LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. F. STOTTS
18 Church St., Langstaff AV. 5-2434

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hale, No. 7 east attended Erin Fair held October 11-13, and while in the district visited with friends, Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, of R. R. Fergus, Ont. Mrs. Hale said that the McCormicks specialize in potato farming and have harvested 1400 bags with the help of 10 men, at the peak of the crop season. With a 50 lb. bag of potatoes at $1.99, potato farming seems like a profitable business these days.

May we join Mrs. Badger and Sabine in wishing R. B. Badger happy birthday on October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Vanhorne celebrated their wedding anniversary on November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Holt spent Thanksgiving Sunday at Brampton, celebrating Mel's birthday on October 13. They visited with Mr. Holt's niece, Mrs. G. Madill and family.

Ernest Nicholson, Church St., accompanied his daughter on a motor trip to Kingston the holiday weekend.

OAK RIDGES & LAKE WILCOX NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. C. L. STEPHENSON
TELEPHONE: KING 130R22

here for many years are now occupying their permanent home on Lakeland Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ash, Mr. Wm. Ash and Mr. and Mrs. James Bolton paid a visit to Woodbridge Fair last Monday.

Apple Day
The Oak Ridges Scouts and Cubs worked hard on Apple Day and feel well repaid for their efforts. The Cubs canvassed Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox and the Scouts invaded Aurora as there is no scout troop there at present. Assistant Scoutmaster Broad set up headquarters in a tent on his front lawn and baskets were replenished from there. Interested mothers and friends supplied hot cocoa and currant bread which were prepared by Mrs. Warren Broad and the president of the Ladies Auxiliaries, Mrs. C. B. Cassidy and served to the young salesmen in Mrs. Broad's home. Twenty quarts of chocolate milk were consumed and countless loaves of currant bread.

Home and School
The regular meeting of Oak Ridges Home and School will be held on Tuesday, October 28. A speaker will be present from the Crippled Civilian Society in Toronto.

Late A. Clarry
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephenson attended the funeral of a cousin, Mr. Alexander Clarry on Friday last. The interment took place at Bethel Cemetery at Greenbank. Mr. Clarry was the son of Mr. Elmer Clarry and the late Luella Barker, and a descendant of a pioneer family in Markham township. Aged 48, he is survived by his wife, the former Edna Gordon, and his father and two brothers Douglas and Ralph.

Stones-Borg Wedding Two Ring Ceremony

Amid a setting of gladioli, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, McCaul St., Toronto, was the scene of a double-ring wedding last month of Rena Theresa Borg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Borg, Toronto and Clayton Stones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stone, Langstaff. A trio of St. Michael's Chorists sang during the service with Rev. Father Gillan officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown of French lace styled with rolled up collar over a crinolines of nylon tulle. A panel of nylon tulle and lace formed her full train. Her fingertip veil was caught with matching crown of lace over satin and she carried a white prayer book centred with white orchid and lily-of-the-valley.

Helen Pollock was the maid of honor and wore a ballerina-length gown of pale green pleated nylon over taffeta with matching crown and jacket. Her attendants Mrs. John Morris, Langstaff, Miss Josephine Borg and Mrs. Joseph Pollock were attired alike in ballerina-length gowns of light lilac pleated nylon over taffeta, jackets with mandarin collars and matching headpieces. They carried horse-shoes of yellow roses.

Gail Domenico was flower girl costumed in a pale green ballerina-length gown with Peter Pan collar and carried a nosegay of assorted flowers.

Guy Menard was groomsman and the ushers were Thomas White, Langstaff, Anthony and Emmanuel Borg, cousins of the bride.

Following dinner party held at "The Old Mill" Rev. Father Gillan, Walter Howell, Langstaff and Guy Menard, Peterboro, proposed the toasts.

Miss Kearns Speaks To Langstaff H. & S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Langstaff Home and School association was held in the school on Tuesday, October 14. The president Mrs. C. Thirgood opened the meeting and welcomed new members from Thornlea, stating that she hoped to see more of them at future meetings.

Miss Patricia Kearns, physical culture teacher from Richmond Hill High School, gave a very informative and interesting talk on Physical Education, and how it tends to teach good sportsmanship and proper health habits to the children. She also pointed out that dancing develops the body, feet and back and that High School pupils average 46 dance classes in a year.

Mrs. Cousins showed pictures of Physical Education at a rural school at Wicklow, Ont., where there was only one teacher, but where they had physical exercises every day.

Mrs. H. E. LeMasurier spoke about the contest by the "Bulletin" which is the prize for the best essay on "What does your Home and School association mean to you?" Members discussed a travelling bake sale which will take place morning and afternoon of Friday, October 31. Watch the Liberal for further details.

Doris Jean Russell Weds Robt. Thorne

Baskets of white and yellow chrysanthemums formed the setting in Thornhill United Church on Saturday, October 18, for the late afternoon wedding of Doris Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, Langstaff to Robert W. H. Thorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thorne, of Stroud, Ontario. Rev. E. E. Kent officiated at the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of beige brocade satin, styled in princess lines with a long train. Her finger-tip veil was caught to a matching Juliet cap and she carried a cascade of all white carnations, mums and stephanotis.

Her attendants were her two sisters, Evelyn, maid-of-honor, and Phyllis as bridesmaid, and wore similar gowns of gold taffeta with matching Juliet caps and carried bouquets of bronze and yellow mums, oak leaves with trailing ivy.

Miss Barbara Thorne was junior bridesmaid frocked in light green taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Rev. Russell, brother of the bride was best man while Wm. Noon and Gordon Allen were the ushers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Stop 20, Yonge St., with the bride's mother receiving in a navy sheer crepe dress with red accessories and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted her in a gown of grey silk, with black accessories and corsage of white carnations.

After the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Thorne will take up residence at Stroud, Ontario. For traveling the bride chose a grey wool dress, navy coat, with red accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Guests attending were from Windsor, New Liskeard, Oshawa, Manilla, Pentang, Oakwood, Pickering, Barrie, Stroud, Markham, Thornhill and Langstaff.
