Sunday School Christmas Parties

These wonderful events were held on Tuesday last. In the afternoon about 150 beginners, nursery children and their parents were present for their party, which consisted of recitations and songs by the various classes and two Christmas films - "The Littlest Angel and the 1952 Santa Claus Parade Following this the much lookedforward to visit from Eaton's own Santa Claus came, and the presentation of a gift to each child and Santa gave them each his Punkinhead book for the extra surprise. In the evening, the programme for the balance of the Sunday School was held, the Church Hall being so filled that for many parents and children it was standing room only. A splendid programme consisting of plays, tableaus, tumbling, recitations and songs showed the variety of talent of the children. Rev. E. E. Kent was chairman, R. Whatley, superintendent spoke a word of welcome to al and the entire programme arranged by the teachers and under the direction of Mrs. R. H. Craig showed a great deal of planning and practice on the part of all concerned. Santa Claus made anoth er appearance and presented each child with either a Church hymn

Junior Choir Party

Mrs. W. Heath, organist and choir leader, assisted by Miss Ruth Le-Lasheur entertained the members of the Junior and Intermediate choirs at a Christmas party. Miss LeLasheur dressed two dolls in choir robes and those mounted or pedestals together with the gail decorated table produced a very gay atmosphere. Following the refreshments everyone retired to the Church where they sang a group of numbers which were recorded on a tape machine and then played back for their enjoyment. Miss Clubine again donated oranges for good work of the choirs.
