Help in Campaign
Bruce and Louise Bell are now attending St. Augustine of Canterbury church, Leaside. Many residents of our district who know this popular little church will be interested in hearing that during the building fund campaign which started two weeks ago Bruce was one of the canvassers. He said $80,000 was promised and the church board expects to go ahead with building plans for a larger church, right away.

The choir of St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, visited St. Stephen's Church, Maple, and assisted in the Easter Sunday service.

Owing to the very serious ill health of his sister in California, the Rev. D. C. H. Mitchell left by plane right after the morning service at St. John's church Sunday morning.

Easter Service at St. John's
The special Easter service at St. John's was held in all the glad and joyous spirit which this Day be-speaks.

The church was beautifully decorated with white lilies, tulips, jonquils and easter lillies with two other Easter colours highlighted in plants of mauve hydrangea and golden daffodils.

Following the professional hymn and after the choir were in their places the children of the Sunday School marched to the chancel steps and presented their Lenten boxes, after which they proceeded to the parish hall for a special Easter service of their own.

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to Jack Dibb, who successfully underwent an operation at the Shuldice Hospital, Toronto, on Monday last.

Easter Party
The junior room at Jefferson school held a pre-Easter party on Thursday of last week. During the morning the children made themselves colourful baskets and coloured hard-boiled eggs, which they had carried in their lunch-kits to school. During the afternoon, while they were out playing at recess, the "Easter bunny" visited the school room and deposited candy eggs in the baskets sitting on the children's desks.

The children then trooped back into school and had a party with additional sandwiches and cookies supplied by their mothers.
