Maryann Glebe visited over the week end at Cummer Lee's, and came to Sunday School with Bobby.

Service in Headford Church will be withdrawn this coming Sunday, owing to the anniversary services in Victoria Square, but Sunday School will meet as usual at the regular hour of 11 o'clock.

Headford was well represented among the prize winners at the Richmond Hill Community Fair last week. Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Freeman Barker and Mrs. George Barker were winners in several horticultural classes, while Lorraine Acreman won a ribbon for her knitting.

Public Speaking Contest.
The semi-finals of the York County Public Speaking Competition were held last Wednesday at Buttonville School, at which Murray Coulter brought first class honors to Headford. Speaking his travels from "East to West" he was judged winner among six contestants. Betty Huston, speaking on Pauline Johnson, gained the second place while the judges made no award for a third position.

Josephine Glueck of Headford speaking on "Ukrainians becoming Canadians" tied with another contestant. To break the tie, they were each given the task of an impromptu speech of their own choosing, and here Josephine lost out by a mere word or two. There were the semi-finals for Markham Twp. Finals will be decided on Tuesday, October 21st, the winner to meet successful candidates from other areas for the York County trophy.

Donald, Cora and Margaret Brodie motored to Guelph last Friday for further work in the Junior Farmers. Don was judging cattle, while the girls with others of the Buttonville "Club 15," under the direction of Mrs. Kelly, put on a skit, showing the recognized procedure for conducting a meeting.

The Murray Acremans attended the tenth wedding anniversary party of Lorraine's sister in Toronto on Saturday evening last.

Home and School
The executive of Headford Home and School Association met at the home of Mrs. Kal Vizey on Monday to plan for their November 4 meeting. This is to be a Citizenship night, and we are going to discuss municipal affairs in Markham Township. It is hoped to have a panel of well-informed civic officials, who will discuss township affairs for us. It has long been felt that we do not exercise our vote in the township to the fullest extent and that even when we do vote, we are somewhat in the dark as to just what our vote will do for us. So get behind the Home and School and come to this meeting, November 4, primed with questions on the things that are bothering you in our township government.

King City United W.M.S.

Mrs. G. E. K. Howe, president of Toronto Centre Presbytery, presided at the 86th annual autumn Thanksgiving meeting of the W.M.S. of King City United Church on Thursday afternoon, October 9. She gave an inspirational address on "Stewardship", and at the close of her talk went on to tell of the missionary work of the W.M.S. at home. Some of the missionaries are known as Port Workers. Their duties are to meet every ship that lands at a Canadian port, so that they help newcomers in many ways. Some of these women speak several languages, and they give a wonderful welcome to immigrants who are thrilled to hear their native tongue in their new country. These workers also put a doll in the arms of every little girl who comes ashore in Canada.

Mrs. Howe went on to tell of the supplies of clothing that have been sent from the W.M.S. supply department to Korea this year. Since January 133 tons of clothing have been shipped to that unfortunate land.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson, who introduced Mrs. P. J. Lambert, Maple. Mrs. Lambert is vice president of the Centre Presbytery and serves as representative for this district. It was her pleasure to introduce the guest speaker, Mrs. H. Ratcliffe conducted the worship service, taking as her theme "Thankfulness". During the afternoon Miss Helen Hunter sang "Thanks be to God," and Mrs. McClure sang "My Cathedral." Guests were present from the W.M.S. of Richmond Hill, Maple, Laskay and Temperanceville, as well as women who represented the missionary societies of the local Anglican, Baptist and Presbyterian congregations. Guests of honour were, besides Mrs. Howe, Mrs. F. L. Fear, past president of Toronto Centre Presbytery, Mrs. J. E. Carson, secretary of the Missionary Monthly, Mrs. W. J. Nixon and Miss Mary Fenwick, recording secretary and vice president of the Toronto Centre Presbytery.

At the close of the meeting, a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed, and tea was served by the members of the W.A. of the church. The tea table was most inviting with its pretty banquet cloth, golden chrysanthemums and six gold coloured candles in glass holders.

W.M.S.
When the W.M.S. of Laskay United Church met for their autumn quilting bee recently, they completed four quilts that were pieced by Mrs. William Peelar, who has been making quilt tops for this group for many years. This will be the first time that her quilts will have travelled as far as Korea, however, and that is the destination of the finished product from the quilting bee. Mrs. Peelar is a very industrious lady, and although she will celebrate her 80th birthday next summer, she continues to piece quilt tops for the Laskay group, and for her own church groups at Emery. When the bazaar will be held at Emery Church next Saturday, she will send four quilts for sale, as well as 45 aprons for the apron booth which she has made in her spare time. Mrs. Peelar has made her home for the past thirteen years with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peelar, 7th of Vaughan at the townline. At the quilting bee at Laskay Church the ladies have a happy day working together, and they take time out for a delicious lunch. Everyone brings their choicest dishes, and when it is all put together there is a real feast.

Christenings
Four babies were christened in Laskay United Church on Sunday afternoon by Rev. M. R. Jenkinson. Five pairs of grandparents, as well as one great grandmother, were present.

Ruth Elaine Welt, 5 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Welt, Newtonbrook, had her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Callum present.

John Aubrey Glass, 2 1/2 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Glass, was the youngest baby christened but he had two pairs of grandparents to admire him. They were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marwood of Woodbridge.

Frederick Elgin McAllister, 8 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. David McAllister, Toronto, was fortunate to have his great-grandmother, Mrs. W. Boys, as well as his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boys, in the church.

Carolyn Flora Scott, 10 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott, Laskay, had her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, and seven brothers and four sisters there to admire her. The church was decorated with a large basket of bronze 'mums from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter.

John Aubrey, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey W. Glass, was christened on Sunday afternoon, and following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Glass entertained the baby's grandparents, and Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, who performed the ceremony, at supper. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marwood, Woodbridge, are baby's maternal grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Glass are the paternal grandparents. Mrs. Jenkinson was also present, also the baby's aunt, Miss Kathleen Marwood, who spent a few days with

Mr. and Mrs. Glass.

Mission
Mrs. Len Robb and Mrs. Frank Gambrell are in charge of selling tickets and making bus reservations for everyone who intends to be present at the opening ceremonies of the Bryan Green Sunday evening, October 26, in the Coliseum, Canadian National Exhibition. The bus or buses, will leave King City at 6 o'clock sharp and the return fare is 75 cents each person.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Campbell and daughter Kay, motored to Preston on Sunday, to spend the day with Mr. Campbell's niece, Mrs. Earl Fisher.

Nobleton school was the winner of the trophy for school marching drill at the Schomberg Fair. They were led by the girls of Aurora High School.

Mrs. Viola Gates, Alvington, Ont. visited her sisters, Mrs. Bert Cadogan and Mrs. Arthur Wellesley for the Thanksgiving week-end.

Apple Day
This was a busy week for the Boy Scouts and Cubs, for they held their annual Apple Day on Saturday morning and on Sunday morning held their annual parade to All Saints Anglican Church. The Brownies joined them in church parade. The three packs, dressed in full uniform, were escorted to church by their leaders, Mrs. Marion Laing and Miss Fay Armstrong of he Brownies, Mrs. Harry Hood, Cubmaster and George Harvey and Douglas Specht, Scoutmaster and assistant Scoutmaster. Robin Walker and Billy Cairns were the color party who escorted the Cubs' flags to the altar. A special sermon was preached by Rev. D. C. H. Michell on this Youth Sunday.

The Apple Day sale was a success. The apples came from Eaton Hill Farm and were especially nice this year. The Cubs canvassed the village, with the Scouts in three cars, driven by John Belknap, John Dew and Geo. Harvey, covered the district. Mrs. Ursula Shields spent the morning serving cocoa to the boys from the kitchen of the United Church, when they came in to warm up and to refill their baskets.

The Boy Scouts and Cubs of King City are going to hold a paper drive on Saturday morning, October 25. They will be out with their trucks at 9 a.m. and they will be picking up your bundles of old papers and magazines.

Obituary

Late R. J. Carson

Robert John Carson, retired farmer who had spent most of the 80 years of his life in Vaughan township, passed away at his home, Jefferson on Thursday night, October 16, after a long illness of more than two years. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from Wright and Taylor's Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, to Maple Cemetery for burial. Rev. C. G. Higginson, Richmond Hill United Church conducted the ceremony. Rev. Alex Halbert, Alliston, a former minister of King and Newtonbrook, and a great friend of the Carson family, was present. The late Mr. Carson was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carson, former residents of Teston. Besides his widow, the former Alice Neal, and his daughter Velma (Mrs. Henry McDonald) of Islington, three brothers, William A. Carson (King City), Ernest (Teston), Edward (Aurora) and a sister Pearl (Mrs. Avery, Edgeley), mourn his passing. The late Mr. Carson and his family were held in very high regard in every community in which they have lived. This was evident on Sunday afternoon by the large number of friends who came to pay their last respects to their friend and neighbour.

Kinghorn School
Kinghorn School was well represented amongst the prize-winners at the Schomberg Fair on Saturday, October 11.

Bonnie and Freddie Firth, 7 year old twins won a first and 3rd prize, respectively, for printing. Grade 8 had three winners for art work, in crayon chalk, depicting some phase of pioneer life in Canada. The 2nd prize in this class was won by Don McNaughton, the 3rd prize by his sister, Frances McNaughton, and the 4th prize by Kay Campbell. The first prize for art from Grade 7 was won by Edward McNaughton, who did a crayon chalk picture of a New Brunswick Lumber Camp. Their teacher, Miss Evelyn Courtney, was also a prize winner. A hand woven carriage robe made by Miss Courtney won a first prize.

Public Speaking Contest
Eleven children of grades 7 and 8 from King Township schools competed on Wednesday afternoon, October 15, when the preliminary meeting of the York County Public Speaking contest was held in the United Church, Kettleby. The winners were first Nancy Patton, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Patton, King City and the pupil of King City School. The second prize was won by Jessie Kemp, 13 1/2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Kemp, townline, and also a pupil in Grade 8, King City school. Miss Eva Dennis, principal and teacher of these girls is proud of her pupils, who have brought honor to her school. Nancy Patton will continue in the Public Speaking contest, when the competition in which the winners of this district will take part, will be held in Aurora, in the old High School, on October 28. The first and second prizes were books. Each child who entered the contest, but who did not win a book was given a dollar bill as encouragement. The third prize was won by Margaret Donnelly, Oak Ridges school. Other who took part were Jack Cain, Snowball School; Edward Fike, S. S. No. 6; Clifford Davis, Nobleton; Sylvia Greensides, S. S. 9 Glenville; Donna Davey, S. S. 18 Linton; Norma Hunt, S. S. No. 7 Deacon; Carol Black.

The Sick Committee regret to report Gervis Huestis Jr., son of veteran of World War II Gervis Huestis, 218 Oak Ave., Richvale, received treatment at Newmarket Hospital for a fractured arm.

Chairman of the Poppy Committee, Comrade Frank Titshall of the Richmond Hill Branch 375 Canadian Legion is asking for and needs the fullest cooperation of all its members in his upcoming campaign. Saturday, November 8, 1952, is the official national tag day.

Early organization is vital for a successful Poppy Campaign. Volunteer your services to your local Poppy Committee.

The blood red poppy of Flanders has been accepted as a symbol of Remembrance for those who gave their lives. Disabled veterans make these poppies in Vet-Craft Shops under the Department of Veterans' Affairs. The Legion is entrusted with the sale of the poppies. The monies collected are kept in a trust fund by the local branch, No. 375 and used solely for welfare and service work for needy veterans and their dependents.

The Legion does not question whether the recipient is a member of the organization, but gives generously to all in need, according to the merits of the case.
