The new hall is nearing completion and will be dedicated on Thursday April 23 at 8 p.m. It is expected that the church will take charge of dedication service. There will be special music, also representatives of our Township Council. Much of the furnishings of the hall have been undertaken by the W.A. The Sunday school has also given a generous donation towards the chairs.
Donations will be received by Mr. John Oliver, Richmond Hill, Church Financial Secretary. A number of the men of the church have given much time to completion of the hall of which all can be justly proud.

At the Carrville United Church on Good Friday evening a very well presented Cantata entitled "Olivet to Calvary" was presented by the Thornhill United Church Senior Choir to assist Carrville Junior Choir funds. The offering was very generous. The Junior Choir presented Mrs. Heath the organist and leader of Thornhill with a bouquet of flowers and they also served refreshments provided by some members of the W.A.

The trustees and ratepayers are calling another meeting on Thursday April 9 at 8 p.m. in Carrville Public School due to the fact there was no representative of Vaughan Township Council at a meeting called last Thursday. Mr. Hallman, the Inspector was present also Jackson Taylor of the Area Board.
Mrs. Allen of Toronto spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morris.
Mr. and Mrs. Ken Kirk of Toronto spent Good Friday with Ken's parents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Kirk.
Miss Katherine Price of Holby visited with the Bert Middletons on Sunday.
Messrs. David Barton, Bob Wynn and Bob Perring spent the weekend at Buffalo, New York.
Miss Marion Middleton and Mr. Jas. Ash visited on Sunday at Queensville with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wellman.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. A. T. MATHEWS
Phone Avenue 5-1455

Personal
Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Holt for the Easter weekend were Mrs. Holts parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edney of Bradford.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bryant of Brantford spent the Easter weekend with Mrs. Bryant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson, Morgan Drive.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morris were Easter Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Elliott at Bolton.

Nomination Papers
The members of Langstaff Home and School Association are asked to return their nomination papers as early as possible to Mrs. M. Roy.
Mr. Prudhomme of York Mills, will be the guest speaker at the next meeting April 14. His subject, "Keeping Pigeons and Rabbits as a Hobby." Mr. Prudhomme is the winner of many prizes at the Royal Winter Fair with his pigeons and rabbits.

Assistant Principal Marries
Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of Langstaff and Ernest Dunning, principal of Charles Howitt school, were guests on April 1 at the wedding of W. Robert Everist, assistant principal of Langstaff school, to Miss Barbara Hammond of Toronto in St. George's United Church, North Toronto.

Mr. Everist is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Everist, Eastwood Rd. Toronto. After a honeymoon in New York, Mr. and Mrs. Everist will reside on Kirk Drive, Thornhills Park Subdivision. Teachers from Langstaff school attended the ceremony at the church were Mrs. Cousins, Miss Joyce Bradley, Miss Dianne Creighton, Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Riches. Attending with them was Mrs. S. Worsdale.

Surprise Visit
Answering a knock on the door, Good Friday morning, Mrs. Suter Senior of Boyle Drive, was surprised to see her two small grandchildren Wendy and Jimmy Kirby ages 6 and 8 standing there. The children had walked from their home in Concord a distance of about 4 miles.
Needless to say their worried parents who were searching for them, were very much relieved, upon receiving a telephone call saying the children were safe at their grandmothers in Langstaff.

Stag Party
A stag party in honour of Ray Morris was held at the home of Gordon McKinley, Garden Ave., Thursday of last week. Ray was presented with a hassock from he 25 guests from the surrounding communities of Richvale, Richmond Hill, Thornhill and Langstaff.

Death
The community was saddened on Saturday April 4 by the sudden death of 13 year old Barbara Jean Wickett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Wickett, Westwood Lane. Barbara died instantly from a fall in her home around 4:30 in the afternoon.
The sympathy of the community goes out to her surviving younger sister and brother and to her sorrowing parents.
Win First Prize
Congratulations to Harvey Cameron No. 7 Highway, on winning $4 first prize in class 3 of Single Bird Houses at the Richmond Hill Horticultural Societys Bird House Contest, held in the Lions Hall recently.

"Penny Round Up" bags which had been filled by members were returned and will be forwarded to the Canadian Mental Health Association. E. Brennan, representative of the Langstaff Recreation Committee, spoke briefly on Recreation and the need of a Community Hall in Langstaff. The meeting closed with refreshments served by the hostesses, Mesdames Clark, Campbell and Robeson.

It was decided to hold a cosmetic party at the home of Mrs. Thirgood, Fairview Ave., Thursday, April 16. The yearly reports of the convenors were read, after which Mrs. Mathews introduced Mrs. Sinclair, president of the Thornhill W.I., who had been invited to install the officers for the coming year. Mrs. Sinclair expressed her pleasure at the invitation, and congratulated Mark-Vaun on its year's activities.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. T. Mathews; 1st vice president, Mrs. A. Morrison; 2nd vice president, Mrs. C. Thirgood; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. Roy; recording secretary, Mrs. W. Kirby; treasurer, Mrs. Glassey; District Director, Mrs. N. Langstaff Boys Club Holds Annual Hike
Langstaff Junior Boys Club, which is supervised by Ed (Red) Garner enjoyed its annual Good Friday hike to Leitchcroft Farms on April 3. Twenty-nine boys led by Ed, Cecil Thirgood, Joe Greenfield and Don George, met at Morris's store at 9:30 a.m., each boy carrying full kit of frying pan, dishes, cutlery and food.
With the kind permission of G. Leitch they proceeded to the Leitchcroft ovens situated in the Don Valley where each boy made his own fire and cooked his own lunch of bacon and beans.
After lunch a game of Hare and Hounds was played, which took the participants through four miles of brush. During the afternoon games were played and at 4:30 another meal was cooked and enjoyed, after which the boys hiked back to Langstaff all arriving home safe and sound, and looking forward to their next hike.
