Wedding

POYNTZ-WILSON
In a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Wilson, Whitevale, on Saturday afternoon, March 21, their younger daughter, Doris, was united in marriage to Thomas Digby Poyntz, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Poyntz, Winnipeg, Man. The Rev. John McLachlan officiated and Mrs. Newton Robinson played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gray suit, with matching hat, red accessories and a corsage of white orchids. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. Hornshaw, in a navy suit with matching accessories, and Mr. W. D. Stewart, of Winnipeg, acted as groomsmen.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Poyntz, the latter wearing a squirrel jacket over her suit, left by air, for New York from where they will sail for Bermuda. On their return, about the middle of April, they will live at 138 Niagara St., Winnipeg.

In Memoriam

SHEPPARD — In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Annie E. Sheppard who passed away April 1, 1952.

We do not forget her, we love her too dearly
For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.
— Lovingly remembered, Frank and family. c1w40

OUR HOTELS
Reprinted from a series of articles written by Wm. Harrison, for The Liberal in 1885.

Perhaps there are but a few institutions established in a civilized community more popular and really more necessary in that community than a commodious and well-kept hotel. To the farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, as they go abroad for business, to the agent and the commercial traveller, the man of work and the man of pleasures, to the poor man and to the millionaire, a comfortable hotel is a necessary and an attractive stopping place. And the attentive hostler, the accommodating waiters and the air of welcome which surrounds such a place stimulates a traveller in his anxiety to get there. If there is no place like home, a good hotel is next to it and were it not for the delirious articles sold there they would be safe as well as attractive resorts to the man of business and to the man of leisure.

As soon as Yonge street became passable for vehicles the necessity for the travelling public for half-way houses became apparent, and there were plenty along the line of travel who were ready to keep open house for rest and shelter to man and beast.

The first hotel, or combination of hotel and commercial house in our village was opened up by our old friend, Mr. Abner Miles, in 1802, on lot 45 Markham. The owner died in 1806, when from a public, it became a private residence. The next was built by Col. David Bridgford, a hero of 1812, on lot 47, near where the Temperance Hall now stands. This home was a resort for military gentlemen and early tourists to and fro between the lakes, and it disappeared as a public institution when its owner, of whom we have spoken more largely in previous letters, retired to agricultural pursuits.

Another old landmark, which has now disappeared, was a hotel built where the tenement stands at the south end of the village. It was the first frame building built in our village and tenanted when our village was in its infancy. It was a large-sized building, and, with driving-shed and stables, covered a wide space on the front.

To this hotel the exhumed body of the murdered Nancy Montgomerie, of whom a detailed account in the Kinross murder tragedy was given in the Liberal, was brought for a post mortem examination, a sight never to be forgotten by those who witnessed it, and here the jury sat during the investigation.

This hotel has been the scene of pretty lively times. Up to 1850 Yonge St. had not been macadamized further north than what is known as Lymburner's Corners, a mile and a quarter south of our village. A Government grant then

Glaze Your Easter Ham

The traditional Easter Ham, under a sparkling glaze, is the Holiday feast in many homes. Here's an easy glazing recipe, and a cooking hint to save work and assure a ham that will melt in your mouth.

To prepare a glaze as good-looking as it is toothsome make a paste of the following ingredients: —
1 cup Brown Sugar
3/4 cup Flour
1 1/2 teaspoon Dry Mustard
1/4 teaspoon Pepper
3/4 cup Maple or Corn Syrup
3 tablespoons Water

Bebre putting your ham to bake, wrap it in aluminum foil, to retain moisture and reduce shrinkage. You don't have to oven-proof. Just bake to your favorite recipe, or follow the directions on the ham wrapper.

After baking, remove the rind or casing. Score surface of the hot ham and stick with cloves. Pour paste over ham and return to oven. With the foil folded back, bake ham an additional twenty minutes or until glaze is cooked. You will have a ham fit for a queen's table, and after baking in foil there is no pan to scour.

Mt. Albert Girl Elected President Of York Junior Farmers Assoc.

At the Annual Meeting of the York County Junior Farmers' Association held at the Department of Agriculture, Newmarket, Miss Jeanette Harrison of Mt. Albert was elected President for 1953. Jeanette, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Harrison, has been an active leader in the Sharon Junior Farmers' Club and is Past President of the girls' section of that club, as well as being Vice President of the County Association last year. Eldred King of Markham was elected Vice President and Dorothy Miles of Milliken, secretary treasurer.

Progress Report
Following the morning business session, a very interesting progress report was issued by the past presidents of the various clubs in the county. The activities of the clubs were many and varied and included the sponsoring of a glee club, farm entrance improvement project, the sponsorship of calf and farm machinery clubs, the direction of the Junior section of Markham Fair, a fashion show and many others. Criticisms and ways and means of improving Junior Farmer activities also proved very interesting and constructive.

Guest Speaker
Following the noon lunch, David Pelletier of Milton, R. R. 6, and President of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association, was introduced by Carl Boynton, as guest speaker. Mr. Pelletier dealt with the qualities of leadership and
