Farm Forum

An interested Forum met at Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snider's home on November 17 to consider "Are we over-mechanized?" Three groups were formed to study the two questions for discussion:

1. (a) Do you think the farms in your neighbourhood over-mechanized? under-mechanized? mechanized on a sound basis? (b) What are your reasons?

2. If machinery is required that is too expensive for the individual farmer to buy, what would be the best way of solving the problem in your neighborhood or area?

The groups felt that most farmers are mechanized on a sound basis.
The farms are smaller in this area than in some and the machinery they now have could possibly handle more land. However, due to the ever-present shortage of farm labor, they found good farm machinery a "must" in order to get their work done.

The average farmer, they believe buys his machinery wisely.
The more expensive machines could be bought co-operatively. In some cases it may be better to have the work done by a custom operator.

The December series begins on December 1 when the topic will be "Why Price Supports?"

Obituary

Late Miss Selina Puterbaugh
A life-long resident of Edgeley, Miss Selina Puterbaugh, passed away at her home on the 5th Con., Monday, November 17, after a brief illness.

Miss Puterbaugh was born 80 years ago to one of Vaughan Township's early pioneer families and lived on the same farm where eight generations of her family have lived and where her ancestors first settled on reaching this country.

She attended Edgeley public school and Edgeley United Church just a month less two days before her death she was one of three people who attended the anniversary services at Edgeley United Church who were also present at the opening ceremonies 75 years ago.

She represented the fifth generation of the family at the christening recently of little Gloria Christine Boves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Boves. Mrs. Boves was the former Irene Puterbaugh, great-grand niece of the deceased.

In failing health for some time, Miss Puterbaugh was, nevertheless, keenly interested in local affairs and current events.

Rev. P. J. Lambert conducted the funeral service at Mrs. Lawrie's Funeral Home, Maple, on Wednesday, November 19 and interment was in Maple Cemetery.

Miss Selina Puterbaugh will be greatly missed by those who have known this community for a long time and she will be remembered as very much a part of Edgeley from 1872 to 1952.

To the members of her family we extend most sincere sympathy.

Late Mr. Levi Hoover Edgeley lost another life-long resident last week in the passing of Mr. Levi Hoover age 86. Mr.
Hoover passed away at a Willowdale nursing home after a long illness. He was the last of a family of six boys and two girls.

Born of pioneer stock, Mr. Hoover farmed all his life in the same vicinity as his ancestors.

Rev. P. J. Lambert conducted the funeral services at Ward's Funeral Home, Weston and burial was in Edgeley Cemetery. The pallbearers were James Spencer, Lloyd Thompson, Wesley Stong, William Burdakin, Frank Bagg and Daniel Stong.

We extend deepest sympathy to his niece, Miss Bertie Hoover, and other members of the family in their bereavement.

York Hog Producers

To Hold Meet. Mon.

The York County Hog Producers' Association, according to an advertisement appearing in this issue of The Liberal, is holding a meeting of the producers on Monday next at Newmarket to discuss the hog marketing scheme which apparently is expected to become effective on January 1. It will be recalled that several months ago, such a scheme was voted on by the producers and presented to the Minister of Agriculture, Col. the Hon. T. L.
Kennedy.

We presume the intervening time has been required to work out some details and mechanics of the proposition and the directors of the York County Association have arranged to have Mr. Chas. New-no of Barrie, a Director of the Ontario Association, explain the plan and discuss with the producers its working. This should be a real opportunity to get first-hand knowledge on this important subject.

The meeting is to be held in the Agricultural Board Room at Newmarket commencing at 2 p.m.

It's the convenience that counts

When I have to run into town for something, it is pretty handy just to go to the gate and jump on the bus. Farmers on or near the highways really appreciate this great convenience. The bus service comes in very handy too for longer trips and helps us to enjoy many visits back and forth with our friends in the city.
