A serious accident was narrowly averted Thursday of last week by the quick action of the driver of a large truck loaded with sod.

A car speeding south on Yonge St., cut in front of the truck, and to avoid a collision the driver turned his truck west going over the sidewalk, through the shrubs and into the lawn at the home of Mrs. A. K. Butler, at the corner of Yonge St. and Garden Avenue.

Another speeding truck loaded with cement blocks proceeding north on Yonge St., Tuesday, October 7, travelling at a high rate of speed, the driver unaware of the stop light at Yonge St. and No. 7 east until it was too late, making the best of a bad bargain, finally blocks scattered over Yonge St. Fortunately no one was injured.

With the time this driver lost cleaning up the debris and the cost of the broken blocks, one might think fast driving does not pay. Those of us who see this kind of speeding on Yonge St. every day wonder where it will end.

OAK RIDGES & LAKE WILCOX NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. C. L. STEPHENSON

Mrs. Mabel Landon of Cincinnati has been a guest this week of her niece, Mrs. Walter Geary.

A tea and sale of home made cooking and a white elephant table will be held on Wednesday, December 3, at the Ridge Inn sponsored by the wives of the Oak Ridges Lions. Proceeds will be used for the Christmas basket fund. Tickets 25c.

The Oak Ridges Home and Church members are hard at work preparing for their monster bazaar to be held November 15, at the Oak Ridges Public School.

This has been an unfortunate week for some of the Oak Ridges ladies. Mrs. C. E. Cassidy fell on the way to the Mothers' Auxiliary meeting last week and injured her back. She was in bed for a few days recuperating. Mrs. Ronald Macintosh is still in bed resting after a heart attack last week. Mrs. Frank Wilkins is recovering nicely from an operation performed in York County Hospital last Wednesday.

Your correspondent is taking an enforced rest in an endeavor to bring her blood pressure back to a more normal point.

Personals Mr. and Mrs. E. Clark spent Thanksgiving in Detroit, visiting an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beamish.

Mrs. Norman Boyd was able to have dinner last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blyth. Her many friends will be glad to hear her health has improved so much that she is able to be taken out occasionally.

Mr. Gerald Stephenson left on Saturday to spend Thanksgiving week in New York City. He accompanied his aunt, Miss Violet Brickell of Toronto.

Television viewers in the district are happy that since Toronto's 500 foot TV tower came into operation they can now get good reception from the local station. The programme in the main are good. It is interesting to listen to well-known Canadians through this medium.

Mrs. F. Gardner, Richmond Hill, chairman of the York Ladies Scout Auxiliary installed the officers for the Mothers Auxiliary of Scouts and Guides of Oak Ridges on Tuesday night. After the installation, Mrs. Gardner spoke on the work of Mothers' Auxiliaries and the help they can be to the Scout and Guide movement. Mrs. C. E. Cassidy, president, presided and various committee convenors reported on their activities.

The committee on sewing committee is busy making more scarves. On October 25, which is the Scout apple day the mothers will provide hot cocoa and refreshments for the apple sellers.

The Scout Headquarters in Toronto have decided that the Scout Charter for Oak Ridges shall remain with the Lions Club. Several times in the past the scout and guides organization in Oak Ridges has not been successful. Those of us who are anxious for the well-being of our young people hope that under the democratic direction of the Oak Ridges Lions Club a group of men who have long been resident in the district and who have the respect and appreciation of the district) these organizations will be given the leadership and direction necessary to train good Canadian citizens capable of taking their place in the world of tomorrow. Mr. Sid Sheldrake is the Scout master. Mrs. M. Carter is Guide captain. Miss Strachan is cub leader.

As in past two years Oak Ridges Lions have arranged that the boys of the district shall be transported to the Aurora Arena on Saturday mornings for hockey practise. Lion Ken Farquharson being unable to devote his Saturday mornings to this project this winter, it has been arranged that Bill Hundell, assistant to the recreational director in Aurora shall be hockey coach for the Oak Ridges boys this year. He will be assisted by Lion Doug Stephenson who has for two years devoted his Saturday mornings to the boys of the district and other Lions who can spare the time. Residents of the district who can provide transportation are asked to phone Lion Doug at King 130 ring 22. It is hoped that enough voluntary transportation can be supplied that the Lions Club will not be put to the expense of hiring a bus. The boys will meet at the windmill at 7.30 a.m. as their time on the ice is 8 a.m. till 9.30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Kal Vizey spent Sunday at Mrs. Vizey's home in Toronto. They left the boys to be brought out to the farm the next day for traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee and Bobby visited for a few days in Detroit over the holiday week-end.

Anniversary services will be held next Sunday at Brown's Corners Church, consequently services at Headford will be withdrawn. However, Sunday School will still meet at the usual hour of 11 o'clock.

The Brodie family visited at Erin last Sunday. They found the scenery at the Forks of the Credit particularly beautiful right now.

The beautiful weather of last Sunday coaxed the Clark family into taking a long-planned trip through the highlands of Haliburton and Algonquin Park. They stayed overnight near Dwight and returned on Monday by way of the north country.

On Sunday in the Sunday School Mrs. Freeman Barker showed some of her Viewmaster pictures, which pointed out some of the many things for which we should be thankful.

The Murray Acremans will indeed feel very thankful for honest people. On Saturday last, Murray lost his wallet containing a large sum of money, together with driver's and chauffeur's license and identification. On Tuesday morning a member of the post office staff at Gormley called to say a Mr. Robert Read of Bethany, near Peterborough, had found it on the highway near there and would return the papers by mail, but felt the sum of money too great to trust to the mail and asked Murray to pick it up personally. Such forthright honesty is so outstanding in these times.

Mrs. John Cruickshank had a very pleasant surprise last Sunday when she had as visitors some folk newly arrived from Ireland. Mrs. Cruickshank became acquainted with an Irish lady on the boat coming over from England six or seven years ago and they have corresponded ever since. This past week the other lady's folk from Ireland arrived, and were brought to visit with the Cruickshanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek and family attended a family reunion dinner at Mrs. Leek's mother's last Sunday.
