NATIONAL VIEWS & NEWS

HOW MUCH is that puppy in the purse? Fort Worth, Tex. police arrested a woman for vagrancy, opened her purse and out popped this toy terrier. Right, beach wolves got an assist from pretty Gaby Suter at Jones Beach, N.Y. when she "burned" her name on her back.

WATER WINGS aren't necessary on this Cat D8 Tractor which hasn't been to sea, but just stockpiling sand with a No. 8A Bulldozer for the Vandigrift Construction Co. near Mitylene, Ala.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Huston are taking a well deserved vacation and will motor to Pine Falls, Man., where their daughter lives.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Watters of No. 7 Highway on the birth of a son.
There will be no service at Brown's Corners Church on Sunday, August 2. Guest ministers will take services from August 9, until Mr. Huston returns.
Last week an enthusiastic group of children and leaders met at the Headford Church to hold one of the best vacation schools it would be possible to find. As many as 75 children appeared of a morning in an area where most of the homes are a quarter of a mile apart.
Interested people gathered the children up by the carload, delivered them at 9 a.m. and picked them up again at 11.30 a.m. From this charge some of the drivers were Mrs. Marson, Mrs. Hord, Mrs. Jim Hood, Mary Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. N. Reid, Mr. John Black, Dorothy Hood, Mr. Craig and Mrs. Stephenson.
One morning Mrs. Cecil Nichols of Victoria Square arrived with 20 children in her car — after that Mr. Gordon Mortson brought the school bus full.
At the school, children had a worship service, sing song, Bible study, recreation and handicrafts. Boys and girls from ages 9 to 12 made very interesting articles. Mrs. Ackerman instructed the girls in the making of felt bags and Mr. Briggs, a well qualified instructor, formerly with the University of Toronto, S.P.S., helped the boys make very attractive articles from old crates and tin cans.
Working with the 7-8 year olds were Dorothy Hood, Mrs. C. Lee, Coral Perkins and Lillian Nichols and Mrs. Huston.
Beginners' work was taken by Mrs. F. H. Leaf assisted by Shirley Gee, Barbara Richards, Grace Rodick, Mrs. Marson, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Jones.
Offerings received for missions during the week amounted to $28.95.
On Friday evening a closing ceremony was held to which parents were invited, and some of the school activities were demonstrated.
Credit for the success of the school must go largely to Mr. Huston who felt the necessity for it very keenly, and worked tirelessly to find the leaders to man it. Each morning he conducted the worship service with the children, and was always ready with help and inspiration for the leaders.
The Victoria Square charge is most fortunate in its minister.
