ELGIN MILLS - JEFFERSON NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. H. G. ROBERTSON
Brookside Road, Telephone TUrnner 4-2334

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Reg. Burns, Elgin Mills son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burns of Oak Ridges and his bride, formerly Ruth Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, Aurora. The happy couple were married last Saturday in Aurora United Church and have now taken up residence in their new home on Elgin Mills sideroad.

Mrs. Jennie Bone of Maple and Edgar Bone of Teston visited Mrs. George Richards, Elgin Mills on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Richards and family visited Mr. Richards' mother, Mrs. Evison at Huntsville for Thanksgiving week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson and children are now back on Brookside Road and living at the Harvey Baker's.

Mrs. M. Ingles, Miss Audrey Leary, Mr. George Neil, Mrs. J. A. Copeland and Mrs. E. A. Terry gathered at Mrs. R. Threiffall's home on Monday last week to work on articles for the Community Club bazaar.

The next evening set aside for bazaar work is to be held at Mrs. Threiffall's home on Wednesday, October 22. All ladies interested in helping are cordially invited to come out on that evening at 8.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Robertson had a wonderful trip to many interesting points West last week. Mrs. Robertson's mother, Mrs. D. D. Eppey of Toronto stayed with the children while Mom and Dad motored to Nanticoke, Rodney, London and Guelph, visiting Mr. Robertson's relatives en route.

First stop was Nanticoke at the home of Mr. Robertson's sister, Mrs. Holland Marr. Mr. Marr's brother, Lorne, who is coach of the Nanticoke ball team described how Nanticoke won the Rural "B" championship in the finals with Pond Mills. Two games were played, the scores being 6-0 and 4-0 in favour of Nanticoke. King played Nanticoke at Schomberg just previous to the finals.

A trip was made to Norfolk County Fair, Simcoe, where the harness races were the big event of the day.

Going on to Rodney they visited Mrs. James Black and family, attending Harvest-Thanksgiving services at St. David's Church, Clearville.

At London they saw the Norman MacArthur and then to Guelph, the Royal City. They found a most interesting and beautifully executed mural of the history of Guelph in "The Varvis" and suggest any one interested in this type of art should make a point of seeing it next time they are in Guelph.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, Elgin Mills, whose first grandchild, a boy, was born to their daughter, Mrs. Bud Monkman at Grace Hospital, Toronto, last month.

There is still room on the rolls of the 1st Oak Ridges Girl Guides for girls from 12 to 16 years of age living in the Elgin Mills-Jefferson district who would like to register as girl guides at Oak Ridges School. Guides meet there every Saturday morning at 10 a.m. with Acting Captain Mrs. Melvin Carter in charge and a warm welcome.

Mrs. Earl Lambert of Yongehurst Rd. was the lucky winner of a basket of groceries at St. Mary's cooking school, Wednesday, October 8.

At 9:30 Saturday morning at St. Luke's Catholic Church, Thornhill, Daphne Titshall became the bride of Alfred Gaisson, May Ave. Helen Gaisson was maid of honour, Annette Gaisson and Jeanalee Titshall were bridesmaids. Albert Titshall was the best man. Reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, followed by a dance at the Legion Hall. The couple will reside on May Ave., where they are building a new home.

Rev. J. O. Totton of Richmond Hill has taken charge of the United Church Sunday School being held in Richvale Public School every Sunday at 11 a.m. A cordial invitation is extended to children in the community to attend. It is hoped that soon enough adults will attend to make a preaching service possible each Sunday.

Miss Mary Hewson who has been in charge of the Sunday School since last summer left this week to attend Emmanuel College, Toronto.

Mr. T. Cooney held the winning ticket for St. Mary's Catholic Church Thanksgiving carnival last week and won for himself a completely installed television set. Miss Resenera of Yonge St. sold the winning ticket and received a cash prize of $100.

Richvale Home and School Association will hold its next meeting Monday, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the school. All parents are urged to attend as a pleasant evening is in store for all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. MacLaughlin from Toronto enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. M. Holmes and Mr. F. Sinclair on Sunday last.

Last Week at Richvale
Thursday, October 9 was the Area Field Day, but alas for Richvale School there was very little to cheer about. We came last, I mean sixth. Sheila Sutcliffe did very well, in fact, she was runner up to the senior girls' champion, Jimmie Rushlow did very well in his events. Robin Wood came close to winning the intermediate boys' dash but had to be satisfied with second place. In all fairness to our contestants, they tried extremely hard to win but fortune refused to smile at them. Excuses are nauseating but we were hampered by illnesses and injuries. Some of the "sure-fires" could not compete for Richvale. As Brooklyn usually says after a world series loss "Wait till next year!"

Friday was speech day at Richvale as five senior students spoke to the assembled pupils. Overcoming a fright at seeing the sea of faces and the critical eye of the judges (the staff), they all spoke very well. After a long deliberation the judges chose Kathleen Bonner and Betty Dubkowsky as first and second prize winners.

Belated birthday wishes go to Billy Nash and Ronny Mann. Both boys celebrated their seventh birthdays last week. Billy on October 5 and Ronny on October 6. As is the custom at Jefferson school their schoolmates sang "Happy Birthday" to them.

The element of mystery always seems to add an interesting note to any affair and the Jefferson School Community Club bazaar scheduled for November 8 is taking care of this with a Parcel Post Sale. The following poem has been sent to us and we understand copies may be had at the School, Friday night next.

Did you ever hear of a parcel post
Well listen and I'll tell you a tale.
Our Community Group is having a bazaar
And wishes to sell some things from afar.
Send us a package we can sell for a quarter
It's lots of fun and it will fill our order
We'll sell it just as it comes thro'
That's why it's called a parcel post sale.

On November 8 we have set our date —
Please send your parcel so it won't be late.
Just address the package, the name unsigned,
And thank you so much for being so kind.
P.S. Send parcels to Mrs. R. Threiffall, R. R. 1 Richmond Hill.

The infantry machine gunners

The Canadian Infantry Soldier is a vital part of our expanding defence forces. In Korea he has built a wonderful reputation for his courage and ability. Wherever he goes, the Canadian Soldier has a way of winning friends — of impressing both friend and foe with his outstanding training and soldierly qualities.

The Infantry Machine Gunners are an integral part of the Canadian infantry regiments. With their heavy and accurate fire power, the Infantry Machine Gunners have time and again in Korea proved how extremely important they are in attack and defence.

Play your part in Canada's most important business today, defence. You are eligible if you are: 17 to 40 years of age, (tradesmen to 45), physically fit and ready to serve anywhere.
