Jack Bowdery who has been associated with Eastern Provincial Airways in Newfoundland for the last year and a half, has spent a week's holiday here with his parents before leaving for Rouyn, Quebec, where he will be a pilot for the Gold Belt Airways.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Laughlin, Arnold Crescent, returned last week from New York where they visited their daughter, Mrs. V. R. Johnston, Reg. N., and bid "Bon Voyage" to another daughter, Miss Madeleine Hope George, Reg. N., who sailed on the Queen Mary for Tanganyika, British East Africa, where she will spend the next five years as a missionary in the leper colony there.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Harold Jackson, District Deputy Grand Master for Toronto District C paid his official visit to Richmond Lodge A.F. & A.M. last Wednesday evening. He was extended a cordial welcome by Richmond Lodge ruling master Wor. Bro. Norman Boore and was greeted by a very large attendance of local members and visitors from all sections of the district. Following the work in the Lodge room a banquet was served and the usual toasts honored.

Gordon Clubine, who will be well remembered through his work on the High School stage during the '40's has just made his 500th appearance with the Red Barn Players at Vineland in the production of "Tons of Money." This play was produced at the school in 1932. Gordon received his start with the High School group under the direction of Miss Edna Izzard and many people will recall his excellent interpretation of the inebriated maiden lady in the "Ghost Train" and his role as the Russian Professor in "Listen Professor."

Hold Party
On October 7, the girls of the Bell Telephone Co., Maple, held a party in honor of Mr. William Ingram, in appreciation of his thoughtfulness during the past years. The Maple staff presented him with a gold signet ring and Mrs. Ingram was presented with a sterling silver deposit on glass dish. Mr. Ingram retired from the Bell in September. A delicious lunch was served, and a very enjoyable evening was had.

The service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday, October 26, will be withdrawn so the congregation will be able to worship with Maple United Church congregation who are celebrating their 83rd anniversary.

The Sunday School of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will be held at the manse on Sunday, October 26 at the usual time.

Mrs. G. W. Bailey is visiting in Binghamton, New York, with Mrs. Clair Lake.

Mrs. Messenger of Markdale visited over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Thomas F. Jackson.

Mr. George W. Bateman of Toronto called on Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jackson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kisten and daughters of Detroit, Mich., called on Mrs. Isaac Watson and Jackson Cook on Sunday, October 19. Mrs. Kisten was formerly Margaret Graham, daughter of the late Emma Graham, formerly of this village.

Maple United Church
Sunday, October 26, will mark the 83rd anniversary service of Maple United Church. The preacher for the day will be Rev. Dr. Tuttle of Toronto. The choir of the church will lead the praise under the direction of Mrs. Roy Clegg. The public are cordially invited to these services.

giving with Mrs. Messenger's sister, Mrs. T. F. Jackson and family.

Mr. Magnus Knudsen known to his fellow employees at Superior Sand and Gravel Co. as "Max" spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jackson. Max was very severely burned while working in the garage at the Superior pit during the last week of July and for nine weeks was treated in Toronto General Hospital, where his condition required skin grafting on both hands. Max is now at the Workmen's Compensation Convalescent Hospital in Malton where he is being given occupational therapy treatments for his hands.

Wedding

Esson-Orr
Hope United Church, Maple, was the scene of the marriage of Orphie Lauretta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Orr, and Keith Wray Esson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Esson, Kitchener. Rev. P. J. Lambert officiated. The wedding music was played by Harold W. Harton and the soloist was Miss Verna Harries.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white faille taffeta with a full skirt and jacket of white lace. She wore a full length veil caught to a band of orange blossoms, and carried a cascade of green ivy and white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her four sisters, Mrs. J. Sniezek (Isabel), matron of honor, Mrs. D. Sykes (Nora), Miss Verna Orr and Miss Sheila Orr, bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in white faille taffeta with matching capes. They wore half hats trimmed with tulle and carried cascades of ivy with multicoloured chrysanthemums. Jack Rogers of Toronto was the groomsmen and the ushers were Albert Orr and Bruce Murray, Galt.

The reception was held in the Masonic Hall, Maple. The bride's mother received wearing a gown of pale blue crepe faille with navy accessories and a corsage of dark pink roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing tulle taffeta faille with black accessories and a corsage of salmon roses.

Following the reception the couple left for a motor trip through New York State. The bride wore a navy top coat and accessories over a scarlet wool jersey dress. Her corsage was red carnations.

Burgess-Watson
Bronze and gold mums decorated the home of the bride's parents in Woodbridge on Saturday, October 11, 1952, when Marion Douglas Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Watson, became the bride of William Kenneth Burgess of Port Hope, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Walter Burgess of Campbellford. Rev. J. A. H. Hodgson officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. A. E. Kearney played the wedding music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pink of alest taffeta, styled with a wide V-neck outlined in pleated taffeta. The ankle-length skirt was made very full, with a set-in panel of pleats and back fullness. Her fingertip veil of pink illusion was held in place by a pleated Dutch bonnet type headdress and she carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses, stephanotis and ivy. Miss Jessie Watson was maid of honor for her sister and was gowned in pale green opalescent taffeta styled the same as the bride's with a headdress of a modified version of the type worn by the bride.

Mr. Murray Burgess was best man for his brother and Mr. Thomas C. Butterworth ushered. The groom wore a tulle taffeta gown of rose dust crepe with feather hat and corsage of pink roses. For travelling the bride wore a suit of royal gold doeskin with cinnamon coat and accessories. Her corsage was bronze and yellow mums. Following their wedding trip to the Laurentians, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess will make their home in Port Hope.

Jefferson Family Celebrates Son's Birthday By Radio
Dee Jernigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jernigan of Jefferson, who is A/C at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, celebrated his 19th birthday with his family and some of his friends on Sunday, October 12, by "short wave radio". Dee's birthday is really on October 14, but was celebrated earlier for convenience's sake.

Contacting the radio-operator at Dee's base, through the short-wave facilities of a friend in Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Jernigan made arrangements some time ago for caterers in Wichita Falls, Texas, to supply a birthday cake, complete with candles, and all the trimmings for a party for Dee and other friends including A/2C Walter Grabowski; A/3C Dave Vest and A/3C Jim Nowak.

Dee's parents and his sister Lynne, Mrs. L. Latimer, Gormley; Anne Jackman, Richmond Hill; Dee's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Everett; Harry Livingston and his mother, Mrs. Livingston, Toronto and A/C1 Don Watt, RCAF, who attended Richmond Hill High with Dee, held their share of the party on the Toronto end with a duplicate birthday cake and all the fixings.

Needless to say, there was a very surprised airman in Texas, when the radio operator switched to Dee's family and those gathered in Toronto sang, "Happy Birthday" to Dee. They all talked, via short-wave, and lighted the birthday candles and cut the two cakes at the same moment and thus shared their joy with each other across the miles. Dee's friends will be glad to hear he hopes to be home on leave the middle of December.

Lending Library To Be Opened Oak Ridges Sch.

Acting Captain Doreta Carter of the Oak Ridges Girl Guides informed the Liberal this week that plans are now under way through the co-operation of the Board of Education, to open a lending library at Oak Ridges School.

This library will be run by the guides and books will be loaned out to readers. Literature will be provided for children from Grades 1 to 10 as well as teen-age readers and adults books.

Some of the reading material will be gathered through donations and it is requested that any old or new books, magazines (Popular Science, etc.) or old country newspapers anyone may have on hand be given to the Oak Ridges Guides.

The library will be open to anyone from the Elgin Mills-Jefferson district and there will be no set fee for membership, but a donation box will be in evidence. The money collected from the library will be used in buying supplies for the guides.

Official opening date of the library will be announced later.

Several well-known square-dancers from Richmond Hill visited the Jefferson School Community Club last Friday evening among them being Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lynett; Mr. and Mrs. Al Blackburn; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Charity; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Savage and Mrs. Stan Pipper.
There was a very lively evening of dancing and at the close door prizes were awarded to Mr. Morley Moses and Julie Topper.
The next square dance the community club is holding will be on Saturday, November 1, owing to the fact the annual school Halloween party is slated for October 31.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. A. L. Latimer and family on the death of Mrs. Latimer's father, Walter Lyle Scott. Mr. Scott died last week at his daughter's home in Richvale. Funeral services were conducted on Saturday, October 18, at the Presbyterian church in Sutton West.
