Re: New Election Date

Only 14 Ratepayers At S.S. 13 L. Wilcox School Board Meeting

By Mrs. C. L. Stephenson
A recent meeting called by the School Board of S. S. 13, Lake Wilcox, brought out fourteen ratepayers. The subject to be discussed was the changing of the date of the election for a school board member from December 31 to December 10. The school act states that this meeting shall be held on the Wednesday between Christmas and New Years, and to change the date the ratepayers have to agree at a special meeting. So to comply with the school act the board of S. S. 13 called the meeting as above by the posting of notices in three or more prominent places throughout the school section. Fourteen ratepayers were interested enough to attend.

New School Already Too Small
Two years ago when this school section was organized after the separation from Oak Ridges, when it was felt that our children would be better with a school of their own at the Lake, thereby saving the long walk, or the expense of a bus for transportation, seventeen ratepayers attended the meeting at which the school board was elected. We have all learned a lot since then about the running of a school and the necessity for careful judgment in making decisions affecting our children. The new school is already too small.

The decision to build a four roomed school was disputed when it was made. It was pointed out that a survey already taken by the trustees at Oak Ridges showed that a six-room school was the least we could do with. In spite of this a four-room school was built which was crowded the day it opened. This year the old school at Jefferson has had to be used and a bus hired to transport the children. This means they are away from home all day and exposed to the traffic hazards on Yonge Street. The new school yard has never been put in shape and is anything but an inspiration to the district. Taxes are an important subject with all of us but it is false economy to save a dollar this year and be forced to spend two next year.

Need To Elect Good Trustee
At last year's school meeting we had a good turnout of ratepayers. The man elected this year will be our trustee for three years. A lot of subjects which concern the welfare and education of our children will be decided by the man or woman elected. If the district keeps on growing at the present rate a larger school will be necessary before the next three years have expired. People of vision who believe in the district and want to see our children have the best we can afford to give them are available in the district. It is everyone's duty to discuss the issues involved and decide for themselves who they want to vote for, always remembering that once elected the board makes the decisions and the people know very little about it.

REMEMBER THE DATE
Wednesday, December 10, at the school. See that your vote is registered. It is YOUR duty to use your franchise on all levels of government.

Mission Held This Week At Coliseum

Taking as his text, Eph. 5:14, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light," the Rev. Canon Bryan Green, B. D., Rector of Birmingham, England, opened the Toronto Diocesan Mission at the CNE Coliseum, Toronto, Sunday night.

Canon Green is assisted by the Rev. Harold Frankham, Rector of Middleton, Lancashire, who conducted a half-hour of singing from 7.45 to 8.15 before the main service begins, as well as the hymns sung during this service.

Over 10,000 people gathered on Sunday. Many from this district, including most of the congregation of St. John's Church (Yonge St. at Jefferson), went by chartered bus and cars to hear this well-known speaker.

Canon Green has a warm and very human approach to Christianity's message and a distinct appeal to young people.

One of the features of the mission is the questionnaire period. All young people under 35 are seated on the main floor of the coliseum and given cards on which they may write questions, which Canon Green answers for them.

There were many dignitaries from several denominations on the platform among them being representatives from the Salvation Army. The mission itself is for all denominations although sponsored by the Toronto Anglican diocese.

Stating that the purpose of the mission is to build up steadily the picture of the Christian faith, Canon Green urged his listeners to come out as often as possible to the meetings which will be held nightly at the Coliseum from now until November 4.

Canon Green further stated that a spiritual revival is the only answer to materialism and the threat of Communism "which is sweeping the world like a prairie fire."

Canon Green is speaking over CBL each morning this week, at 8:15 a.m.

Elizabeth York Speaks
An evening spent in the company of Mrs. Elizabeth York can be a great adventure as those who heard her speak at Buttonville Hall on Monday evening can attest.

Miss York, who is a buyer of fine foods for the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. spoke on "Eating around Europe." She described the highlights of her life, a visit with Queen Mary at Marlborough House where she spent one hour and a half talking with Her Majesty instead of the fifteen minutes originally allotted.

"Never think of Queen Mary as old," said Miss York. "She is stately and beautifully dressed, gazes at you from under bushy eyebrows, and speaks in a low, rather guttural voice." She is also the best listener I have ever had, and is intensely interested in all things Canadian.

Miss York described a visit with Princess Alice, Duchess of Athlone and told of finding many articles of furniture purchased from the T. Eaton Co., gracing her apartment in Kensington Palace.

Miss York took her audience on a tour of the British Isles and European countries, emphasizing the fact that Canadians can learn much from the eating habits and culinary arts of these peoples. When her audience was thoroughly hungry, she concluded with a give-away of some of the products purchased in her travels.

Wrestling Club Started At High School For Pupils

By Quintin Wight
Richmond Hill District High School has formed a wrestling club. The club, at the moment is composed of some 20 boys, ranging from flyweight to light-heavyweight, and are trained by coach Jensen. It may be wise at this point to insert a small statement to the effect that parents need not be alarmed about their "enfants precieux." The mat work is being very strictly supervised by Mr. Jensen and his associated coaches, so injury will be improbable.

The rules followed (strict inter-collegiate) also allow no bone breaking or bending holds, there are no ropes to get strangled with. From now until Christmas the time will be taken up mostly with body-building exercises and competition between the boys of the various weight classes, though additional help may be brought in by interested amateur wrestlers from Toronto and vicinity.

Later on it is hoped that other organizations specializing in amateur wrestling will be able to compete with the local boys. As relatively few schools have such clubs, the Hill will have to rely mainly on YMCA entrants, but it is hoped that all will turn out well. During the next month or so, the boys in the club will see action between the halves of the basketball games played at the high school.

Once again we would like to mention that any student, if he belongs to the club, faces less chance of being hurt if he behaves himself than when playing football or hockey. If this scheme lasts successfully we trust that nights of wrestling bouts alone may be presented soon. No blood or gore but lots of good entertainment.
