"I see the O'Malleys bought that house on Melrose Street."

Although Mr. and Mrs. Reader are glad to know about the O'Malleys, they have a lot of other things on their minds, problems right in their own home: Is this a good time to trade in the old car? Are we carrying enough insurance on the house? What shall we have for Sunday dinner?

U.N. Highway Signs Would Eliminate Language Problems

The highway signs shown above represent the recommendations of a group of U.N. experts for adoption throughout the world, which would enable highway users everywhere to understand road signs. Lack of understanding of any given language would not impair comprehension of the signs. The reproduced signs are the result of 20 months of work on the part of six experts appointed by the U.N. Secretary-General in 1950. The recommendations now go to the U.N. Transport and Communications Commission and the Economic and Social Council for further action.

Fairy Tale of Amiable Cobbler

"Hans Christian Andersen," Samuel Goldwyn's elaborate Technicolor production starring Danny Kaye and Farley Granger and co-starring ballerina Jean-Maire, marks the 88th motion picture Goldwyn has made as an independent producer.

Most spectacular of all the Goldwyn films, the current romance-with-music which opens on Wednesday, June 10, for four days at the Richmond Theatre relates the tale of a hopeful cobbler whose adventures take him to the gracious city of Copenhagen, and whose tales take him to the hearts of all lovers of fairy tales.

Not a biography about the famed Danish writer, the film is admittedly a "fairy tale about this great spinner of fairy tales."

"Why Foreign Missions?" Topic This Sunday

The Afternoon Branch of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Anglican Church is holding a Corporate Communion on Sunday morning. At this service the Rector will be speaking on a topic that is often discussed by Church people, namely, "Why Missions?" This should be of interest to many people who have asked this same question from time to time. A special invitation is extended to all W.A. members and their friends to join in this Service on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill.

To save time and money use the "Coming Events" column of The Liberal. It tells people "what, when and where" cheaply and quickly. Telephone Richmond Hill TU. 4-1261.

HEADFORD NEWS
CORRESPONDENT
Mrs. H. Acreman
R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
Phone TU. 4-2236

Word has reached Headford from the West of the death of Mr. Harry Matthews at White Fox, Sask. Until last year, Mr. Matthews lived here with his sister, Mrs. William Leuschner.

Saturday was Achievement Day at Newmarket for the Girls' Clubs of York County. Buttonville Club, of which Cora Brodie and her sister Margaret, are members, did not get their usual high honors this year as a unit but the "high girl" of the day Jean Brumwell is in the group. They are a very fine group of girls and can hardly expect to carry off the honors every year.

The power cut-off on Sunday shortened the missionary film-strip being shown in the Sunday School, but a good talk on India was given by Donald Brodie and the film strip may be repeated.

Sunday evening at 7:30 the W.A. of Headford will hold its annual Church service. We are hoping for a good attendance and of course all members will be there. The music will be in charge of Carrville Choir with Jack Oliver as soloist and Mr. Muir of Stouffville, recently of Chiha, will be guest speaker. The fact that this is the women's own service does not in any way bar men from attendance and it is hoped they will support us with their presence in good numbers.

The W.M.S. will hold its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Norman Brodie on Thursday afternoon at 2:15 p.m. Mrs. Hickson of Richmond Hill will be guest speaker.

The annual Garden Party of the Victor Home at 1102 Broadway Ave., will be held on Wednesday, June 10. It is hoped as many as possible will plan to attend.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. Norman Brodie's birthday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leek and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Johnson.

The children of our school were taken on Tuesday to Unionville to join in the festivities and parade to celebrate the Coronation.

Obituary
LEONARD-ACREMAN
On May 29, following a lengthy illness at his home at 742 Pharmacy Ave., Toronto, there passed away a veteran of World War I, well known in the Headford district and around Schomberg, in the person of Leonard Acreman. Enlisting at the age of 19, he joined the 127th York Rangers under Colonel Clark, going almost immediately overseas. He served throughout the war in France and Belgium, in the machine gun section, seeing action on the Somme and around Ypres, receiving two medals as rewards for service.

At the Armistice he returned to England and married Ida Gibbings of Devon. Returning to Canada, he settled in Toronto, where he engaged in landscape gardening. Some of the very beautiful homes in the Forest Hill district are evidence of his skill.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, three daughters, Doris (Mrs. Elmer Merchant), Muriel (Mrs. Bert Godlin), Jean (Mrs. Albert Pasco) and one son Roy. Also left are his brothers, Harold of Headford and Bert of Peterboro, besides Charles and John and one sister, Mrs. William Pitty in England.

In a flag-draped casket, he was laid to rest in York Cemetery.
