the drivers are swell!

"The next time I go to see uncle Ed I'm going to go on the bus. Last week grandma and I had a long bus trip and the drivers were really swell. When we changed buses the driver helped grandma and me to pick out our new bus and he told her not to worry about anything. The new driver was swell too and he told me he had a little girl like me at home. I sure like going on the bus."

NORTH RICHVALE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT - MRS. M. BLACKBURN, Yongehurst Rd.
 Telephone TU. 4-2238

Don Fettes has resigned as leader of the Richmond Hill Scouts. Don has done a magnificent job with the boys and will certainly be missed.

Richvale School
 A contingent of Richvalites invaded the "Plains of Langstaff" on Tuesday to battle them at a game of soccer. Knowing too well the ignominy of defeat, the boys played their utmost to conquer the foe 1-0.

Volley-ball is steamrolling to the honor of being the most popular sport among girls. We even had the staff, music supervisor and co-ordinating principal playing on Wednesday.

The fine weather offered us an opportunity to go for excursions. Grade one under Miss Sibbald explored the region adjacent to the school. The gardeners of grades five and six started planting a garden patch to plant tulip bulbs. Our school should be beautiful in the spring.

The senior grades are selling

Christmas cards and wrappers. Celebrate Wedding Anniversary
 Fifty years of wedded bliss were celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardner of Mill Road on Wednesday, October 22. Open house was held and the couple welcomed friends, neighbors and acquaintances who left with them gifts and good wishes for many more years together. A school chum of Mrs. Gardner's arrived from Ottawa and presented the folks with a canary. Host and hostess of the evening were their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gardner, who welcomed these friends and served refreshments.

George Luther from Camden, Manitoba, arrived in Richmond Hill last week and plans to spend the winter in the village.

A heartless hit and run driver struck and killed Art Adams' Grand Champion dog last Saturday. The dog gave birth to two champion pups a short time ago. Mr. and Mrs. D. Huntley will be leaving Yongehurst Road shortly.

MAPLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT - MRS. D. ALLEN

Maple CGIT met in the parsonage last week. During the meeting Lorne Wells, representing the Lions Club, outlined the plan of his club to make two scholarships available to the girls.

After this part of the program the intermediate girls studied art under the leadership of Mrs. Leslie Laver, while the junior girls continued their health project with Mrs. P. J. Lambert.

Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Lambert had as guests members of the Ministerial Fellowship. Papers were read by Rev. Douglas Davies of Stouffville and Rev. Thomas of Markham.

Rev. G. A. Beatty of Agincourt led the group in worship. At the conclusion of the meeting the ministers and their wives met for a social hour and a cup of tea at the parsonage.

Mrs. H. C. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carruthers of Toronto spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wells.

Miss Mary Agar of Toronto visited over the week-end with Mrs. Arthur Lawrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walker have moved to their new home in Willowdale.

Mrs. Jenner from Toronto is visiting with her daughter, Miss Doreen Jenner.

Mrs. Leonard Jennings and Beverly spent a week with Mrs. Jennings' mother, Mrs. A. Moore, Argyll.

It was a trip enjoyed by all, as most of those present had never had the privilege of visiting these places.

Miss Nelson is genuinely interested in Institute work, as it was her grandmother, who suggested the organization be called "Women's Institute" when it was formed at Stoney Creek over 50 years ago.

United Church Anniversary
 Fine weather, large congregations, glorious singing, inspired messages, and a deep sense of Christian Fellowship featured the anniversary services of Maple United Church on Sunday, October 26.

The special preacher was Rev. Dr. Tuttle of Central Offices of the United Church, in Toronto. The soloist at the morning service was J. Oliver of Richmond Hill and for the evening, Stanley Harper and Mr. Hatten of Weston.

Rev. P. J. Lambert conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. C. H. Bowman of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple. Three anthems were rendered by the choir of the church under the direction of Mrs. Roy Clegg.

At a recent meeting of Maple CGIT Lorne Wells, representing the Lions Club outlined a system of Camp Scholarships which the club is offering to the group to encourage the girls' training and good work.

Loren Arden Wells, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wells, received infant baptism on Sunday evening, October 26, during the service at Maple United Church. Her great grandparents, Mrs. H. C. Bailey, Toronto, and William Wells were both present.

Hallowe'en Party for Mission Band
 The Busy Bees Mission Band meeting last Saturday took the form of a Hallowe'en party and was held at the home of Janet McCowan.

A gay and lively time was had by 16 children who came in costume. The games were in charge of Isobel Leece, Heather Jardine and Janet McCowan. Lunch was served by Mrs. McCowan.

On Monday evening the senior members of the Maple Sunshine CGIT Group visited the home of Mrs. Leslie Laver where they were privileged to see her at work on one of her oil paintings.

The girls have undertaken a study of oil painting for the first project of this season.

The Junior girls of the CGIT went to the home of Mrs. John Martin for further instruction in their Health Course.

During the evening in a contest on this subject Sonia Bodka, Donna Robson, Peggy Joslin and Marion Bishop came first. Isobel Leece was one point behind them and Carol Reid, Jill Neufeld and Nancy Godot tied for third place.

After these courses of study the stationery service took place in a Sunday School room where new girls were welcomed and presented with correct insignia for their uniforms. These girls were Shirley Coe, Donna Robson, Nancy Godot, Marion Bishop and Conia Bodka.

The newly inducted officers for the season were installed. They are Past President Eleanor Blacklock; president Catherine Johnson; vice-president Marilyn Watson; secretary, Helen Calder; treasurer, Grethe Dahl.

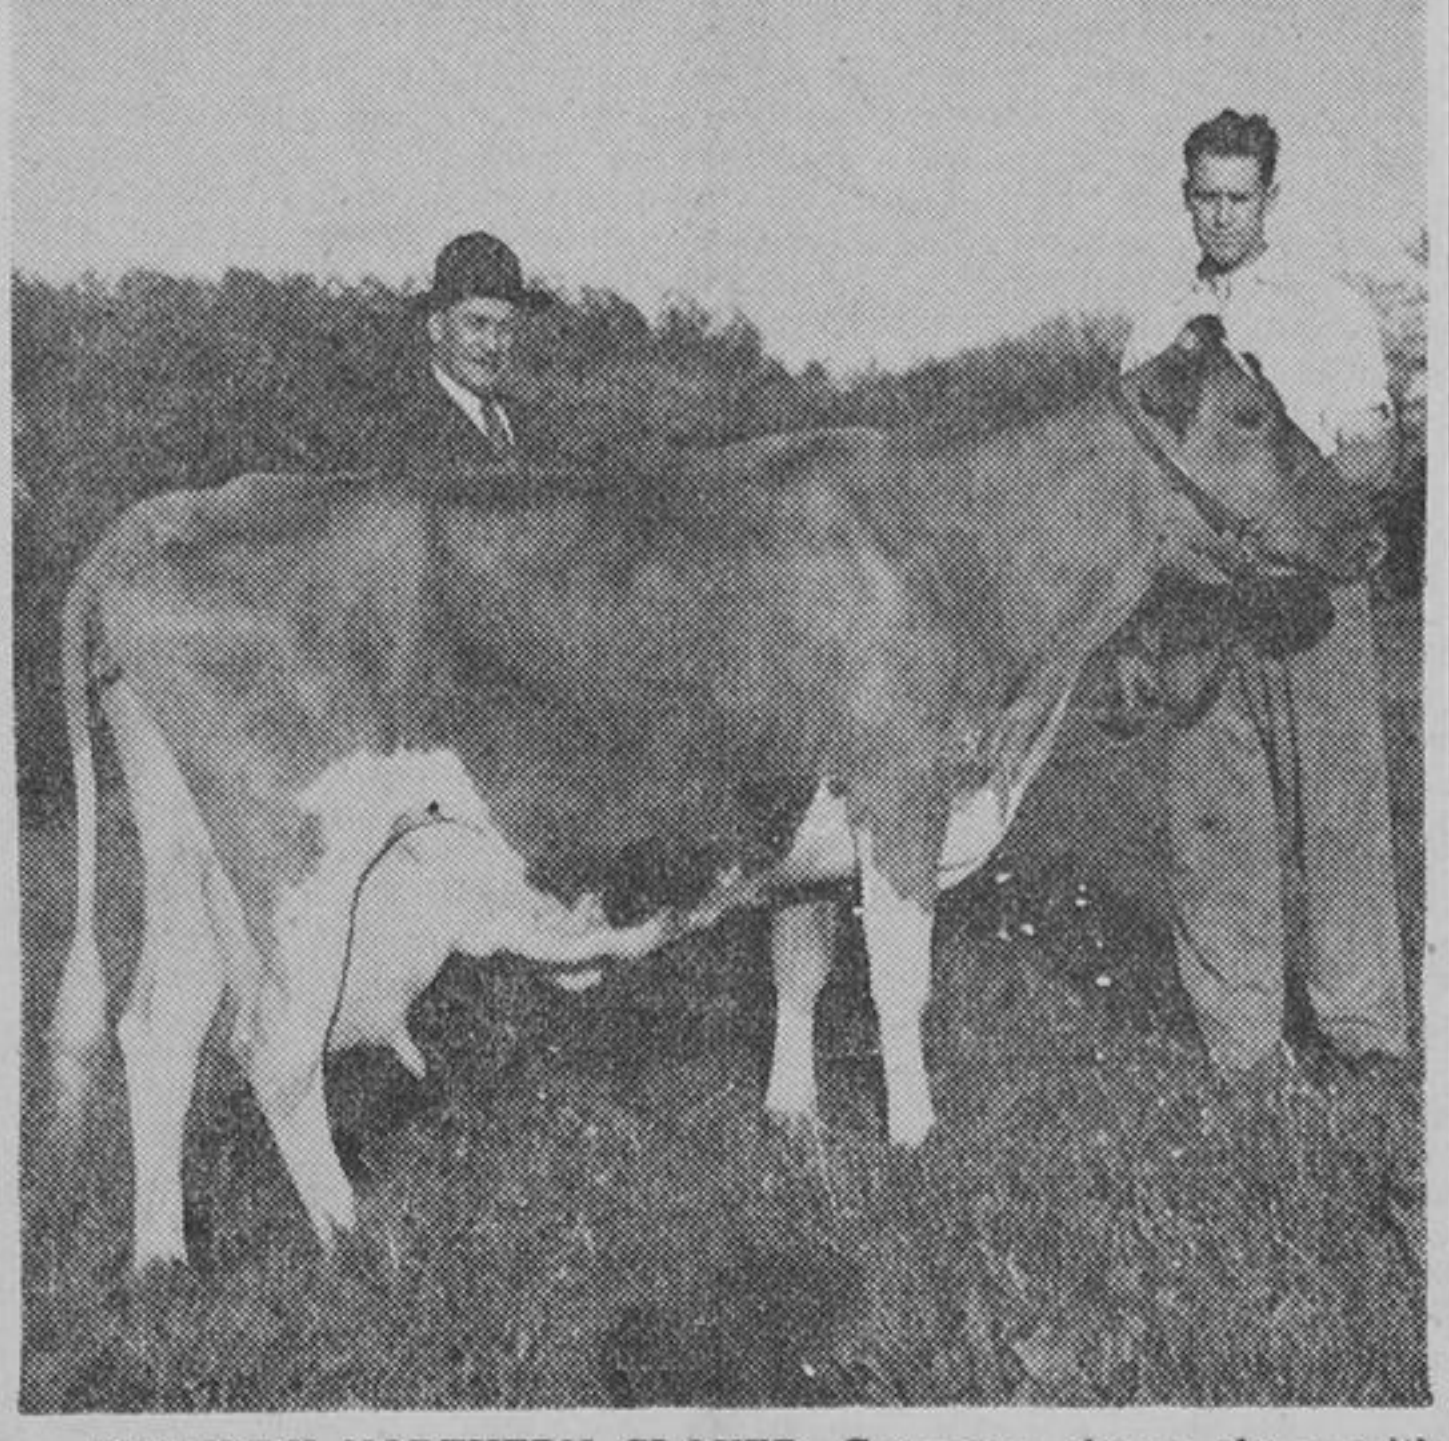

The president of the Junior Group is Marion Bishop.

The girls plan to sell every-day cards next Monday evening to raise funds for a visit to the International Fair held at the Church of All Nations in Toronto, November 4 and 5.

Ladies' teams bowling on Monday, November 3, are 5 vs 6, 2 vs 3. High lady for Monday, October 26, was Det Palmer with a score of 259 for one game and 610 for three games.

Don't forget the Turkey Shoot to be sponsored by Maple Lions Club, Saturday, November 8, 1.30 p.m., at Maple Crest farm. For further information see advertisement in this issue of The Liberal.

To advise people of special event at your church or school or club use a "Coming Events" notice.

DONEDDY NORTHERN CLOVER, Guernsey, shown above with her owner, Bill Fuller, Oak Ridges, last year became the first Canadian cow to make 1,000 lbs. butter-fat on twice a day milking. This year she came back with two more Honour Roll records making 3rd place in the 365 day division and 2nd place in the 305 day division. She has been in R.O.P. 3 times and has made 4 places on the Honour Roll, with a record of 680 lbs. fat as a 2-year-old on twice a day milking.

Mr. Fuller's herd which includes one bull and two heifers from this cow will be sold by auction at his farm, Oak Ridges, on November 19. Shown with Mr. Fuller in the above photo is Geo. Hood of Canadian Countryman.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. F. STOTTS
 18 Church St., Langstaff AV. 5-2434

Leo Grant, Yonge St., is confined to his bed with a recurrence of a previous illness, and J. Butcher, Cedar St., who has been enjoying better health the past summer has again been ordered to bed by his doctor when he suffered a heart attack Thursday of last week. Ann Page, age 11, a grade 6 pupil at Langstaff Public School is ill at her home on Garden Ave., with rheumatic fever.

Mrs. W. A. Curtis, 8 Morgan Drive, will entertain a group of L.O.B.A. ladies on Monday, November 3, and will also be supervising the rummage sale to be held at the Army and Navy hall, Lansing, the second week in November.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Brodie, Yonge St., attended the recent Magee-

McKinnon wedding at St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Toronto, and were guests at the wedding breakfast held at the Maison D'Or.

Young ladies serving at the reception of the Thorne-Russell wedding were Misses Margaret McArthur, Dorothy Barlow, Anne Noon and Mary Barlow under the supervision of Mrs. Wm. Little assisted by Mrs. Mary Jones, Langstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reid, accompanied by daughter Sheila and son Donald were guests last week at the presentation party held for the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ness of Green Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. McNally, who after their recent wedding have taken up residence on Garden Ave., are welcomed to the community. Both came from Toronto.

Elvie Peters, who has been recuperating at Springhurst Beach, after undergoing an operation at Toronto General Hospital, accompanied by Mrs. Peters, and young daughter Susan have returned from their holiday. The Peters are residing with Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Little, Garden Ave., since selling their home in Richmond Hill.

Mrs. W. Bath of Rockwood, Ont., has returned home after visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Glassey, Barbara and John of Garden Ave., for the past week.

Langstaff Teen Agers attending the Junior Square Dancing classes held at the Lions community hall in Richmond Hill last Wednesday, were Gail Lockhart, Elsie George, Patricia Ward, Paul Ward, Allen Harrison and Donald White.

Mark-Yaun W.I.
 November 6 meeting of the W.I. will be held at the home of Mrs. R. McArthur, Yongeview Ave., convener of Community Activities and Public Relations, Mrs. L. Campbell, will be in charge of the programme. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. McArthur, Mrs. O. Brodie, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. H. Glassey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buckman provided the music Sunday evening at the Langstaff Baptist church, and it was very much enjoyed by the recently with Mr. and Mrs. G. Tutt, Church St.

Mrs. Tutt and Mrs. F. Stotts, while driving on the 4th concession of Markham on their way to the Victoria Square United Church, last Sunday, saw Leonard Tutt, who has for the past summer been taking flying instruction at the Gilles flying school, Buttonville, pass overhead in one of the planes. It was an interesting sight to watch the boys towing a biplane and then to see the glider rope leave the plane and glide down.

HEADFORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT
 Mrs. H. Acreman
 R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
 Phone Turner 4-2236

Mrs. H. Deverill, Mrs. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Wesley Clark and Miss Ruth Clark, Headford, were among the guests recently at Sylvan Gables, the home of Mrs. Herbert Watford and Mrs. Raymond Watford, a bride of last week.

The W.A. of Headford met at the home of Mrs. Huston in Victoria Square on Tuesday evening of last week with a very good attendance. We were privileged to have as guest speaker, Mrs. Roger Self of Toronto, former Dominion President of the Woman's Missionary Society, who, in a reminiscent mood gave a pot-pourri of incidents that had occurred during her trip across Canada from east to west. She spoke of the poise of a five-year old leader of a Mission Band group in Newfoundland, and of an earnest young Chinese student in British Columbia, wishing to come to Toronto for music study. Would he be received here? Mrs. Self's plea was for greater brotherhood. During the meeting Mrs. Coughlin of Bethel Baptist Church, Toronto, sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. Rumble at the piano.

Miss Hardy took charge of the meeting, with benediction and dismissal by Mr. Houston. Next meeting at Mrs. Deverill's on November 11.

Mrs. M. Baker of Toronto, formerly on the board of the Women's College Hospital, and mother of Mrs. Pecunia called on Mrs. Herb Smith recently.

We are happy that one of our Headford boys was successful at the Plowing Match of King and Vaughan held at Kleinburg last week. Don Willis got the prize money for tractor plowing in sod.

Mrs. Watford of Silver Stream Farms, gave a delightful tea for 160 guests on Tuesday of last week, to introduce her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ray Watford, who is the daughter of Dr. Montgomery of Toronto.

Mrs. Feare, librarian at Haileybury, who is the former Louella Johnson of Headford, was in this neighborhood recently and called at the Smith home.

Mrs. Hal Acreman and Mrs. Acreman attended a Tupper demonstration on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Bill Knappett.

Be sure you are on hand for the Home and School meeting next Tuesday evening. A citizenship meeting is planned and several good speakers will address the group.

A question-box is planned and all are requested to prepare any questions they might have concerning the government of our township for that meeting. Refreshments will be served.

November 6 meeting of the W.I. will be held at the home of Mrs. R. McArthur, Yongeview Ave., convener of Community Activities and Public Relations, Mrs. L. Campbell, will be in charge of the programme. Hostesses will be Mrs. R. McArthur, Mrs. O. Brodie, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. H. Glassey.
