New Year's Frolic Held Edgeley Hall During Holiday Season

One of the most successful and brilliant events in many a year was the New Year Frolic in Edgeley Community Hall on Monday evening, December 29. To the hall came over 180 persons, the ladies resplendent in beautiful dresses and evening gowns which lent an even more festive air to the occasion.

There was dancing at its best to the music of Sally Lloyd and her Musical Mates. Those who did not care to dance participated in a lively autograph hunt and other contests under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Keffer. Master of ceremonies James Spencer and Percy Usher and Charlie Ash. floor managers, did a marvellous job of calling the square dances.

Local and neighboring merchants and individuals were most generous with their donations of merchandise and these were used as prizes and distributed in various ways throughout the evening.

As follows: Lady's door prize, box of fruit donated by Miss Ella Whitmore went to Mrs. Wright of Toronto. Paul Snider received the man's door prize, a silk tie, donated by Peter McLean, Woodbridge. Winners of the five lucky spot dances were: first Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lund, plastic tray donated by McDougall's, Woodbridge and a ball of clover honey given by Mrs. R. Stuart. Second, Miss Doreen Wright and Earl Law, a china cup and saucer and a silk tie donated by Clarence Graham and Stan Phillips, respectively.

Third Miss Lillian Boves and Jas. Oliver. Fourth, Miss Irene Myers and Jas. Boyle and Fifth, Miss Glenda Clapham and Murray Brown. All received apples, the gift of Mr. Richard McLeary.

A box of chocolates donated by Henderson's Drug Store, was given to Mrs. Louis Eberschlag of Downsview as a birthday gift. Mrs. Eberschlag's birthday is January 5. Joe Keffer's birthday was December 27, and he received fruit cake donated by Mrs. Wild.

Mrs. Charles Agnew, president of the Edgeley W.A., presented a bouquet of flowers to Mr. and Mrs. Langley Ambrose of Maplecrest Farms on the occasion of their coming wedding anniversary January 3.

Miss Lillian Boves, winner of the ribbon contest, Alf Bag, winner of the autograph hunt and Roy Snider, the guessing contest winner, each received some of Mr. McLeary's fine apples.

Mrs. R. Stuart, convener, on behalf of the Edgeley Women's Institute, wishes to thank all these kind people for their many generous gifts.

Elect New Trustee

Jas. Bagg was elected trustee at the Ratepayers' meeting at Edgeley school on December 31, replacing Albert Mitchell, retiring trustee. The other trustees are Eldon Fierheller and Chas. Agnew.

FORAGE HARVESTER
for fast, clean, uniform chopping

That's what thousands of Gehl owners say... and this better chopping ability is inherited from Gehl Hay-Cutter Silo Fillers, famous for more than 50 years. The Gehl saves men, toil and sweat. With Hay Pickup Attachment, it sweeps up dry hay, straw, or grass for silage from the windrow, chops and blows it into wagon at 1 1/2 to 3 acres per hour. Available with own motor or power take-off.

QUICK CHANGE-OVER FOR 3-WAY HARVESTING

In a few minutes you can attach the Hay Pickup, the new Mower Bar for low or tall growing grass silage crops, sown broadcast, or the Row-Crop Attachment for Corn, Cane, etc.

GEHL TILT-UP BLOWER elevates to highest silo or mow... blows hay horizontally as much as 100 feet. You can own a Gehl Self-Unloading Wagon Box, build your own, using Gehl Parts Kit and Free Plans, or get Gehl Parts Kit and Free Plans for making your present box self-unloading.
