Mrs. E. M. Rumble and Lillian, Church Street, returned Friday from a two week's visit with the Leo Bendels at LeRoy Sask. Before they left they received a surprise call from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and two children from Nobleford, Alberta. Mrs. Thompson is in training with Lillian at Western Hospital, Toronto, and they had not seen each other for 21 years.

James Burns, of the village, was a passenger in the car of Miss Mary Baker of Pickering when her car collided with another driven by Walter Mosier of Oshawa Saturday night on No. 7A Highway near Port Perry. Both escaped with bruises.

The car, a 1953 Dodge, had been won by Miss Baker in the Peterborough Fair Draw on August 8. The lucky ticket was bought by Jim who signed Miss Baker's name to the stub. They had planned to sell the car and divide the proceeds.

The impact of the crash sent broken glass flying into the left rear window of the Mosier's car where Mosier's two children were sitting. They escaped without a scratch. Mr. and Mrs. Mosier suffered shock and bruises.

Police said Miss Baker's car went out of control as she was nearing the bottom of a hill. The engine of the Baker car was shoved back to the dashboard.
