50th Annual W.I. Convention
 Held In Toronto Last Week

Over 1000 members of the Women's Institutes from all parts of Ontario attended the 50th Area Convention held at the Royal York Hotel on November 5, 6, 7.
 Mayor Lamport officially opened the convention on Thursday and brought civic welcome to these women who represented W.I. groups throughout the province. The Mayor said that the door of the City of Toronto was always open to the Women's Institute and reminded the ladies that even after 50 years of development and progress of the organization the principles of the group were fundamentally the same today.
 During the convention the women were privileged to hear several outstanding speakers, one of whom was Miss Anna Lewis, Director of Women's Institutes for the Province.
 Miss Anna Lewis told her listeners that W. I. members have a unique opportunity to foster universal peace. "The pathway to peace can be strengthened by the little pathways to peace between your home and your neighbors, whether she be next door or in another country" she said. Discussion of jury duty as it affects Ontario women was given by Miss Elsie MacGill of the Business and Professional Women's Club, and Miss Sybil Bennet, Q.C. of Georgetown. Miss Bennet stressed the necessity for jurors to stick by the decision that is made. "Your decision may save a man's life," she added.
 Tracing the growth of women's rights in Canada, Miss Bennet suggested that the W.I.'s might go further by pressing for women ambassadors to foreign countries.
 Don Henshaw, speaking on "Horizons Unlimited" at a luncheon suggested that the W.I. should concentrate on the ways of keeping young people in Canada and our agricultural young people on the farm. Canadians should not be so reticent on speaking loudly of their wonderful country. The guest soloist at the luncheon was Lois Marshall, soprano, winner of the Naumberg Award.

 W. H. Cranston of the Midland Free Press speaking on preserving the History of Canada, deplored the lack of interest in local events and local history.
 "Canada's beginning," Mr. Cranston urged, "lies in our misconception of the place of history in our educational system." He said one of the greatest problems in teaching history is to make the true stories as interesting as fairy tales. He disagreed with the system of having only one history book for the ten provinces, favouring not one but 500. "We must learn our Canadian history through the lives of the people who lived where we now live years ago."
 The historical sketch, depicting the W.I. from its beginning over 50 years ago until the present day, in which members from all 18 districts took part was a feature of the Thursday evening session. The violin selections by Mrs. Brownlee of Woodbridge were thoroughly enjoyed by the gathering. Provincial Government legislation making it compulsory for all farmers to have breeding stock vaccinated against Bang's disease was asked, also that rural mail carriers be given a proper wage.
 John Fisher, commentator on CBC said that the world is sick now and he thought a solution might be to have women represented more in public office. Democracy needs the individual. It starts in one human heart and grows and grows. He thought that women have never been given credit for the wonderful pioneer work they have done and are still doing.

H. Jones Acting Chairman
 Jr. Chamber Of Commerce

The initial meeting of what is hoped to be a Richmond Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce was held last week in Ransom's Barber shop. The meeting organized under the auspices of the Aurora Junior Chamber of Commerce saw the Aurora President Doug. Fisher and Charles Egan attend the meeting. Local young businessmen attending included Sid. Brown, Geo. Fenwick, Alan Hill, Harold Mabley, Bud Jones, Warren Hall, Stan Ransom Jr., Stan McNiece and Howard Fleischer.
 Bud Jones was appointed acting chairman, and Stan McNiece acting secretary. Mr. Fisher gave an interesting talk to those present regarding the setting up of an executive, and the general program of any such club.
 Plans were also laid for a future meeting of the association.

Markham Housewife Is Council Candidate

The election pot is beginning to boil in Markham township where Mrs. Norman James, Highland Park housewife has definitely stated her intention to stand as a candidate for Council in the forthcoming municipal elections. Mrs. James who has resided at Grandview Ave. for the past three years has displayed a marked interest in township affairs. Her one daughter is a student at the Richmond Hill District High School, while Mr. James is a photographer with a Toronto daily. Prior to their moving to Highland Park, the James resided in North York township for 14 years.
 This will likely mark the first time a member of the "so called weaker sex" has sought a council seat in Markham township.

NEW RECORD PRICE PAID FOR HERD SIRE

Maplewood Farms, Maple, broke another record when they recently purchased McDonald Farms Le Royalist, a Junior herd sire at a price reported to be $10,000. "Royalist" was bred by McDonald Farms Cortland, New York and has been shown by them throughout the States where he culminated his American show career by winning the Junior Yearling Class at the National Dairy Show at Waterloo and was later made Reserve Junior Champion. His purchase price makes him the highest priced Guernsey bull ever to be imported to Canada and he joins such other high priced females as Wey Acres Levity Sherry $9,500 and Caumsett Indian Sunstone $9,500 purchased earlier in the year by Maplewood.
 McDonald Farms Le Royalist is a son of McDonald Farms S. World Championship Match
 Possibility For Canada-1953

Wide interest, stimulated in great part, by the tremendous success of the "International" plowing matches under the direction of the Ontario Plowmen's Association, is likely to result in the holding of a "World Championship" match in 1953 at which representatives of many countries are expected to compete.
 Following the second annual British Ploughing Association match to be held at Falkirk, Scotland, on November 12, at which Ontario will have two entrants, plans for the creation of a match on a world-wide scale will be furthered. Up to the present seven countries have associated themselves with the Provisional Governing Board which has set up the necessary machinery and tentative rules for the contest.
 Of particular interest to Canadians is the fact that there is a strong possibility that the first world-wide match will be held on Canadian soil.
 Mr. J. D. Thomas former County Match Chairman, and well known conservationist, has been appointed by the Ontario Plowmen's Association to represent that organization at the world conference. Mr. Thomas will extend an invitation to the governing body to hold the first "world" match in Canada.

 A conference to set up the world-wide match was held in England last year, and the following nations were represented on the provisional board, in addition to Canada — England, Scotland, Wales, Eire, Holland and Sweden. During the discussions a provisional set of rules was drawn up to govern the match. The rules have been tentatively accepted by these countries.
 The tentative rules, under which the match will be held, will have a trial run during November's British Ploughing Association match, a special "overseas invitation class" being included for the purpose.
 With the expectation that the first world match will be held next year Mr. Thomas intends to bend every effort to have Canada made the scene of the historic occasion.

Edgeley W.I. Display At Fiftieth Convention

The display "Hands Across the World" created by Edgeley W. I. members and shown last month at Woodbridge Fair, was exhibited at the 50th Central Area W.I. Convention in the Royal York last week.
 At the request of Miss Anna P. Lewis, Director Women's Institute Branch, Department of Agriculture, the dolls were taken to Toronto by the branch president, Mrs. Charles Agnew and were displayed in the Crystal Ballroom of the hotel where the sessions were held.
 More than 1200 delegates viewed this outstanding piece of work of a local group of women whose aim is to help familiarize the public with the forthcoming A.C.W.W. Conference to be held in Toronto next August.
 No need to send a lot of notices about that function your club is staging. Use a "Coming Events" notice in The Liberal. Low in cost, it will command much attention. Telephone Turner 4-1261.
