EDGELEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. Raymond Stuart, R. R. 1, Maple
Telephone Maple 110R3

Edgeley United Church, Sunday, February 15, 1953, Sunday School 1.30 p.m. Church service 2.30 p.m.
All enjoyed the sacred solo rendered by Mrs. W. Kerr-Taylor on Sunday afternoon in Edgeley United Church. Her accompaniment was played by Mrs. Alfred Bagg.
W. I. Meeting

A very interesting meeting of Edgeley Women's Institute was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Summerfelt, Woodbridge. A splendid attendance of members and quite a number of visitors were present. The president, Mrs. Chas. Agnew, presided and Mrs. F. J. Herrer, convener of Citizenship and Education was in charge of the programme.

Answers to the roll call "Name your favorite Canadian poem" showed that the members had a preference for the poems of Edna Jacques.

An invitation has been accepted by the Branch to be the guests of Thornhill W. I. on Thursday afternoon, February 19.

Mrs. Agnew announced that a conference for the convenors of Resolutions and Home Economics and Health will be held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, during the first week in May.
Mrs. Agnew also described the rug competition for Women's Institute members sponsored by the Salada Tea Co. As these rugs must be completed for display at the District annual meeting in May, the members felt that it did not give them sufficient time to plan therefore decided not to enter the competition.

Mrs. Ed. Phillips, Historical Research convener reported on the progress her committee has made in compiling the village history book. The research committee has considerable material on hand at the present time and more is promised which should all add up to a very interesting Tweedsmuir book.

Mrs. C. Boake continued the regular monthly feature study of A. C. W. W. countries by reading a chapter on Norway from the book "Abroad with Me" by Dorothy E. Fitcher, Past President, F. W. I. O.

In a most interesting talk entitled "Think of it as a House", Mrs. Fierheller reminded her listeners that not so long ago people's chief interest seemed to lie only in their own or surrounding communities, but now that machines and wings have conquered space, the past 15 years has seen the world suddenly become smaller. Today, with the influence of the Women's Institute now world wide, its members like to think of their world organization as a house in which member countries are all gathered together as one family.

Mrs. Fierheller read two poems and then brought her programme to a close with a talk on the value of faith and freedom.

The Branch was honored by the yearly visit of the District secretary, Mrs. Edmund Harris, who expressed regret that Mrs. Roy Arlow, the District vice-president was unable to be present. Mrs. Harris spoke briefly and complimented the Branch on the work being done and on the fact that it has completed its share of financing the coming A. C. W. W. conference.
Mrs. Harris announced that West York District Women's Institutes have been allotted 64 tickets for the conference. These will be distributed to the Branches according to their membership and should

The members of the Edgeley Farmers' Club are holding their 33rd annual oyster supper in the Community Hall on Friday, Feb.
13. After supper the Farm Forum will present two plays.

Farmers' Club Annual Meeting At the annual meeting of Edgeley Farmers' Club held in January, George Snider became president; Roy Keffer, vice-president and R.
J. Darlington, secretary. Laurence Keffer is the past president.

The members decided to make various changes in their business policy this year. The Club is now divided into various departments with Mrs. Campbell Snider as the book-keeper. George Snider and Paul Snider are in charge of the feed, fertilizer, twine, hardware & fencing division, while Laurence Keffer, J. A. Mitchell, Allan Bagg and Roy Keffer manage the coal and machinery business of the club.

Meetings are held the first Thursday of every month at 8 o'- clock in the Community Hall.
On Friday, February 27, the club is sponsoring a movie on ploughing. All farmers in the district are invited to this showing in the Community Hall at 8 p.m.

"The Farmer and the Public" was the topic for discussion on Monday evening, February 2, when the Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Keffer.

To the question "Do you think there is good understanding between the farmers and the people of your neighboring towns and villages?" the three discussion groups were of the opinion that the people in the smaller villages, especially the older people, have a good understanding of the problems of the farmer. But the larger towns are being built up with younger people moving out from the city and experience has shown that their understanding of the farmer is very limited, indeed.

One method they thought that might improve understanding in the area between farmers and townspeople was a public relations committee to work with existing rural and urban organizations and also an exchange of speakers for both farm and town organizations.

Farm women should become active members of the Canadian Association of Consumers was another opinion of the groups.

On Monday evening, February 16, the Forum will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ke-ffer. The topic for discussion then will be "What will the St. Lawrence Seaway mean to us?"

The school children held their annual sleighing party on Wednesday night, February 4. Jim Ash hitched his tractor to the sleigh and everyone spent a happy hour or so sleighing on the concessions and Sherwood sideroad.
Then all returned to the school and enjoyed sandwiches and cocoa served by Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Young.

CARRVILLE

Corr.: Mrs. Bert Middleton
Telephone Maple 130R3

The Carrville United Church Woman's Association held its February meeting at the home of Mrs.
Stanley Wood. There were 17 ladies present. Mrs. Read, the president was in charge of the meeting. Following the opening exercises Mrs. George read the scripture and explanation, the theme being prayer.

Miss Mary Read read a most interesting article on "Give Me Tomorrow" and a very appropriate poem "Unto Him who loved me and gave Himself for me." The W. A. is invited to a luncheon at the Richmond Hill United Church on February 11.

Mrs. Read, Mrs. George, Mrs.
Pitts and Miss Mary Read attended the convention a week ago at St. Clair United Church. Mrs.
Read was very pleased to report that while Carrville has only 20 members on the roll, the financial report was higher on the amount raised last year than some who have a larger membership.

The next project of the W. A., since they have paid their share to building fund, will be to help plan equipment for the new hall.
The ways and means committee had baked a valentine cake and Mrs. Lynny received the cake in a lucky draw. Lunch was a Valentine tea, those assisting Mrs.
Wood, the hostess were Mrs. Wynn, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs.
Read, Mrs. Middleton, Miss Sheppard.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Barton with Mrs. DelBrocco and Mrs. Oliver taking the devotional part of the meeting and several ladies will as-ist with the lunch as it is to be a St. Patrick's tea and will be an afternoon meeting.

Mrs. L. Morris and Mrs. B. Middleton attended the York-Simcoe Home and School Council Founder's Meeting at Charles Howitt School on Thursday and enjoyed the meeting very much. The guest speaker, Donald Graham, Director of Education for Forest Hill Village was most interesting and helpful and gave many useful suggestions for Audience Participation at a Home and School meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker visited with Mrs. H. Ness at Milton Mc-Dowell's at Aurora and attended Mrs. Burridge's funeral. Mrs.
Burridge was a sister of Rev. A. C.
Lunau, a former minister at Carrville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Middleton and family had dinner Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver in Richmond Hill.
