-HOLMES A beau ul Christmas wedding took place in St. Mary's Anglican Church, December 22, when Elizabeth Rosemary Holmes, daughter of Major and Mrs. H. Cuthbert Holmes of Victoria, B.C., was wed to Lieutenant (S) Edward Cureton, Bonn - in memory of a dear R.C.N. (R), son of the late Mr. wife and mother, Lillian Burr, Joshua Cureton and Mrs. Cureton who passed away December 26, of Aigburth, Liverpool, England. The Reverend Richard Newsham officiated at the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs.

Charles Harding. The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore an heirloom, Empire styled gown, worn by her maternal grandmother. The gown was of rose brocaded ivory satin with a fitted bodice accented by a fichu neckline of Brussels lace and leg of mutton sleeves fitted at the wrists. The simple straight-falling skirt was gathered at the back and fell in a train, the whole of which was outlined with KEFFER — We wish to extend our gathered taffeta. The bridesmaid, Miss Joyce Glearihue of Victoria, B.C., wore a gown of emerald green velveteen fitted to the waist and with short full sleeves. The sweetheart neckline was accented with three strands of pearls. The flower girl, Miss Janet Thomson, niece of the bride wore a floor-length dress of coral velveteen with full skirt in the same style as that of the bridesmaid. Both attendants wore small crescent-shaped hats to match their gowns and they carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and narcissi circled with

The groomsman was Lieutenant George Hinton and the ushers were G. Thomson of Toronto and Martin Holmes of South Porcupine.

The bride was led up the aisle by five choir boys from St. Paul's Cathedral in Toronto singing Praise My Soul."

During the signing of the register th echoir boys sang "God be in

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn Thomson, Vaughan Road, Richmond Hill which was decorated in a festive manner. The huge stone fireplace, which served as a backdrop for the receiving line, was decorated with narcissi, 'mums and holly continuing the motif of the bride's bouquet. A white Christmas tree and other decorations of pine and holly completed the Christmas festive touch. The bride's mother received in a gown of black Maltese lace over copper taffeta and wore a black velvet hat rimmed with pearls. For travelling, the bride wore a very full emerald green corduroy dress with a red fox elbow-length coat. Red accessories accented the bride's pale eggshell hat and gloves. She chose a corsage of yellow roses and narcissi. After a wedding trip, the happy couple
