Mrs. A. Miller spent the holiday week-end in St. Catharines attending a school re-union. There were 19 women present coming from points as far as Windsor, Englehart, Burks Falls and Sudbury. Miss Doreen Jones visited the Thousand Islands on the week-end.

Mrs. Geo. Kelly's mother, Mrs. Risebrough fell in the garden last week and fractured her arm at the shoulder. We hope she will not be too long recovering.

Harmony Meeting
Members of the Harmony group of Brown's Corners, met at the church to discuss business affairs on Tuesday evening of last week. Arrangements were made to clean the church on Wednesday, May 27. A play "Here Comes Charley" by St. Columba's Young People will be presented under auspices of Harmony on Friday evening, May 29. Members are asked to make candy to sell during intermission and leave it at Mrs. Reid's home Thursday evening or Friday.

The Miscellaneous Group announced their intention to hold a tea and bake sale on June 13 at the home of Mrs. A. Millen, proceeds to go to the Building Fund.

It was moved by Mrs. E. Hill, seconded by Mrs. W. Brumwell and carried, that we have a bazaar in the autumn, proceeds to go to Harmony Club.

On Thursday of last week the Harmony Group catered to a dinner for 35 men from the Massey-Harris Co. There were district managers and local staff members in the group. Dinner was served in the church parlours.

W.M.S. Delegates to the District Rally of W.M.S. workers held at Richmond Hill United Church Thursday of last week were Mrs. Baker, Mrs. James Russell and Mrs. Wm. Rodick.

W.I. Meeting
Mrs. David Brown entertained W.I. members at her home Thursday afternoon of last week. The new president, Mrs. Chas. Hooper was in the chair. Business was discussed regarding the A. C. W. W. convention to be held in Toronto this August. It was stressed that homes and transportation would be needed for delegates from overseas, and anything done by way of entertainment would have to be financed by local groups. Six members will attend pageant rehearsals, costumes to be early Mennonite.

The Institute picnic will be held July 6. Members voted to go to Lake Simcoe County Park by bus.

Mrs. John Wilkins gave a most interesting paper on the meaning of the coronation symbols. Members were reminded that they had been invited to sing at the Historical Picnic at Sharon late in May. Following the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Brown and the co-hostess, Mrs. John Wilkins.

Barber Shop Singers
On Thursday evening in competition with the elements, the East York Chapter of Barber Shop put on a concert in Buttonville Hall and came out on top. Such an evening as it was! Thunder, lightning, hail, torrential rain on a tin roof, but none of it dampened the spirit of those inside. There were 50 men in the chorus each of whom enjoys singing for pleasure. The Buttonville audience gave them a good hand.

Children In Danger
Mothers are asked to teach their small children not to run on or on to the road. Every day the newspapers carry reports of the death of young children, caused by motor cars and trucks. How often do we read that the child darted into the street to retrieve a ball and was struck by an automobile. All Life is precious and is well worth the patience and the effort required to instill into the young mind the need for care and safety. Help to keep your child safe.

TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. ED. PAXTON, R. R. 7, KING
Phone King 3R11

Business of interest which took place at the May meeting of Temperanceville W.I. was donations of $10 each to the Institute for the Blind, the Cancer Society and to Mr. Bales in gratitude for his services during the social season at the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Everett Phillips agreed to convene a flagpole committee as a Coronation project.

A list of articles needed for the A.C.W.W. pageant were read. Any one wishing to contribute is asked to have them taken to Mrs. A. E. Kennedy, Agincourt.

A thank you letter is being written to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jennings in appreciation for the prizes donated for the season's highest eucharist scores. Mrs. Fred Hare and Mr. H. Clark were the lucky winners.

The exhibit at the Aurora Horse Show with Mrs. McClure as convener will be Temperanceville entertains at lunch.

The Vellore W.I. will be the guest of Temperanceville in June. Mrs. B. Stavert will also be present to speak on pottery-making in the home.

Mission Band
Twenty-four children attended the Mission Band held in Temperanceville Church on Saturday, May 23. Due to the fact that the Horticulture Society held its tulip show on the same date, Mrs. McClure was unable to attend. However the new officers were willing and anxious to accept the responsibility and a very delightful meeting was held. Miss Clara Herrera acted as president with Miss Donna Jennings as secretary. Miss Roberta Wilson took her place as pianist. The scripture was read by Ann Fox. Mrs. S. Paxton entertained the children with a short story after which Miss Patsy Macklin played a piano solo. Miss V. Holmes recited an appropriate poem. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction after which the children played games outdoors. Cookies and candies were served as a treat. The next meeting will be held June 6 rather than May 30.

Church
Special coronation services will be held in Temperanceville

Sunday May 31st will be Coronation Sunday at the Carrville United Church and there will be a special service with this thought in mind. Rev. E. E. Kent's sermon subject was "Ye Shall Be Witnesses" for Sunday May 24 and was a most uplifting and inspiring message. The Junior Choir sang very well.

W. A.
