Miss Lily Dyke of Aurora is visiting this week at the home of her nephew, Mr. C. A. Dyke and with Mrs. Hiltz.
Church Decorated
The beautiful mums which decorated Central United Church on Sunday were placed there by Mrs. W. Sellars in memory of her late husband who died a year ago.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. W. Noble. We wish her a speedy recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Milner and their cousins were visitors last week at Scoug and Millbrook.

The morning service at C. U. Church will still commence at 11.15 a.m. until further notice.
Mr. H. H. Powers and son Hart went to the cottage near Hall's Lake Sunday morning at St. Philips Anglican Church there was a special children's service. Rev. Bourne, the Rector was the speaker.

Nearly Injured
Mr. Clifford Cox narrowly escaped very serious injury last Saturday while he was disconnecting the hose from the car of oil he had been unloading into Perkins' oil truck. The train unexpectedly hunting slightly injured his shoulder and arm as he jumped to safety.

Mrs. Spencer Roys and Mrs. R. O'Grady from Mount Clemens, Mich., spent ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Milner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baron of Ottawa and Mr. Bob Steel of Sarnia were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Butt over the week-end.

Easter Lily
Mrs. Milner reports to us this week that an Easter Lily she has grown is now in full bloom. This is very unusual for this time of year.

Our sympathy is extended to the Denby family in the death of their mother, 74 year old Mrs. Ada Denby, who passed away after several weeks illness, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ross Hord, on the 4th concession of Markham, Saturday, October 25. She was the former Ada Ground, widow of Robert Denby.

We are pleased to have Mr. J. Smith and family who are moving to the house formerly owned by Mrs. Dukes. Mr. Smith is a local dealer in heating and tin-smithing. Miss Maisee Walde of Scotland is spending a week or two with Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Young.

Mrs. Carl Wyndham of Oakville visited her mother, Mrs. Davison, on Friday.
Mrs. Fred Reesor of Port Perry was a week-end visitor with her sister, Mrs. H. H. Powers.

Mrs. L. Colquhoun and Miss Ina Morrison of Havelock spent the week-end with Misses Ila and Vera Weighill.

Fire
The Unionville Fire Brigade was called out about 11 a.m. on Friday to fight a rubbish fire which had got out of control at the home of Mr. C. Hatch on the 5th con. The fire was extinguished and little damage was done.

Mrs. Earl Sellars and family and Miss Viola Foster visited Thursday with Mrs. Connell and Keith at the Cream of Barley Camp, Bowmanville.
