York County Health Unit Reports For Month Oct.

October activities of the staff of the York County Health Unit have been chiefly concerned with sanitation, school health, and the rapidly expanding child health centres.

INFANT AND PRESCHOOL HEALTH

There were 11 child health centres held during October with a total attendance of 153 infants and preschool children. This showed a considerable increase over the already good attendance of the previous month when 81 children were brought by mothers or guardians to see the public health nurse at the child health centre.

The local service organizations sponsoring the child health centres in each community are doing a wonderful job of assisting the mother and babies at the clinic, of helping the nurse with the keeping of records, and of seeing that this busy afternoon runs smoothly. Parents are receiving valuable help with every day child-raising problems, assistance with difficulties in training and feeding youngsters, and encouragement in following their family physician's directions and advice.

SANITATION

The annual inspection of 82 school buildings and premises in the Health Unit is again under way, and will soon be completed. Attention is paid to those things which affect the health of the pupils, such as lighting, heating, ventilation, and washing and toilet facilities. While most school boards are keenly aware of the importance of these things, there are one or two exceptions where a great deal of improvement is urgent. It is hardly fitting to say that what was good enough for grandfathers is good enough for to-day's pupils, as would seem to be the case in one or two schools where very little has been done to eliminate chilly draughts and dangerous overheating from worn-out stoves and furnaces that appear to have been in the school buildings for some decades. It is also a little difficult for the teacher and the public health nurse to instruct the pupil in the value of using soap and water when none is available in the school building. In some schools the lack of sanitation in the toilet compartments would shock the parents whose children must, of necessity, make use of such facilities during the day.

HEALTH EDUCATION

During October members of the staff of the Health Unit made addresses to 10 different organizations in the area, and attended 14 other meetings as representatives of the public health department. In addition, the Supervisor of Public Health Nursing, Miss Verna Smyth, has arranged, and is in the process of carrying out, a course of instruction in Civil Defence Nursing for over 50 nurses from the northern part of the county. This valuable contribution to the local civil defence program can also be of great importance in times of local community disaster, such as large fires or train wrecks which could result in injury to many people in the community, and could present a sudden emergency situation. Miss Smyth's efforts, supported by those of the Toronto and York Civil Defence program, deserve a lot of praise.

Electors of Vaughan Township

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks in according me an acclamation to serve as your Deputy Reeve for 1953. I will endeavour to merit your appreciated confidence.

Vaughan Township Electors

KING CITY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. M. JOHNSTON, KING, ONT.

Phone King 55R14

W.A.

When the W.A. of All Saints' Anglican church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Hills on Thursday afternoon, November 20, Mrs. Raymond Burt, president, gave a report of the Diocesan meeting which she attended earlier in the month at St. Timothy's Church, Toronto. She reported that of local interest was the decision to send a letter of condolence to the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in the recent death of Miss Bessie MacMurchy, as an expression of sympathy and high regard, from the Diocesan Board. Plans for the Christmas Fair, which is to be held on December 5, were completed. Tea was served at the close of the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whalley were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Allan Olmstead, Toronto on Saturday evening, November 22, upon the occasion of their 10th wedding anniversary.

Honour Frank Gambrell

Frank Gambrell was the most surprised man in the world when over 50 of the people whom he had served for 34 years as mail carrier on R. R. 3 King, and his post office associates, gathered in the Masonic Hall, on Wednesday evening, to honour him. Twelve tables of euchre were filled and it was not until the games were over, and the tables cleared for refreshments, that Mr. Gambrell realized that this was his own party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gambrell were addressed by E. S. Reddick, who told them that he had never before had such pleasure in organizing any event for he had been astounded at the wonderful response given to him and his committee, when they decided that the time had come to show Mr. Gambrell how much they appreciated his faithful service. His committee included someone from every 1 1/4 miles on the rural route and were Mrs. W. McDonald, Aubrey Wade, Jim Ball, Douglas Wellesley, Charles Casey, Allan Connor, Leonard Hall, Harry Mills, John Banks, Jack Adams, Charles Williams, Ewart Jennings, Jim Gillham, Wilbert Jennings and Fred Hare. This committee had received donations from Mr. Gambrell's friends, and with the money had purchased a very comfortable armchair and footstool for the ex-mail carrier, a beautiful floor lamp for his wife, and a substantial sum of money for a holiday they are planning for next year.

When the presentation was made Ewart Jennings read an address which referred to the high respect of everyone in the community which Mr. Gambrell had earned, as had his courageous wife, for it was remembered that on many occasions she had helped him to deliver the mail, over roads that were unfit for travel. Obviously surprised and overcome, Mr. and Mrs. Gambrell responded cheerfully and everyone joined in singing "For they are Jolly Good Fellows". When Mr. Gambrell took over rural route 3, he had 98 boxes to serve. When he retired this autumn there were 175 boxes on the same route.

Teston W.A.

At one meeting each year, the W.A. of Teston United Church devotes the program to the progress of the missions of the United Church. On Wednesday, November 26, Mrs. H. Ratcliff, King City speaker, and she chose to tell of the work that is being carried on in Angola, East Africa, amongst the Bantu race of negroes. The Bantus are recognized as the leader race in Africa and are great travellers, and are ready to listen to new ideas. It is the desire of the missionaries to teach these people how to better their existence, spiritually and physically, and although the teaching of the Gospel is their main intent, much instruction is being given in better methods of agriculture, dietetics, sanitation, child care, etc. An appropriate solo was sung by Mrs. Charles Robson and Mrs. E. Kyle presided over the meeting. A delicious tea was served at small tables at the close of the meeting.

Kingcrafts
Mrs. Norman Brown, Richmond Hill, gave a very interesting address to the members of Kingcrafts, when they held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, November 26, at Drynoch Farms, the home of the second vice-president, Mrs. Geoffrey Beatty. Mrs. Brown, who modestly calls herself an amateur naturalist is a librarian and cataloguer in the mineralogical and geological department of the Ontario Museum. She carves realistic birds from blocks of balsa wood. She makes smart brooches from fungus taken from trees, buttons from bits of willow and apple wood, and earrings from acorns. She illustrated how interesting Christmas gifts of fancy pin trays can be made by the littlest child if they mold a dried orange peel on a tin lid from a jam jar, and after it has dried like leather, a decoration can be painted on the white part of the fruit. Before the meeting a Christmas sale between the members took place, when nylon bags, place mats, smocked blouses and dresses, and leather articles were sold. The leather group served the tea which brought a very interesting meeting to a close.

"Happy Journey"
June Scott has been congratulated for her portrayal of Caroline, the 15-year-old sister, in Thornton Wilder's play "The Happy Journey," that was presented at Aurora High School, under Miss Lois Spooner's direction, on Friday evening, Stephen Jarvis, as the 13-year-old Arthur, and Norma Wells as the married daughter, were the other players from the village.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Rumble were married in King City, 40 years ago, on November 27, 1912. On Friday evening of last week, they celebrated their "Ruby wedding" by inviting 50 of their friends and relatives to their home to enjoy an evening of euchre, games and dancing, to mark their anniversary. Besides their daughter, Miss Mabel, and their son, Austin, and their three young grandsons, Ross, Paul and Bruce Rumble, friends came from Toronto, Newmarket, Elgin Mills, Maple and Lansing to make this a very happy occasion. Before her marriage, Mrs. Rumble was Mrs. Ethel Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, descendants of one of the earliest families to settle in the southern part of King township.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Love and little son, Paul, have decided that life is more enjoyable in King Township than in the city. After living in Toronto, they have returned to live with Mrs. Love's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell, 5th con. of King, until Spring when they will build their new home on the Campbell farm.

Kinghorn School

The children of Kinghorn School have raised $100 towards buying equipment for their playground. They are hoping to buy a large 3 unit swing and to have it in the playground by spring. To earn this large sum the boys and girls have been selling Christmas cards and they have turned the profit back into the playground fund. Last year the school children sold poppies of remembrance and because they sold more than any other school in the district, they won a prize of $10. This also went into the playground fund. Now, the school board, their parents and teacher, Miss Evelyn Courtney, have decided to help the boys and girls raise the remainder of the sum required. On the evening of Friday, December 12, a bingo and euchre will be held in the school to which every one in the community will be invited. The parents are selling tickets on a Christmas turkey and two chickens which will be given away on that night.

Student Teachers

Misses Janet Pearson and Margaret Coltera, Toronto, were student teachers from the Normal School, who spent last week at Kinghorn School. Both young ladies are University graduates with their Bachelor of Arts degree. This year 14 student teachers will practise teaching at Kinghorn School with Miss Evelyn Courtney.

Eversley W. A.

The W.A. of Eversley Presbyterian Church raised the sum of $191.54 at the first bazaar of the pre-Christmas season, which was held in the United Church rooms on Friday afternoon, November 28. Besides a fine baked goods counter, and a very busy fancy goods sale, the tea room was very popular. Under the direction of Miss Lily Anderson, the ladies served a delicious salad with whipped cream, cheese bread and cookies.

Household Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cain were remembered by their many friends who held a household shower for them on Wednesday evening, November 26, in the auditorium of Sacred Heart School. Reeve Elton Armstrong, councillors Ray Jennings and William Hodgson, Rev. Father A. G. Quennelle, and old school friends, were present, making 150 persons in all, who came to encourage this young couple who lost their home and all their possessions in a fire one Sunday, a few weeks ago. The stage was filled with numerous parcels which included a pair of goose down pillows, several blankets, quilts, bed linens, towels, children's clothing and many household supplies, even including a box of toys for the three little girls of the family. Envelopes containing gifts of money were presented by well wishers, and the sum totaled $150. As soon as the shower was over, the table was cleared for refreshments, and tea was poured by Mrs. Henry Gillham who was the hostess for this very pleasant occasion, and Mrs. Laura E. Rolling. Two beautiful cakes were gifts of Canada Bread and Weston's Ltd. After singing "For they are jolly good fellows" in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Cain, the company enjoyed several dances at the completion of a well spent evening.

Cancer Society

Miss Kay Clark has been invited by the Cancer Society to form a group in King City to further interest in the work of the society in the early diagnosis and treatment of cancer. On Thursday afternoon Miss Clark, accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Kelley, Miss Lily Anderson and Mrs. T. L. Williams, attended a meeting of the Cancer Society in Aurora, and helped with the making of simple cancer dressings.

Trustee Elect, Stan Tinker

December 1, 1952

Dear Friends:

Somehow, I do not feel that the customary formal "thank you" would properly convey my acknowledgement of your wonderful support at the polls yesterday.

When almost 65% of the electors who voted east a ballot on my behalf, as against 40% last year, may I be forgiven if I assume it an indication of personal approval of my efforts this past year.

In all humility I accept the responsibility of the office of Councillor for Richmond Hill in 1953 and pledge my support to the other members of Council in all matters which are in the best interests of our community.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL

Sincerely,
Jack Rice
