A number of friends and relatives attended the marriage of Lloyd Seth Wideman, youngest son of Mr. Seth Wideman and the late Mrs. Wideman, to Helen Edith Fraser, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fraser, New Toronto, on Saturday, April 4, at 4 p.m. in St. Margaret's Church. The church was prettily decorated in keeping with the Easter season.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length white lace over taffeta gown. Her finger-tip veil was caught to a lace cap. She carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet-heart roses.

Barbara Yule attended her sister as matron of honour. Jean Wideman and Betty Martin were bridesmaids. The three girls were attired alike in lace over taffeta gowns of blue, mauve and green respectively, and carried nosegays of yellow sweetheart roses. Arthur Wideman attended his brother as groomsmen. Ted Wideman and Donald Yule were ushers.

Following the wedding, the reception was held in Goodyear Union Hall. The bride's mother received her guests wearing navy dress with navy and white accessories with corsage of yellow roses. Assisting was Mrs. Clare Munro, sister of the groom, wearing navy dress with red and white accessories.

On their return the happy couple will reside in New Toronto.
