FATTY WASN'T FED RIGHT

The right results means profits because it means the difference between 'A' grade hogs & 'C' grade hogs

It costs as much to buy, or raise and feed a 'C' grade hog as an 'A' grade hog; but which one is worth more?

In fact, a 'C' grade hog will cost more to feed because it takes more pounds of grain to make it even resemble a hog that's fed right.

Try SHUR-GAIN hog feeds — they are formulated for Canadian hogs, and tested under Canadian conditions at the SHUR-GAIN Demonstration Farm.

Wedding

Pleadwell-Atkinson

On Saturday, July 25, 1953, in Central United Church, Unionville, Rev. W. Butt officiated at the marriage of Dorothy Pearl Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atkinson, to Merton Clarence Pleadwell, son of Mr. Stephen Pleadwell and the late Mrs. Pleadwell of Quarryville, New Brunswick.

Smith-Smith
Standards of pink and white gladioli decorated Unionville Central United Church for the marriage of Jocelyn Ruth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mowry of Markham to Mr. Gordon George Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, Unionville. Rev. W. S. Butt officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long gown of white eyelet organdy, with bertha collar and crinoline skirt. A matching tulle cap held her finger-length veil, and she carried a cascade of daisies and pink chrysanthemums. Miss Nancy Smith, maid of honour for her sister, chose mauve eyelet organdy and Marion Dravin, bridesmaid, was in green. Their long dresses were worn over crinolines. They wore matching wreaths of flowers. Mr. Samuel Stadelbauer was best man and the ushers were Mr. Ray Ormston and Mr. Douglas Meharg.

After the reception at the Guild Inn, the bride and groom left for the Kawartha Lakes. They will live in Unionville.

Irving-Coulson
Markham United Church was the scene of the marriage of Betty Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Coulson, Robinson Heights, and James Irving, son of Mr. F. Irving. Rev. C. E. Fockler officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white lace with a bouffant nylon tulle skirt. Her finger-tip veil was caught to a lace cap and she carried a bouquet of orchids and roses. Her only attendant was her sister, Sylvia Coulson, who wore a ballerina-length dress of pink lace and tulle over taffeta, and carried pink roses and cornflowers. Mr. John Coulson was the groomsman. Following a reception at the bride's home, the couple left for a trip to the East Coast.
