Social News

Mrs. Herbert Black of Irma, Alberta, sister of Jack Barry, has returned to her home after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Barry of Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lawrence, Toronto, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Matkin on Sunday. Sheila's grandparents were sorry to hear that most of her personal trousseau was stolen by one of the meanest thieves of the year, when the bride and groom left their car for a short visit at the home of Mr. Lawrence's parents. Police were notified and the loss was set at over $100, but as Mrs. Lawrence said, the many lovely gifts taken could never be replaced.

The teachers and pupils of Jefferson School were proud and happy to win the Richmond Hill Legion trophy for 1952. Jefferson secured the largest amount of money for "Poppy Day" among the two-roomed schools in the Richmond Hill Legion's district, when the children collected approximately $23 in poppy sales.

If won three consecutive years, by the same school, the silver cup inscribed "Legion Auxiliary Poppy Fund Trophy", then becomes the property of that school.

Wins Radio
 Mrs. Irene Anderson, Brookside Road, won the mantle radio at the J.S.C.C. square dance on Friday night last.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Gibson had donated this lovely prize and it was fitting that Mrs. Gibson was able to attend the community evening last week and make the draw.

Mrs. George Neill won the door prize and all those attending had a wonderful evening. We hear Carson and Margaret Whalen are splendid callers and the attendance is building up at each dance.

December 12 will be the Christmas dance and the wind up for the 1952 season. January 1953 will usher in the new season for the Community Club and we expect big things then too.

Mrs. J. A. Copeland, secretary, would like to have any suggestions you may have for the Christmas party, as soon as possible.

Prize Winners at C.N.E.

Crusty the Fourth, Hereford bull owned by A. Gibson of Summit Farms, took fourth prize at the Royal Winter Fair. An Elation cow, also entered by Summit Farms, was the Best of the Ontario cows and took third prize when two western cows won first and second prizes for best cows in the show.

Your correspondent has progressed to the "semi-mobile" stage and is now able to be up and around a little more each day. We cannot stress too strongly how much we appreciate the "neighbourliness" this community has showered upon us, in innumerable helpful ways during our enforced invalidism.

Your correspondent feels we have our own U. N. (United Neighbours) in this district.

Birthday Greetings
 Patricia Anne Baker will have one candle on her birthday cake Sunday, December 7, when she celebrates her first birthday. Many happy returns of the day, Patricia. Mrs. Harvey Baker's father, Thomas Fox, is recovering nicely from his recent operation at the Mount Sinai hospital, Toronto.

HEADFORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT Mrs. H. Acreman
 R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
 Phone Turner 4-2236

(Held from last week)
 Recently Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wellman left by car to drive to Regina, to visit Mrs. Wellman's family there. Mrs. Wellman had suffered a stroke recently, but is now home from hospital and doing as well as could be expected.

About sixty friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wellman recently to do honour to Melvin and his wife, the former Elsa Marshall. Although the welcome was rather belated, it was none the less sincere, as was evidenced by the gift of a handsome table model radio, of the type with an electric clock, and a lovely white chenille bedspread. The presentation speech was read by Elmer Leek and the Melvin and his wife thanked everyone suitably, and the evening came to a close with a sumptuous lunch which included ice-cream.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, with Charles and Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Barker, had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman. Also visiting the Isaac Reamans, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olsen of Arcoia, Saskatchewan. Mr. Olsen had been showing Hereford cattle at the Winter Fair and left on the night train with Mrs. Olsen for their home in the West.

The recent heavy rains, though causing a little inconvenience, have really been beneficial in many ways. Plowing, which had formerly been difficult, has softened up for those belated folk who are not finished, and wells are reported filling up. There had previously been reports of residents in the surrounding areas having to "buy" water, but it is hoped that is over for the time being.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wellman, Melvin and his wife, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Chamberlain of Huttonville on Sunday last.

Presentation
 As a token of appreciation of his very many years of faithful service as secretary of the official board of the three churches comprising the Victoria Square charge, Mr. Herb Smith was presented with a beautiful copy of the new Revised Version of the Bible, suitably inscribed. It is a gift to be highly prized.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Coultter on the birth of a daughter.

Horticultural Achievements
 Headford is justifiably proud of the horticultural achievements of some of its folk. At the annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society the T. Eaton trophy was presented to Mrs. Geo. Barker, who, with Mrs. Doug Boyd had high points for the year. Prizes at the euchre which followed the election of officers also came to Headford, Mrs. Wes Clark having top score; and the booby prizes going to Mrs. Walter Leuschner and Donald Brodie.

Home on Leave
 Headford extends a warm welcome home to Tom Donleavy, who has successfully passed his exams at Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, where he has been receiving basic naval training. He is now home on 32 days leave and is looking exceptionally well. Tom says there are just two classes of fellows — those in the Navy, and those who wish they were. When his leave is up, he will be stationed at Victoria, B.C.

It was decided at Sunday School to follow the established custom of making candy for the Christmas treats for the Sunday School pupils. Headford United Church Christmas tree and concert will be held on Friday, December 12.

White Gift service will be held Sunday, December 14.

The W. A. of Headford will meet on Tuesday evening next at the home of Mrs. Norman Brodie. A particularly interesting program is planned.

Home and School
 Headford Home and School Association held its Family Night on Friday of last week. A very enjoyable sing-song of carols was held, together with moving pictures which were both instructive and entertaining. A quite successful sale of home baking and home-made candy was held, with Jim Curtis acting as auctioneer for the latter part of the sale. Tea and cookies were served by the hostesses of the evening.
