Banquet
The Father and Son Banquet held at the Ridge Inn on Thursday evening, May 29, by the Cub Scouts of King City was a tremendous success, and an overflow attendance of 65, sat down to a chicken dinner. Mrs. W. F. R. Hood, who has retired as Cubmaster was the guest of honour, and was presented with a handsome set of two pieces of parchment coloured luggage as a gift of appreciation from the Cub Scouts. The gift was presented by Rev. D. C. H. Michell who was instrumental in organizing the Cub Scouts in this district, and who interested Mrs. Hood in becoming the first Cubmaster of the King Pack. Mrs. Hood, in her reply, said that she would remain interested in Cubbing, and would return to work with the Pack at some future date. She thanked them for the beautiful gift, and said that the best gift that they could give her would be for her to see every Cub go on in Scouting to become a Scout and later a Rover.

Cecil Smith, district Scoutmaster, was present to invest Miss Ethel Thomas as Cubmaster. Besides the Scouts and Cubs and their fathers and adopted fathers for the evening, those who attended the banquet included Rev. D. C. H. Michell, John L. Grew, Blyth Langdon, Mrs. A. McLennan and George Harvey, all members of the Group Committee. Mr. Grew, as Chairman of the Group Committee, proposed the toast to the Queen, and his son, Scout Timothy, played the National Anthem. In a speech of congratulation, Mr. Grew expressed his gratitude to the fathers and the boys who had made such a good attendance to Mrs. McLennan who had made most of the arrangements in connection with the banquet, and to Mrs. Hood for her fine work with the Cubs, and to Miss Thomas for coming to their aid as Cubmaster. He also praised assistant Cubmaster John Martin who had helped Mrs. Hood, and who was to continue in that office with the new leader.

Wedding Anniversary
Saturday, May 30, was the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Wade. Thirty years ago, in Newmarket, the couple was married, and then came to their farm on the 3rd con. of King, where they have lived ever since. They did not have a special celebration to honor the day, but did go to a show on Saturday evening, for a treat. On Sunday their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Lane, Newmarket, spent the day with them. Other visitors recently have been Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bovair, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wade, of Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Collins, Aurora, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wade.
On Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gambrell left on the midnight train Monday for a month's holiday to the west. They will stop first at Edmonton, where Mrs. Gambrell will see her brother, William Shipton, for the first time in 60 years. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reid and Joan in Warburg, B.C., and will enjoy many side trips before returning home next month.

New Homes
Two cellars have been dug in the new Heritage Park subdivision this past week. The Jack Parsons are building their home on a 90' lot on top of a little hill. A Mr. Jahrous of Toronto, has chosen a lot at the south west end of the subdivision as the site of his new home. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons are living with Mr. Walter Monkman while their home is being built.

Jackson closed with an exhibition of the year's work of the little pupils on Friday morning. The boys and girls who have been attending the school every morning since last autumn were Shane Belknap, David Drinkwater, Virginia Hood, Susie Poag, Nicholas Henshaw, Judy McMillan and Martha Dinick. Diane Glass was sick with measles and was unable to be at the closing party. The mothers of the little people were present, and one father, John Belknap.

When the Salada Tea Co. offered a prize of $10 to the Women's Institute for a hooked rug contest, the members of King City Institute who have been working with Mrs. John Norris of Kingcrafts, and others, got busy to make a rug. The design was a pattern of ivy leaves and worked these in shades of green on a black ground.

On Wednesday at the District annual held at Schomberg, their rug was the only one entered in the competition. Of course, they won the prize, but they wish that there had been entrants from the 15 branches of the York Centre District.

Mrs. Norris accepted the cheque on behalf of the King City Institute. At the meeting in Schomberg several Institutes brought old china for a display that proved to be very interesting. An old Willow pattern dish that had been used for chicken pies, was shown by Mrs. L. Davis, who related that her dish was at least 160 years old, and was still in perfect condition. Mrs. Jack Maginn, Kettleby, showed plates that had belonged to her great-grandmother. A teapot from Mrs. W. Dewsbury, Vanderford, was brought to Stouffville from England in 1834. Mr. Henry Copson, grandfather of Ernest and Clayton Copson, 2nd con. of King, was in the office of Henley Potteries, exporters of china, before he brought the plates shown by Temperanceville W.I. to Canada. Many from here plan to attend the very popular "Hans Christian Andersen" coming June 10 to 13 to The Richmond Theatre.

Anniversary Service
Carrville United Church Sunday School will hold its anniversary service this Sunday, June 7, at 2:30 p.m. The Sunday School will join with the congregation for this service. Also on Sunday, June 7, the Carrville Junior Choir will go to Headford to help in the worship service and the Woman's Association is invited to attend.

The Coronation Service held at Carrville United Church was very impressive indeed. The Junior Choir sang the Coronation chorus. Rev. Dr. Kent's sermon text was Defender of the Faith and prayers for Queen and Country were offered. A re-dedication of those present was also part of the service. The order followed was the one issued by the General Council's Committee on Church Worship.

The executive members of the Carrville Home and School Association held a meeting on May 28 with all members present. Mrs. Nicholls the new president, was in charge of the meeting. Mr. J. Bushell is the membership convener and Mrs. Chevis was appointed social convener. The membership fee is to remain at 50c for the year 1953-54.

There is to be an open night at the school on June 11, and all parents are invited to attend. The teachers, Mr. Gilbert and Miss Wilson will have a display of the children's work and will be pleased to see with any parents. The entertainment for the evening is to be an auction sale in which the children as well as the parents will take part, so bring along something for the sale. The prizes will be given that night to the children who received the most stars for their parents attendance at Home and School meetings.

Refreshments will be taken care of by the executive. A Bazaar and dance will be held at the Community Centre at Richvale on Saturday, June 13, sponsored by the members of the Vaughan Women Workers and the East Vaughan Ratepayers Association. Bazaar will be from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and there are many useful and lovely things offered for sale.

Miss Gertrude Lever from Richmond Hill has been appointed as new Postmistress in the Richvale Post Office. The office will remain open all day, we understand, except for the 12-12:30 break for lunch, and of course will be closed Wednesday afternoon.

We welcome Miss Lever who is well and favorably known here having relieved the former postmistress for a short period. She served for nine years as assistant in the Richmond Hill office. We congratulate Postmistress Lever and wish her every success.
