Plans Completed For Official Opening New Branch Of Bank Of Commerce

Mrs. Jean Morton — Teller of the new branch of The Canadian Bank of Commerce opening April 7, at Newtonbrook.

John M. Hutchison will be on hand next Tuesday to meet the banking public in the new Bank of Commerce in Newtonbrook. Mr. Hutchison will be in charge of the new branch.

Mrs. Joyce M. Semple, stenographer of the new branch of The Canadian Bank of Commerce, which will open in Newtonbrook on April 7.

April 7 marks the opening of a new branch of The Canadian Bank of Commerce at Newtonbrook North. At ten sharp the doors will open for business, and at 4.30 p.m. an Open House will be held (lasting until 8:00) to give the public a better look at the new building, which has walls with a soft green finish, the natural oak counters and furniture to match, harmonizing the floors and an acoustic ceiling. There are three savings wickets and one current account cage in the main banking room. Light refreshments will be served at the Open House.

Staff
J. M. Hutchison, who will be in charge of the new branch, was born at Gorrie, Ont., and educated at Wroxeter, where he entered The Canadian Bank of Commerce seven years ago. Since that time he has served at Chesley, St. Catharines, Toronto, and as Assistant Accountant at Barrie. When he isn't banking his pet hobby is woodworking. Teller at the new branch is Jean Morton, a resident of Thornhill. She was educated at Richmond Hill High School and entered the service of the Bank at the Yonge & Gould branch, where she spent three years. Mrs. Morton is past president of the Evening Auxiliary of the W.M.S. at Thornhill United Church, where she teaches the nursery class in the Sunday School.

She has two children, Lynn, 6, a pupil at Henderson Ave. school, and Colin, 4.
Joyce Semple, the stenographer and bookkeeper of the new branch, is a resident of Newtonbrook. She was born in England and came to Canada in 1945 to join the staff of The Canadian Bank of Commerce at Vancouver, where she spent one year, then went to New York for three years before coming to Toronto and Newtonbrook. Her hobby is gardening. Mrs. Semple is married and has three daughters, aged 3, 5 and 7, and is a member of Powell Road Home and School Association and Thornhill United Church, where she teaches a Sunday School class of 5-year-olds.

112 Bird House Entries Received

The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society experienced the largest response to their Bird House Contest since its inception. The contest was held last Thursday evening in the Lions Community Hall. The entry list showed 112 entries, three times as many as last year and the quality was exceptional. Prizes for the event were donated by the Horticultural Society, Councillor F. Perkins and Mr. W. I. Campbell and the prizes for all four classes were 1st $4, 2nd $2, and 3rd $1. Russell Tilt, who is associated with the Wildlife department and the Dept. of Lands and Forests was the judge and the contestants were from almost all the surrounding municipalities.

The prize-winners in the various classes are as follows:
Class 1: Single Bird House or Robin Shelter, up to 11 years: Richard Hook, Elgin Mills; Gordon Adams, Richmond Hill; Audrey Beatty, Richmond Hill. Class 2: Girls 11-16, Single House, Joan Whipp, Marie Jones, Marlene Orr, Whipp, Class 3: Single House, Boys 11-16: Harvey Cameron, Jim Darlington, Maple; Charles Barker, Headford. Class 4: Any type, all age groups: Brian Mills, Richmond Hill, Charles Barker, Headford; Tom Evans, Richmond Hill.
Of the prizes awarded, six went to the members of Constable Robbins' workshop, from which there was a total of 19 entries. At the close of the evening, many of the houses were disposed of by "Auctioneer" Floyd Perkins. All the houses brought a good price and the Workshop earned enough money to purchase more equipment and materials.

MARCH 12 1885
Fashion Notes
The organ-futed muskmelon waist is revived this spring. Hats will be worn almost to the exclusion of bonnets this year. Watered silk is again in vogue. Fencing is again spoken of as a fashionable amusement and gymnastic exercise for ladies.

It is said that when the real spring bonnets appear, they will be in bolder and higher shapes than ever.
Editorial
One of the results of the Hon. Mr. Hardy's Redistribution Bill is that Richmond Hill has been transferred, for Provincial purposes, from the West Riding to the East Riding of York.

In this issue we find a poem in loving memory of the late Abraham Law written by Mrs. Priscilla Law Grant, well known poetess and writer in the village.

March 19, 1903
A number of local people have been taken in by a stranger who was going to "write up the town". After collecting money for advertising in the write-up, this unprincipled individual left town without evening paying his hotel bill. The Metropolitan Railway promises some new freight cars this week. The handsomely finished cars have air brakes and transom windows in the roof.

Awarded Shield
Miss Sandra Koning, Roseview Avenue, Richmond Hill, was a dual winner at Richmond Hill Public School Oratorical Contest held recently in the High School auditorium. Sandra won the shield for the outstanding speech of the evening as well as the cup for her class, Grades 7 and 8.

Turn those unwarmed items into cash. Dispose of them by telephoning Turner 4-1261 and inserting a classified ad.

Guides Presented Awards Mother, Daughter Banquet

The Thornhill Guides and Brownies together with their mothers, enjoyed a Mother and Daughter banquet last Thursday evening in the Trinity Church Hall. A total of 157 persons enjoyed a meal prepared and served by members of the Trinity Church Caterers. The tables were decorated with royal blue and brown streamers and bouquets of daffodils.

Mrs. J. MacNeil, Commissioner for Thornhill district welcomed the girls and their mothers. Mrs. E. E. Kent proposed a toast to the Queen, followed by the singing of God Save The Queen. Guide Heather Bell proposed a toast to the Mothers and Mrs. S. A. R. Wood, who is a mother to both a Brownie and Guide, responded.

Following these toasts Mrs. P. McTaggart-Cowan, badge secretary, presented the following Guides with proficiency badges: Pathfinders to Carrie Heydens and the Coral Langman; Laundress to Margaret McArthur; Needlewoman to Corrie Heydens; Child Nurse to Joan Wade, Margaret McArthur, Phyllis Russell, Corrie Heydens, Gretchen L'Adventure; Pioneer to Margaret McArthur and Emergency Helper to Carol Langman. Corrie Heydens received her second class badge at this time also. Captain Joyce Healey, who explained the Photo Contest which was held recently for the Guides, commenting upon the variety of subjects chosen by the girls in this their first attempt at such a contest.

Scouts And Cubs Presented With Real Wolf Head

Last Wednesday evening was a big night for "C" Pack Richmond Hill Cubs when they were presented with a genuine wolf head. This was originally donated by the Department for Lands and Forests and Akela Betty Smith had a taxidermist do a very good job of mounting it.

A handicraft competition by Cubs had very few entries but those submitted were very good and showed initiative on the part of the boys. First prize went to Don Hisey, second to George Beatty and third to Wayne Lambert.

In "A" Pack Cubs Ralph Mason, Bob Blackburn and Brian Atkinson have succeeded in winning their first stars. Gerald Roy, Bill Rice have received their second stars and will be going up to Scouts along with Gordon Charity. The going-up ceremony will take place at the Father and Son night to be held in the Lions Hall, Friday, April 10.
The Yellow Six, led by Bruce Langstaff, has won the monthly inter-six competition for the third time in a row. As a reward for their previous win the boys enjoyed a Saturday afternoon visit to the Sportsmen's Show.
Graeme Bales is now Cub instructor with "A" pack and his assistance is welcomed.

Easter Dedication Services At Langstaff Baptist Church

During Easter and the two following weeks, Langstaff Baptist Church will hold services to rejoice in the power of the Risen Lord and to dedicate, to God, the new extension to the church which has been built with His help. The need for increased space became apparent last fall after the attendance at Bible School had hovered around the two hundred mark for almost a year. Although at first it was contemplated to build an addition of nine hundred square feet to the basement only, sufficient funds came in to enable the completion of a two-story superstructure, providing for an enlarged auditorium with new fount, lighting and seating, eleven new classrooms and vestry.

Wonderful Accomplishment
All this was accomplished under the leadership of the pastor Rev. A. R. Jones, who has a rare combination of preacher and builder skills. Working in close co-operation with the pastor was Mr. W. Stephenson as contractor, who with a keen awareness of the responsibilities of Christian stewardship, provided most of the skilled labour and materials at cost, and planned to advantage, the volunteer labour of the men of the church.

David Smith Guest Speaker
At the morning services on Easter Sunday, Mr. David Smith, coordinating principal of School Area No. 1 Markham-Vaughan will bring the message to the Bible School. At the evening services, the message of the Living Redeemer will be presented by the Langstaff Choir, directed by Mr. F. Spenceley. There will be a Young People's Rally on Friday April 10th, under the leadership of that forceful young speaker, Mr. Don Holliday, along with his talented quartette from the Central Baptist Seminary. On Sunday April 12th, Dr. Blandin, the founder of the Church, will bring God's message of salvation and prophecy, and conduct the first baptismal service in the new fount. On the following Sunday, Rev. Albert Stoll, the Fuller Brush manager will be the guest preacher. To all of these services the public is invited.

WELL WATER
With the coming of spring and its incidental floods, major and minor, the rural drinking-water supply should be checked for purity. When surface washings are excessive, even the best of wells may become contaminated. If there is an infant in the home where water from natural sources is used the water should be tested for nitrates before being used in his formula. An excess of nitrates may cause a "blue baby" condition, although it does not harm older children or adults.

Unionville Junior Farmers To Organize Farm Machinery Club

President Bill Clark of the Unionville Junior Farmers has announced that a Farm Machinery Club will be organized by Unionville Junior Farmers for all interested boys in the district. The Club is designed on very practical lines and its objects are as follows:
1. To promote better selection, care and storage of farm machinery.
2. To promote economical operation of farm machinery.
3. To promote proper safety in operating farm machinery and driving motor vehicles.
Five meetings will be held at monthly intervals on subjects which are designed to fall in line with operations about to commence on the farm. The first meeting for example, will be on Tillage and Seeding Equipment and will be held on April 16. The second meeting will be on hay harvesting equipment. Instructions will be given at all meetings by the Agricultural Engineering Fieldman and the Club is under the supervision of the President of the club, the Engineering Fieldman and the Agricultural Representative for York County. The Machinery Club will hold a final achievement day at which the members will be given an opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge of the operation and adjustment of farm equipment. In addition, two boys will be selected as a team to represent the club at an inter-club competition, usually held in conjunction with the Farm Equipment Dealers' Show in Toronto. Since only one club can be organized in the county each year, the Department of Agriculture is particularly anxious that as many boys as possible, up to a maximum of twenty-five, take advantage of this opportunity to become members in this interesting club. For further information contact Bill Clark, Unionville; Gordon Brumwell, Gormley, R. R. 2, or Ed Pearson, Assistant Agricultural Representative, Newmarket.
