It towers high, it withstands the battering of the wnid and storm and when people pass by, it is pointed out as a beautiful tree. They do not say one branch is better than another, no, it grew together making it one. Perhaps if we all work and grow together ,then we can all work together toward one common cause." Mrs. J. Cozens of Toronto, long a leader in Guide and Brownie work, was guest speaker. She told of her work as leader of day camps for Brownies in which girls from the cities are given a glimpse of
