Supplying the Defenders of FREEDOM

One of the biggest jobs in the Army — and, in fact, in Canada — falls to the ROYAL CANADIAN ORDNANCE CORPS. This Corps has the huge job of obtaining and distributing everything the Army requires from shoe laces to tanks — over 220,000 different items.

As the Canadian Army grows, the job of Ordnance grows. Right now more men are needed — men who can qualify as storemen, clerks, tailors, shoemakers and canvas workers. The Army will train men in any one of the many different trades and skills required by Ordnance. Once trained, the young man who serves in this Corps will find truly outstanding opportunities for promotions.

With general conditions of service, pay and pension plans at an all-time high, there are wonderful prospects for young men in Ordnance. Learn a trade and build an unusual and important career for yourself in the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps.

You are eligible if you are 17 to 40 years of age, tradesmen to 45, physically fit and able to meet Army test requirements. Applicants should bring birth certificate or other proof of age when reporting for interview.

Home and School
The March meeting of Carrville Home and School Association was held in the School on Thursday evening, March 12, with 25 members present.

Mrs. Morris, president, was in charge of the meeting. The Ontario Federation of Home and School Annual Convention at the Royal York was announced for April 7 and 8. Mrs. Robert Miller, nominations convener, was asked to explain the nomination forms which each member will receive in the mail. Mrs. Morris asked the guest speaker, Mrs. LeMasurier, president of York-Simcoe Home and School Council, to speak and her topic was entitled "What Home and School should stand for" and the purpose and aims of Home and School.

In regard to the insurance policy that has been taken out, Mrs. LeMasurier made it very plain that the Home and School could sponsor it but not pay for it, that each parent must pay the 50c for each of their children.

Mrs. B. Bailey moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. LeMasurier with Mrs. LeMasurier expressing her pleasure at being at Carrville. She said she felt a very warm regard for Carrville as she had been linked with its Home and School since its beginning.

Mrs. Robert Miller mentioned how proud Carrville ought to be of the pupils who, with their teacher, Mr. Gilbert, went to Eaton Auditorium to the Kiwanis Music Festival and came home with first prize over all the two-room schools who competed. Mrs. Morris reported that a letter of congratulations had been sent to the pupils and teacher from the Home and School Association.

There were 13 parents present to represent the Junior pupils and 19 present for the Senior pupils so

Fire
Much excitement was caused for a little while, on Thursday, when two sheds burned down, on Yonge St. S., at the home of the Hunter family.

David Davenport of Pemberton Rd. is on the sick list again. David is cheerful and hopes to be out and around again in three weeks time.

Our neighbourhood was deeply saddened last week, when they heard of the sudden death of Mr. Artantis, Mill Rd., on Thursday morning.

Birthday
Judy Mayer of Yongehurst Rd., celebrated her 6th birthday on Friday March 13th. Gary Skippon of Yongehurst Rd. was 10 on Friday, March 13th. Gary celebrated on Saturday, when he had a few friends in for a party.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Robert McArthur and family on the death of Robert's father, William McArthur at Toronto General Hospital, March 8.

Pleased to hear Doug Curr is home and feeling better. Doug has been ill, at the home of his grandmother in Toronto the past four weeks with an infection.

Ladies Auxiliary
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Richvale Scout and Cub Group are celebrating their fourth anniversary with a social evening to be held at Richvale School at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday March 25. All mothers of Scouts and Cubs are invited to attend.

Shower
A pink and blue shower was held March 11 at the home of Mrs. Jack Williams Richvale in honour of Mrs. Kenneth Hirtz, Langstaff. The room was tastefully decorated and the numerous gifts placed in a blue bassinet. The icing on the cake made and decorated by Mrs. Jack Williams was in the form of a stork. Guests were Mesdames, Williams, Hirtz, Pattison, Hughes, Woods, Purvis, Yotoff, Broom, Murphy, Byers, and Baker; Kathryn McKinley, Sharon McNulty, June Carter, Peggy Reid, Melba Baker, June Lenhardt, Helen Lillie and Carol Hirtz.

Home and School
The March meeting of Langstaff Home and School Association was held in the school Tuesday March 10. The president Mrs. C. Thirgood presided. The treasurer, Earl Richards reported a bank balance of $51.38. Two tickets are to be purchased for the delegates to attend the banquet at the Royal York Hotel in April. In a short talk on "Why father's should be members of the Home and School Association, Mr. H. LeMasurier said he was very pleased and proud to be a member of the first Home and School Association formed in Markham and Vaughan townships seven years ago, and of which there are now 15.

Mrs. H. LeMasurier reported on Founders Night, held at Charles Howitt School in Feb. 32 dollars taken in a collection Founders night is to be given to the Courtice Memorial Fund. Mr. Dickinson from the Department of Forestry showed a very interesting film on reforestation and forest conservation in Ontario, in which deliberate fires were started for experiment. It is interesting to know that one third of the wealth in Canada is derived from the forests and 6 of every 10 newspapers in the world are printed on Canadian paper. A very interesting evening was brought to a close with refreshments being served by the husbands of the ladies of the social committee in honour of "Father's Night." Miss Bradley's room, Grade 3 were the winners of the picture for this month with the greatest attendance of mothers at the meeting.

Baptism
The Baptism of Beverly Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith, Garden Ave., took place Sunday afternoon, March 15, at St. Timothy Anglican Church, North Toronto. Sponsors for Beverly Ann, were Mr. and Mrs. W. Kirby of Concord.

Ratepayers
The Langstaff Ratepayers Association held their regular monthly meeting in the school on Wednesday March 11. Mr. Usherwood the temporary president opened the meeting taking the place of Mr. J. Armstrong who was absent on account of illness. This being election night Mr. Usherwood then declared all offices vacant. The new executive for the coming year are President, Mr. Usherwood, Vice-President Mr. Evans, Treasurer Mr. Thomas, Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Costain, Trustees, Mrs. Bell, Mr. Masure, Mr. Carter and Mr. Martin. After a short business meeting slides were shown on the development of Hydro in Ontario and of the new Sir Adam Beck Station now under construction at Chippawa Ontario, where 5,000 men are employed. One interesting slide was of the Hydro floral clock, with 24,000 small plants making the word Hydro on the clock dial. Around the clock is a small pool, which visitors use as a wishing well, by throwing in pennies and making a wish. Last year 160 dollars in pennies was taken from the pool and sent to a local charitable fund. Mr. L. J. Roy of the Richmond Hill office answered questions put to him by members. The next meeting of the Association will be held in the school Wednesday April 8.

Moving
Friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lockhart will be sorry to see them leave the community next week when they go to Kitchener where Mr. Lockhart will take up his duties as manager of the Kitchener branch of the Marchant Calculator Machine Co.

Birthdays
Relatives of Fred Morris, Yonge St. helping him celebrate his birthday on Sunday March 15 were Tom, Elaine and Ted Coohoon and Mrs. Coohoon all of Long Branch.

Mrs. J. Hunt of Eglinton Ave., Toronto entertained at her home Friday March 13 to celebrate the birthday of her father, Mr. O. Brodie of Langstaff. Two hours of the evening were spent viewing coloured films of Mr. and Mrs. Hunts Florida trip, from which they recently returned. Included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Hall of Richmond Hill.

Weekend visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Vanhorn were, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Acheson of Toronto, Arthur Fairs of St. Thomas and Doris Tozer of Toronto.

Junior W.I.
The regular monthly meeting of the Langstaff Junior W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Russell, Yonge St. on Wednesday March 11 with the president, Miss Shirley Thompson presiding. The roll call "Waist Line" of pennies was answered by 13 members and one guest. The treasurer reported a bank balance of $221.67. Community Activities convener Peggy Reid reported a successful amateur night at Charles Howitt school. Penny round up bags for the Mental Health Association were filled by members. Mrs. Gladys Smith and Mrs. Joan Suter, presented Mrs. D. Madelino, the former Evelyn Russell, a recent bride, with a pair of bedroom lamps. Mrs. Madelino was the hostess. Mrs. Gladys Smith and Mrs. Joan Suter served the refreshments.

Mrs. F. Millard, Stop 20A Yonge St., mother of Leonard and Peter Millard, met with an accident on Friday, March 13, when she was thrown from a street car on Queen St. west, Toronto. She is now confined to her bed with leg and back injuries.

Is attendance slipping? Then remind your members of that forthcoming meeting by listing it in the "Coming Events" column of The Liberal. It's low in cost. Telephone Turner 4-1261.
