SECONDARY SCHOOL NOTES FROM RICHMOND HILL DIST. HIGH SCHOOL

CORONATION By Leigh Bishton, 11A

Each summer many tourists visit England to see the many historical places. This year some take on added importance because on June 2 a queen is to be crowned. This coronation will draw people from all over the world.

The word "coronation" comes from the Latin word "corona" meaning a crown. It is a solemn public ceremony of placing a crown upon the head of a king in token of his sovereignty.

The first English king to be anointed was Alfred in 872. In 1066 Harold was crowned in Westminster Abbey. This Abbey has been the coronation place of all the succeeding monarchs of England.

History tells us that never has a coronation ceremony been performed without some hitch. At the coronation of Queen Victoria, Lord Rollo, eighty-two, fell as he hobbled down the steps.

makes a base for the diamond-encrusted cross which holds a great emerald, and an egg-sized sapphire. When the Archbishop presents this orb to the Queen he will ask her to accept it as a symbol of the fact that the whole world is subject to the power of Christ.

The coronation ring and the crown of England called St. Edward's crown. To God, the Crown of the faithful bless we beseech Thee and sanctify this thy servant — and as Thou dost this day set a crown of pure gold upon Her head, so enrich her Royal heart with Thine abundant grace and crown her with all quietly virtues, through the King Eternal Jesus Christ our Lord.

This is the prayer which will be said by the Archbishop of Canterbury as he poses the Crown of St. Edward over the Sovereign's head. As it touches her head, the Abbey lights will be switched on and the sudden radiance will reflect the glitter of ten thousand gems as the peers don their coronets — which they may not wear until the Queen is crowned.

In the oath taken during the ceremony, the sovereign undertakes to govern according to the statutes, laws, and customs of the realm, to maintain the true religion, to receive the Sacrament, after that she is clothed in the purple velvet kirtle and mantle. She ascends the throne, is crowned again, and holding the orb and scepter, proceeds to St. Edward's chapel and then to the palace.

History tells us that never has a coronation ceremony been performed without some hitch. At the coronation of Queen Victoria, Lord Rollo, eighty-two, fell as he hobbled down the steps. As he rose and tried again to climb the steps, Victoria left her throne and walked to the edge of the platform to receive the pledge of fealty. It was typical of her reign — dignity of office and concern for her subjects.

WEDDING HICKS-MYKLS Candelabra and standards of white snapdragon formed the setting in Richmond Hill United Church when Shirley Novena Mykls, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mykls of Brockville, Ont., became the bride of Mr. Clifford Dalton Hicks, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hicks of Newtonbrook, Ont. Rev. W. Jones officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a strapless floor length gown of white nylon net over white satin, featuring a jacket of Chantilly lace with long sheath sleeves and a row of tiny buttons to the waist. Her fingertip veil of French tulle was arranged from a beaded cap of white satin. She carried a cascade of Johanna Hill roses and lily of the valley and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Reginald Thomas, sister of the groom was matron of honour. Mrs. Robert Weiss and Mrs. Douglas Hillaby, bridesmaids, all wore floor length gowns of twilight blue nylon net over taffeta with matching head dress and carried cascades of vivid pink carnations and pink delight roses. Susan Newson, niece of the groom and Kendra Brown, cousin of the bride, made charming little flower girls in floor length dresses of blue taffeta with matching bonnets and mittens and carried nosegays of dainty spring flowers. Robert Weiss was groomsmen, the ushers were Grant Mykls, brother of the bride, Reginald Thomas, David Murray and Donald Newson. The wedding music was played by Adelm Melecci. The soloist Mrs. Mark sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. After the ceremony the reception was held at Forest Hill's Golf and Country Club where the bride's mother received in white sheer with taffeta trim and matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing mauve shantung taffeta with matching accessories and corsage of coral sweetheart roses. For travelling to Florida the bride wore a grey suit red feather hat and fur jacket with a corsage of scarlet carnations.
