"Long Live Our Gracious Queen" Graduation

Congratulations to Miss Elizabeth Flood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Flood, Jefferson, who graduated Monday, June 1, at Convocation Hall Toronto, after successfully completing the three year course in Physio and Occupational Therapy. Miss Flood will join the staff of the Rehabilitation Centre for Cripples in Montreal this August.

Miss Mary Flood, sister of Elizabeth, who herself a Physio-therapist at the Queen Mary Hospital, Montreal, came home for her sister's graduation.

Word has just been received that Joan another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flood's, passed her first year in medicine with 2nd class honours. Congratulations!

Car And Truck Collision

Bob Taggart and his son, Alan, of Regent St., Elgin Mills escaped serious injury on Wednesday of last week, when the car Mr. Taggart was driving collided with the rear end of a truck owned by Butler and Baird and driven by Edwin Wernham.

The truck was pulling out of R. D. Little's garage, Richmond Hill, just as the Taggart car, travelling south, came upon it.

Unable to turn out to avoid a collision, because of heavy traffic on the highway behind their car, Bob Taggart put on the brakes and crashed into the rear of the truck.

The impact almost tore the roof off the car and Alan suffered torn shoulder ligaments and muscles. P.C. Ronald Seyffert investigated and had Alan taken to Dr. Cameron Cowan's office for treatment.

Bazaar Notes

Mrs. R. Threlfall and Mrs. Stan Leno, Social conveners for the Jefferson School Community Club, were very pleased with the splendid turnout at the regular monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ed. Gamble, last Wednesday evening.

Twenty-five ladies were welcomed by their hostesses, Mrs. Gamble and Miss Ella Gamble. A great deal of finished work has already been turned in and further supplies of material, samples and patterns were taken home by the ladies at the close of last week's gathering.

Articles were also gratefully received for the Fish Pond, which is to be an interesting feature for the children at this fall's bazaar.

Among those attending for the first time were: Mrs. Reg. Burns, Mrs. D. Beebe, Mrs. Jim Fletcher, Mrs. E. C. Leno, Mrs. George Patton, Mrs. J. O. Neill and Mrs. C. Gould.

The next monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Passmore, Jefferson, on Wednesday, June 24, at 8 o'clock. In the meantime, think of something novel, costing in the neighbourhood of ten or fifteen cents, for your contribution to the fish pond, and bring it along with you on the 24th.

St. John's Anglican Church

A beautiful and inspiring pre-Coronation service was held at St. John's Church last Sunday morning, when the rector Rev. D. C. H. Michell, dwelt on the theme of Dedication.

The service, as commanded by the Queen, was interspersed with many lovely prayers and hymns heralding the great and historic event of last Tuesday.

The Oak Ridges Brownie Pack paraded into church with their leader, Mrs. Severs.

Coronation Celebrations
The 1st Jefferson Cub Pack and Scout Troup held its first demonstration on June 2, in honour of the crowning of our beloved Queen Elizabeth II.

Primarily held in honor of the day, it was also a memorable time for the Scouts and Cubs for another reason too, as they were thus able to show their parents, families and friends how well they have mastered the various achievements of Scouting and Cubbing. It was a big day for the children at the Orange Home also.

After taking part in the parade for Richmond Hill's Coronation Day celebrations, then viewing the Coronation proceedings on TV, the children and the staff were entertained in the evening by the McKinley Lodge.

The climax of the day came with the wonderful display of fire-works, which everyone in the neighbourhood enjoyed too.

For the price of a few stamps — to say nothing of the work you save — you can advertise a forthcoming function in the "Coming Events" column of The Liberal. Telephone TU 4-1261.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rickward, Oak Ridges were Mr. Rickward's mother, Mrs. Robert Rickward, who spent some time at her son's while recuperating from an operation performed at the Toronto General Hospital, and Mr. Robert Rickward Sr., Miss Grace Rickward, Mr. Harvey Rickward, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Gilchrist, all of Kearney, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. C. Archibald and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bly on Coronation Day, and enjoyed the Coronation films on television.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ash over the week-end were Mrs. George Chester and daughter Beth of Scarborough, Mrs. Orville Mills and daughter Gwen of Port Hope and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ash and granddaughter Christina of Belleville.

Mrs. Robert Woolley who has been ill for the past ten days is able to be out again.

Mrs. K. J. Woolough was hostess last Wednesday afternoon when mothers of the Rangers held a tea to raise funds for the organization.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Oak Ridges Scouts and Guides are holding their next meeting on June 9, instead of June 2 which is Coronation day. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Warren Gerrard, Elm Grove Avenue. After a short business meeting a social time will be enjoyed. A good turnout of the Auxiliary members is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant McCachen left on Friday to visit friends in Detroit and other points. They will return on Wednesday.

Fellow members of the Queen's York Rangers held a party on Saturday night to bid farewell to Rob-in Rowatt who is spending the summer at Petawawa. They escorted him to Toronto and saw him safely aboard his train.

At 11 a.m. the president of the Oak Ridges Lions Club planted a red maple in the Lions Park at the corner of the King sideroad and No. 11 Highway. This tree donated by Captain and Mrs. Hawman and planted with ceremony by Lions Club members and many interested residents will be a lasting tribute to Queen Elizabeth on her coronation day.

The Lions Club and business men with the co-operation of Scouts and Guides and their leaders staged a parade and drumhead service in the public school grounds at 8 p.m. The Reverend D. C. Michell was the speaker and this was followed by a beacon fire at 9.30 p.m., linking Oak Ridges with the beacons burning across Canada as a Coronation tribute.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fortier of Port Arthur are spending three weeks holidays with Mr. Fortier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fortier, Oak Ridges.

Mr. Gerald Stephenson arrived home by TCA on Sunday from Vancouver where he has been for the last five weeks. Many from here plan to attend the very popular "Hans Christian Andersen" coming June 10 to 13 to The Richmond Theatre.

On behalf of the Oak Ridges Scout Group committee, I wish to congratulate Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies leaders of King and Oak Ridges groups for their fine co-operation and leadership. To the boys and girls, our sincere respect for a fine performance and perfect conduct. To Dr. Gunn, Stan Rule, E. C. Hawman, Norman Boyd and Geoffrey Beatty, we extend our sincere appreciation for the use of their equipment and their time. We thank the Ladies' Auxiliary, District Guide Leader, Mrs. Joan Gunn and chairman of York Central, Scouter Jackson Taylor and the Reverend Lothian and the Reverend Michell and all the citizens for their active participation in our Coronation service. The Performance is as Startling as the Savings!

You'll get the surprise of your life when you take a demonstration drive in the newest addition to the AUSTIN line of finely built cars—the AUSTIN A-30 4-door sedan.

This car goes! This car is vibrantly alive. It will whip through traffic or cruise at highway speeds with a driving ease that's a never-ending joy.

It feels as light as a feather to park, and yet is so smoothly sprung that it stays firmly on the roughest of roads. It carries four adults in armchair comfort.

But the most amazing thing about it is its low price and its near-starvation appetite. Nothing else on Canadian highways comes even close to it in downright, almost unbelievable economy. Ask for a demonstration.
