Birth

MARCHIONE — Mr. and Mrs. Marchione, Baker Ave., are happy to announce the birth of a daughter, Anna Mary, on Friday, July 24, 1953, at Mrs. Stanford's Nursing Home, Richmond Hill. clw5

Wedding

PETTIGREW-EVANS

On June 27, 1953, in Richmond Hill United Church, the wedding of Lorna Lillian Evans, daughter of Mr. E. G. Evans and the late Mrs. Evans of Richmond Hill, and James Gilbert Pettigrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. R. Pettigrew of Willowdale, took place. The church was decorated with tall standards of pink carnations and gladioli. Rev. C. G. Higginson performed the ceremony and the soloist was Miss Joan Bourne.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white imported Chantilly lace over white satin with lily-pointed sleeves and round scalloped neckline with full skirt falling into a circular train. Her train-length embroidered veil was held by a lace scalloped Dutch Brim. She carried a cascade of white roses, carnations and gladioli.

The groom, given in marriage by his father, wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie. He carried a cascade of white roses, carnations and gladioli.

The maid of honour, Miss Lillian Berg, wore a gown of dusty pink Chantilly lace over pink taffeta with round scooped neckline and she wore a matching Dutch brim. She carried a cascade of Johanna Hill roses.

The junior bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Ann Biffin and the flower girl was Miss Joanne Cook. They wore similar gowns of dusty pink nylon net over pink taffeta with round frilled neckline and they carried small cascades of Johanna Hill roses.

The groomsmen were William Hodgins and the ushers were Guy Pettigrew and Ronald Brown. The reception was held in the Palm Room at the Summit View, where the guests were received by Mrs. Percy Usher, aunt of the bride, who was dressed in champagne flowered lace and net over taffeta with matching pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore beige shot nylon with matching beige accessories and carried a purse corsage of yellow roses.

The honeymoon trip to Huntsville the bride wore a pink corded two piece suit with navy accessories. On their return the couple will reside in London, Ont.

Obituary

CLARENCE JOHN BEIRNES
After a lingering illness, Clarence John Beirnes of 96 Roseview Ave., Richmond Hill, passed away in York City Hospital, Newmarket, July 26. Mr. Beirnes had undergone several serious operations in recent months.

He was born in Hepworth, Ont. in 1930 and had lived in Owen Sound before coming to Richmond Hill two years ago. Mr. Beirnes had been employed as a mechanic in the village until his illness forced him to enter hospital. He was a member of the Lutheran church.

He is survived by his wife, the former Doris Kelsey, of Walkerton, his parents, Mrs. Ruben Lahn of Richmond Hill and Mr. John Beirnes of Chesley, also brother Allan and sister Joyce.

The funeral service was held in the Wright and Taylor chapel last Monday evening at 8 p.m. and was conducted by the Reverend Fisher of Sherwood Lutheran church and interment was at Owen Sound on July 29.

GORDON HOWARD WHITE
The community was saddened to hear of the passing of one of the young men of the village, Gordon Howard White, late of Richmond Hill. He passed away suddenly at the Muskoka Sanatorium after undergoing a surgical operation. He had been convalescing at the Muskoka Hospital for the past 13 months.

Born in Toronto in 1926, Howard, as he was known to his many friends, came to live in Richmond Hill in 1934, and previous to his illness was employed at the Richmond Hill Municipal Office. He was a member of St. Mary's Anglican church in this village and attended the local Public and High Schools.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife the former Jean Craig, and his two-year-old son, Gordon, also his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. White, and one brother, William, of 123 Mill St., Richmond Hill. An older brother, Ernest, was killed in action in World War II.

The funeral service was held at 2 p.m., July 29, at the Wright and Taylor chapel and was conducted by the Reverend A. A. Chote, of St. Mary's Anglican Church. Interment was in Richmond Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were

Social Notes
Anne Curtis spent last week with her aunt in the city.

Betty Gay, who visited a week or two in Headford and helped in the Vacation School, has returned home.

Mrs. W. Marshall, Mrs. E. Meredith and Mrs. E. Mullen with Gloria and Brian Mullen, visited Mrs. Marshall's daughter, Mrs. Melvin Wellman on Friday and Saturday last week.

Miss Emma Baker stayed over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wellman.

Miss Joyce Morgan who taught school here for a week last Fall, was in Church on Sunday with the Brodies. She was a week-end guest of Cora and Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker called on George's niece, Mrs. Fred Nixon, at Manilla last Sunday. They brought back Charlie, who had spent a week there, and Elizabeth, who went there after her holiday at Camp Ashunyuong.

Jimmy Hord stayed with his grandmother and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Barker, to be near for going to Vacation School.

Vacation School
Friday evening was Parents' Night at the Vacation School here when a large number of parents were present. The children demonstrated a typical day in school, and each division had some small contribution to the program to show what they had learned during the week. The very little tots sang a welcome song and the Wonder Song; the Intermediates (six to eight years) put on a playlet on the Good Samaritan, with Albert Leek as the wounded traveller and Alan Nichols as the Good Samaritan; and for the seniors Betty Gay told the story of the Sermon on the Mount with flannelgraphs. Afterward the parents were invited to the basement where a display of the pupils' handwork was on view. Everyone felt that the Vacation School had been a happy and helpful experience, and we are already planning for next year. Our attendance this year reached a high of 74, while 21 leaders and helpers were on the staff.

Vacation Sunday
Sunday is Vacation Sunday on Victoria Square charge, with no services held on the charge at all; but we will all look forward to having Mr. Lott, famous blind speaker, with us for August 9.

Passes Away
Mrs. Norman Horner (Janey), for so many years a resident of Headford, passed away in Briar-bush Rest Home on Monday, after a lingering illness. Rev. A. C. Huston conducted the funeral.

Rally Day
A meeting of teachers and officers of Headford Sunday School was held at the home of the superintendent, Mr. Freeman Barker on Monday evening, when plans were made for Rally Day, which will be held on September 6. There will be further announcements concerning this.

In Memoriams

EVANS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Pryce T. Evans, who passed away, July 30, 1952. Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears and silence often flow, For memory keeps you ever near us.

Though you died one year ago, — Sadly missed by his wife Nancy and family. *1w5

RUSSELL — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mabel Russell, who passed away July 31, 1952. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are past; In silence she suffered, in patience she bore, Till God called her home to suffer no more.

— Sadly missed and lovingly remembered. Husband and daughter Louise and family. *1w5
