A mixup in addresses and messages to Easton made fine auctioneers and Mrs. Hill caused the long delay. The lamp is a very beautiful one bundle of gourds had fallen to and the Davies dry goods store is to be commended on their persistence in trying to locate Mrs. Hill, Silver Tea

The silver tea convened by Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. David Millen and K. Farquharson which was to have been held on December 3, been postponed until Decembr 10. Wdnesday, at the Ridge Inn from 2 to 5 p.m. Proceeds will be in aid of the Lions Club Christmas baskets and other Lions activities in this district. There will be a home cooking sale, an apron table, a white elephant table and a social hour around the tea table. Wives of past and present Lions Club presidents will pour. Lions wives are hard at work to make this event a success. Donations from all the ladies of the community for the different tables will be gratafully received. They may be left with Mrs. Hawman or Mrs. McCachen or any Lion's wife. We are looking forward to seeing you at the Ridge Inn on Wednesday, December 10.

Attend Course attended a three day course at mers. Camp Samac, Oshawa, starting November 22 for Bronze Arrowhead training. Lawrence Comfort is the only member of the Oak Ridges Troop who holds the bronze arrowhead badge.

High School Commencement The names of several Oak Ridges students at Aurora District High School appear in the commencement program of last Friday night. We can claim some interest in the valedictorian and winner of the John Stuart prize for the student with highest standing in grade 13, Miss Marion Monkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Monkman, who lived for the years she attended public school, at S. S. No. 6, on the 2nd concession of Whitchurch and the corner of the CFRB sideroad. Congratulations Marion and best wishes for your success in your chosen career of nursing. Velvena Bennett who also resided for some time in this district and attended Steckley who celebrated her Oak Ridges public school, led birthday on Monday, also to Mrs. grade 12B; Glen Wright, runner- L. Sproule who celebrated on up in Juvenile boys' track and field class, lives with his parents at Oak Ridges; Gail Woolnough and Catherine Gunn received their intermediate certificates. A number of our young people appeared Jones on the stage with the glee clubs and girls' ensemble. Bill McCachen gave a splendid performance as Pa Kirby in the play which followed the awards and speeches. Among the Oak Ridges people noticed in the well filled auditorium were Mr. and Mrs. McCachen, Mr. and Mrs. Geary, Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. C. L. Stephenson and Miss Anne and Mrs. S. Wells, whose daughter Helen was among the honor graduates were also present. Unfortunately Helen is teaching so far North that she was not able to attend the commencement. School Board Mr. A. E. Patchell, school board member at S. S. 13 Lake Wilcox, for the past three years has announced that he will not stand for re-election. Mrs. E. Davidson, Mr. Ernie Seal, Mr. E. Acheson, $16.05 Mrs. A. Patchell and Mrs. Richard Ward have announced that they $21.35 | will be candidates for the school board. The annual meeting at which the report for the year will $21.70 be read and a new member elected will be held on Wednesday, December 10, at the Lake Wilcox

> School at 8 p.m. Christmas Party The Scout Group committee and the Mothers' Auxiliary of Scouts Cubs. Guides and Brownies is sponsoring a Christmas party for the four organizations on December 6 at the St. John's Parish Hall. One hundred and fifteen children of the district are enrolled in these groups. The party will be held in | the evening from 7.30 till 9.30 p.

Dr. Rose III Dr. Crawford Rose, popular physician in the district is a patient in the East General Hospital, Toronto. His appendix was removed last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Rose reports that he is doing well and will be home the end of the week. His son Dr. Clayton Rose is interning in the East General and his daughter Mary is a student nurse there, so he is being well looked after.

Farmers' Night The Oak Ridges Lions held their annual farmers' night on November 24. Each Lion brought a farmer friend as his guest for dinner. Twenty-four Lions and 30 farmer guests enjoyed the dinner and evening of good fellowship. The speaker was Mr. J. A. Carroll, deputy-minister of Agriculture of the Province of Ontario. He spoke of the development of agriculture through the application of scientific principles in this century. Yield per acre has increased by 15% to 40% on the various crops, by the application of knowledge gained in government research. A live turkey which was auctioned several times amid a great deal of merriment brought in a tidy sum for club activities. Presentation

The Lake Wilcox Community Association has presented $25.00 to Mr and Mrs. Pat Demers who lost all their possessions in an early morning fire on Sunday. Donations are being left at Davison's store to aid in re-establishing the Served Hot Coffee

Mr. R. Merrin of Moray Avenue, a summer resident of long standing, who spent the week-end here, and was at the fire on Sunday morning, invited all the firemen who were fighting the fire in a Scoutmaster Sid Sheldrake of temperature of 22 degrees, to his the Oak Ridges troop, with three home for hot coffee. He also gave patrol leaders, John Appleton, Mrs. Davidson the first donation John Gallagher, and Gordon Nash, to the fund for Mr. and Mrs. De-
