Neighbourhood News
Among those attending performances by the Metropolitan Opera in Toronto last week were Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Huston and Betty, Mrs. H. English, Mrs. B. C. Sisler and Rebecca and Mrs. A. Miller. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pierce (nee Betty Tribbling) on the birth of a son on June 1 (a first grandchild for Mrs. Doris Tribbling).

Congratulations to Douglas Tribbling who successfully completed his year's work at Tech in the Auto Mechanic's course. Everyone is glad to welcome John Craig back home after a two weeks stay at the Hospital for Sick Children. He is most grateful for the many gifts he received while there, but is still wondering who that delicious box of chocolates that came minus a card. Congratulations to George Kelly, who has successfully completed his third year in Dentistry.

Special Church Service
A special service to honour Queen Elizabeth on her coronation was held in Brown's Corners United Church last Sunday. The choir under the direction of Mrs. S. English gave a rendition of "All Hail the Queen" by Healey Willan. Harveral Graduate
An impressive graduation ceremony took place at Harveral College last Monday evening. In the graduating class was Miss Joanne Kelly, daughter of Mrs. S. English was among the guests.

Receives Flying Licence
Richard Tribbling has recently been granted a private flying licence. He has been taking lessons at Gillies Airport under the tutelage of Gordon Craig. Clean Church
On Wednesday of last week Harmony Club members performed Operation Scrub Brush at the church. A dozen or more women arrived early in the morning armed with the necessary equipment and gave the church a thorough cleaning. They took along a lunch and worked through until they could find nothing more to clean which was about 2.30 p.m. Members! Please think well and use the door mat when next you enter!

Here Comes Charley
An hilarious play "Here Comes Charley" was presented in Buttonville Hall on Friday night of last week. A large audience was present and enjoyed the comedy presented by St. Columba's United Church Young People. Financially as well, the evening was a success. The Harmony Club which sponsored it realized the sum of $53 after splitting door receipts and expenses with the guest players.

Coronation Celebration
An impressive ceremony took place at Buttonville Hall on Coronation Day when the Women's Institute sponsored a tree planting and dedicated service. The new W.I. president, Mrs. Chas. Hooper, conducted proceedings giving a brief opening address, followed by the Maple Leaf Forever. Rev. A. C. Huston gave a short talk on the reason for the tree planting. The trees, which were red maples, were planted one on either side of the entrance walk and each member threw some earth onto the roots. Mr. Bill Hood and Mrs. G. Purvis took movies of this ceremony. Mr. Huston made the dedication prayer and God Save the Queen was sung.

When the preliminary service was over, those present adjourned to the Hall where the school children presented choral numbers, "Elizabeth of England" and "In a Golden Coach." One verse of the latter was sung by a trio, Jimmie Hood, Bobby Wilkins and Roger Kedwell. Sandwiches, tea and cookies were served to everyone and then the majority of the company proceeded to Unionville to march in the Coronation Day parade there. The W.I. had made a wagon float on which rode the Queen in the person of Ellen Hooper, and her loyal subjects as represented by members of the Commonwealth of Nations, Mrs. Wilkins as Canada, Mrs. Brown as India, Mrs. G. Robinson as Ireland, Mrs. J. Brown as New Zealand. Others were Mrs. J. Rodick, Mrs. Pralet, Mrs. Geo. Kelly, Mrs. E. Stotts, Mrs. R. Boyington. Driving the tractor which pulled the float was Dorothy Hooper dressed as John Bull. Among the many floats in the parade this one presented a most attractive appearance.
