr. W. Musson, convenors Mrs. D. A. Anderson, program, and Mrs. Douglas Sherratt, music and arts, executive member Mrs. McLernan and Mrs. C. Harrison were among those who enjoyed group discussion in their various departments. Mrs. Robt. Woolley, a member of York Simcoe Council also attended.
The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. A. Cooper in the loss of their daughter born September 29, in York County Hospital.
Lake Wilcox School
The principal, Mr. Hall and his staff of Lake Wilcox School received the parents of their pupils at the school on Wednesday, October 1. A large number of the parents took advantage of this opportunity to become acquainted with their child's teacher and see the work being done in the school. Members of the school board, Inspector MacKillop and Mrs. MacKillop and our representative on Whitechurch Council, Mr. E. L. McCarron and Mrs. McCarron also paid a visit to the school on this occasion. Mr. Hall says that approximately 235 children are enrolled to date and the attendance is good. Volley ball and dodge ball are two games being enjoyed by the boys and girls at present in preparation for the baseball to come when the field is in shape. Mrs. Marton who has a class in Jefferson school brought her pupils' work to the main school to be viewed by the parents.

At an executive meeting of the Lake Wilcox Community Association held on Wednesday night, October 1, permission was given to the Salvation Army to hold Sunday services in the Community Hall.
Open House
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Patchell entertained after the open house at the Lake Wilcox School on October 1. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. MacKillop, Mr. E. Hall, principal of the school, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stiver, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward.
Election Date
The school board of S. S. No. 13 have called a ratepayers' meeting at the school on October 20 to sanction the changing of the election date for the new board from December 31 which is New Year's Eve, to an earlier date in December. Mr. Alfred Patchell elected two years ago finishes his term this year. Mr. Fred Lynn's term expires next year and Mr. George Gourlay, elected last year, has two more years to serve.
Oak Ridges is glad to welcome Reid's cleaning and dyeing establishment to the district and congratulate them on the fine building they have erected on the corner of Maple Grove and Yonge St. Visitors are welcome every day this first week and are asked to sign a lucky draw slip for a daily prize and a grand prize at the end of the week.
Mrs. Edward Simmons of Lansing entertained at a miscellaneous shower for her sister-in-law, Miss Francis Payne, Wilcox Lake, before her recent marriage to Mr. Wilfred Warner. The couple, married on September 29 at York Mills Anglican Church will live at Steeles Corners.
Mothers Auxiliary
Mrs. C. B. Cassidy president of the Mothers Auxiliary of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides and Brownies of Oak Ridges, was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a silver tea in aid of the Auxiliary. The tea table in front of a picture window, was centred with a gracefully arranged bouquet of red and white asters, baby zinnias and silver candles. Mrs. Alec Gallagher and Mrs. V. Shelrake poured and the assistants were Mrs. Warren Gerrard, Mrs. Walter Musson, Mrs. D. Gunn, Mrs. C. L. Stephenson drew the lucky name. The very pleasant afternoon resulted in a substantial amount raised for the work of the organization.
Sorry to report that Mrs. Frank Wilkins entered hospital this week. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.
Mr. Robert Woolley returned this week from two weeks spent in Chicago at the head office of his new company the Surge Farm Machinery Company.
There will be a Harvest Thanksgiving Service at St. John's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges (Yonge St. at Jefferson) on Sunday next, October 12, at 11.15 a.m. when the Rev. G. S. Despard of Toronto, a former rector will be the preacher.
Mr. Despard was rector of St. John's some thirty years ago; and is remembered with great affection by many of his former parishioners still in the district.
