UNIONVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. LEN RAINY, UNIONVILLE

Chicken-pox is still in the district. Misses Susan Macklem and Heed, of Unionville, are suffering from the disease this week.

We are pleased to see Dr. A. C. Kennedy home following an operation in Peterborough Hospital recently.

Central United
There were 112 present at Central United Sunday School last Sunday. Mr. Ingram who is now teaching one of the boys classes, was welcomed. At the church service the sermon given by Rev. Butt the children was "Lessons from the Snow" and his other sermon was "God's Covenant in the Rainbow." This was the Sunday for the Junior Choir. Their anthem was enjoyed by all.

Florida Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley left this week for a visit to Florida.

We understand the Arnold apartments have been rented to two doctors who expect to start a practice here in the near future.

World's Day of Prayer
The World Day of Prayer will be held at St. Philip's church, Unionville, on February 20.

W. A.
The regular monthly meeting of the Central United church W. A., Unionville, was held in the school room of the church on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., January 29, with a large number of members present. Rev. W. S. Butt took for his topic "Kingdom of God," from the "Sermon on the Mount". After his inspiring talk, he conducted the installation of the new officers. The regular business was conducted by the new president, Mrs. G. Ogden, and the new secretary, Mrs. Purves. Mrs. A. E. Milner thanked the ladies for their help and co-operation during the last twelve years she was president and the gift they presented her with at a party given by Mrs. Pollard at her home in honour of Mrs. S. Weatherill who has left Unionville to live in Montreal. Mrs. Weatherill was presented with a lovely gift also. Mrs. E. Casley gave a humorous reading entitled "Grandma and the Sea Gull." Hostesses were Mrs. A. Dyke and Mrs. Ben. Gayman, who served a dainty lunch at the close of the meeting.

Women's Institute
A large number of members and several guests attended the February meeting of the Unionville Women's Institute, held at the home of Mrs. Harry Boadway last Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Russell Brown opened the meeting. After the minutes of the previous meeting were read, business items were discussed. It was in the month of February that Women's Institutes were founded and also our own branch. A thank you letter from Eversley, England Institute was read. We were also reminded that the Associated Countrywomen of the World will meet in Toronto in August. One thousand delegates from all over the world are expected to attend.

Two blankets donated by the Women's Institute and several pairs of children's socks knit by Mrs. J. Cochran will be taken to Tamblin's, Toronto, to be sent overseas for the flood victims.

The guest speaker was Miss Blodwin Davies of Cedar Grove, who spoke on Folk Lore. She stressed the fact that the people of Ontario should be more conscious of folk lore as we are far behind Quebec. The work of the hands of early pioneers was artistic as well as practical.

The blacksmith who, it is said to say, is disappearing, was always given a free acre of land by the farmers to establish his shop and was considered as essential as farming. She also read from some books, kept by operators of early feed mills and showed how bills were seldom paid in cash.

The members brought to the meeting many articles with a historical background, which made a very interesting display.

Mrs. Milne brought a baby bonnet over 140 years old, which was worn by her children; Mrs. Cochran showed a pair of children's stockings knit 100 years ago, also worn by her children and still in good condition; Mrs. Russell-Brown displayed a very artistic sampler made in 1788; Mrs. Brookfield had a shawl 145 years old and Mrs. Frisby a valentine of 100 years ago; Mrs. Milner showed a pitcher which has been in her family for five generations. A cup and saucer from Queen Victoria's childhood dishes was exhibited by a visitor; Mrs. Ruth Boadway added to the display a silver spoon brought from England in 1834 and shinin glike new.

These historical research meetings are considered the highlights of the year's program. This meeting was arranged by Mrs. Russell-Brown who is the Historical Research convenor and who is compiling the Tweedsmuir History for the Unionville Institute.

Mrs. Ruth Boadway read a paper advising us to use our good things instead of saving them to be divided among those who would not appreciate them.

Mrs. L. Boadway had the misfortune to fall and hurt her knee. Milton and Bruce Findlay and Miss Velma Findlay visited with Velma's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Findlay of New Toronto on Sunday.

The Trustees of Central United Church met at the home of Harvey Coathup on Tuesday evening, when many items of business were discussed.

Mrs. W. S. Butt and Mrs. Robert Thompson were the delegates from the W.M.S. to the Toronto East Presbyterian church, which was held in Hope United Church, corner of Danforth and Main Streets, Toronto on February 3.

Sympathy Extended
The sympathy of Unionville and district is extended to Mrs. Robert Stiver of Unionville and Milford McDowell of Aurora on the death of their mother, Mrs. Burridge. For many years, Mrs. Burridge lived on the 3rd of Markham.

Following the death of her husband she stayed with her daughter, Mrs. Stiver, and for some time before her death she had been confined to bed at the home of her son, Milford at Aurora. The funeral was held from the Thompson funeral parlors on Saturday to the Thornhill Cemetery.

Mr. Milford McDowell of Aurora is ill. Mr. and Mrs. McDowell were former residents of Unionville.

Earl Sellars attended the directors' meeting of the Ontario Red Poll Breeders' Association held at the Royal York Hotel last Wednesday.

A. Jarvis has been ill in Sunnybrook Hospital. We are pleased to see him home again.

Mrs. W. Sellars has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker of Highland Park were visitors at the Unionville Hotel on Tuesday evening.

Last Tuesday night on the slippery roads a truck, driven by Douglas Deaver, 25, of Toronto, was hit by a slow moving freight train at the Milliken crossing. The driver escaped injury but the back wheels and box of the dump truck were knocked off.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Middleton visited on Tuesday at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middleton, Brougham.

Miss Florence Kieley of Toronto and Mrs. W. Bailey of Langstaff were guests of Mrs. L. Rainey on Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Blackburn of Wexford and Mrs. Blackburn of Langstaff spent Monday with Mrs. Clark Young.

Celebrate 55th Anniversary
Mrs. Payne, 208 Simpson Ave., Toronto, held a family dinner on Saturday, January 31, for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holdsworth, Unionville, who celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary at their home in Unionville last week.

It is 40 years ago since Mr. and Mrs. Holdsworth came to Canada from Yorkshire, England. Their daughter, Winnifred, Mrs. Francis Payne and their son Ernest Holdsworth, both live in Toronto, and their son Herbert Holdsworth and family live next door in Unionville. They have four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. They are both very active. Mr. Holdsworth is an active member of the Unionville Veterans' Association.
